KATONA A WINNER

Strengthens Hold on Season's Cup by Taking Exciting Race.

PETREL A CLOSE SECOND

But Forty Seconds Separates Her from Winner—Only Two More Races.

In a very exciting race, the winner of which could not be decided until after the finish gun, the Katona, Capt. Catlin, winner of last week's long distance race, proved a winner in Saturday's weekly race of the New Haven Yacht club for twenty-one footers.

On the last leg of the course, which was inside the harbor, the contest proved to be a struggle between the Katona and the Petrel, Capt. Hackett, and as the time indicates the finish was always in doubt.

The Nixie, H. S. Pardee, in the fifteen-foot class again proved her superiority over her competitors. Following is the summary of the races:

	Finish.	Time.
Katona .....	4:44:19	2:04:19
Petrel .....	4:44:59	2:04:59
Bretona .....	4:46:21	2:06:21
Grise .....	4:49:26	2:09:26

Class Q—Start, 2:40.
Class S—Start, 2:45.

The Katona, by winning Saturday's race, has strengthened her hold on first place in the race for the season's cup, unless some accident happens the cup undoubtedly will go to Capt. Catlin.

The Petrel is almost sure of second prize, despite the fact that the boat has sailed one race less than the others, excepting the Theiga.

The standing in full follows:
Boat. Owner. Pts.
Katona.....F. T. Catlin.....29
Petrel.....J. E. Hackett.....17
Grise.....J. N. Champion.....12
Bretona.....M. R. Durham.....12
Theiga.....Edw. Fox.....5

In class S the Nixie evidently has been having things her own way and will in all probability carry off the prize. Following is the standing in full:

	Owner.	Pts.
Nixie.....	H. S. Pardee.....	18
Chino.....	Brewer & Uhl.....	11
Vivace.....	B. H. Stowe.....	10
No Name.....	W. Bennett.....	4

But two more races remain in which to decide the ownership of these cups, following which the annual fall regatta will be held on September 5.

The local club goes to Sachem's Head to hold a joint regatta with that club on Labor day.

Guests at the Yacht club during the past week included: Mrs. M. J. Blais of McDonough; N. Y. ## WHISKEY IN JUGS

Gallon and a Half Located by Officers in Kimberly Avenue Grocery Store.

ILLEGAL SELLING CHARGED

Charles Sparks, Proprietor, Claims the Goods Belonged to His Daughter.

In the arrest of Charles Sparks of 155 Kimberly avenue, who was brought to the Howard avenue station by Sergeant Marlowe and Officers Landy and McQueeney yesterday morning the police believe they have cornered a man who has been for some time violating the liquor law by selling wet goods on Sunday. Sparks has twice been arrested, once for keeping a gaming house in 1909 and again on December 7, 1903, at which time he was located at 369 Congress avenue. After that arrest he went to his present address and there have been reports more than once that there were liquors being served in his place, which is ostensibly a small grocery and confectionary store. No evidence that would warrant a visit there had been secured up to yesterday.

The place is situated near the corner of Grant street and almost opposite St. Peter's R. C. church in Kimberly avenue. Yesterday morning the suspicions of the officers became so keen that they decided to visit the store and when they went in they found a one gallon jug full of whiskey, another gallon jug half full of the same stuff and some other liquors on ice. The proprietor of the place claimed that he was not selling liquors and claimed that the stuff belonged to his daughter. The police, however, claim that he has no daughter living with him.

RETURNED FROM OUTING.

Luther and Fremont Loeffel, sons of Louis Loeffel, the grocer of 641 Chapel street, return today from a month's fishing and hunting trip in Orange and Sullivan counties, New York. In letters received from them a few days ago they were reported as enthusiastic over their trip and experiences.

INSURED EGGS.

Progressive Firm Adopts Novel Method of Supplying Reliable Product.

Despite the efforts of producers, shippers and dealers during recent years to preserve eggs for any length of time, free from taint, no method has yet been discovered that can retain fully the rich fine flavor of the newly-laid product.

Homeselves who depend upon the grocer for their supply—and consequently are obliged to accept eggs of doubtful quality—will be interested in knowing that local dealers are now selling eggs under a binding guarantee.

"Guaranteed eggs" is a rather unique proposition, but nearly every woman is sufficiently familiar with the sorrows of trying to use eggs "past their prime" to appreciate the convenience of being able to buy eggs, which she knows to be good, rich and full-flavored.

"Blue Ribbon Eggs," as this guaranteed product is styled are being supplied to the trade by Dillon & Douglas, of New Haven, Hartford, Springfield and Providence, who control the output of the producing farms.

These "insured eggs" are sold in sealed cartons containing one dozen each, and are covered by the guarantee in all instances where the seal is broken.

"Strictly fancy eggs at a reasonable price" is the motto of Dillon & Douglas, who, while realizing the preference of the public for eggs of assured freshness, are in no sense disposed to take advantage of that preference by raising the price to an exorbitant figure.

THE CONTENTED HOSTESS.

All sorts of ideas are advanced by writers on women's affairs as to how to make entertaining easy; how to stop worry; how to make every guest not only feel at home but that all the little niceties you offer were prepared especially for each one. These writers mean well but they don't go deep enough to get at the real facts or they would find that Nabisco Sugar Wafers, the dainty, delicious confection, are the real basis of a hostess' success and contented spirit. They're just the sort of dessert for a luncheon, ideal after dinner and delightful with a hot cup or with the tinkling glass on a moonlit porch. Ever tried them with chocolate into which a marshmallow has been dropped? Merely a suggestion!

MR. VAN CLEAVE'S REPLY.

The expense incident to funeral service is many times a heavy burden, occurring as it often does unexpectedly and after long periods of illness. It is our desire to be known as considerate in our charges, and especially thoughtful of the many cares and responsibilities which we must necessarily assume on such occasions.

Mr. James W. Van Cleave, president National Association of Manufacturers who has written for the issue of American Industries appears tomorrow a reply to Mr. William J. Bryan's article published in the Commoner, August 7, under the title, "The Business Man and the Masses."
