You can save money by getting Van Houten's Cocoa even though it may seem to cost a little more at your grocer's. Van Houten's goes twice as far as other Cocoas because you use only one-half as much as of ordinary Cocoas.

This double strength is gained by starting with the highest grade bean obtainable, then extracting the full virtue of the bean by a special process of manufacture known to no other maker of Cocoa.

This special process gives 100% of the nutritive value of the bean, and a complete and instant solubility -there is no sediment in the cup, therefore no waste, For quality and economy no other Cocoa can ap-
