Man's Most Valuable Habit.
"If men were compelled to wear skirts for a period, I think they would want more than they now do that their fellow men should stop the nasty habit of spitting in public," writes Edward W. Bok in 'The Ladies' Home Journal.' "There is no practice of man which is more distressing to women than this disgusting habit. Women constantly complain of it, especially in our larger cities, where sometimes the sidewalks are soiled by it for ten to twenty feet.
They revolt at the practice, and they are right in so doing, yet year in and year out the habit not only continues but increases, and the protection of cleanliness to which every woman walking upon our streets has a perfect right, is denied her."

THOUSANDS ARE TRYING IT.—On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a gen-

ITEMS FROM THE STAFFORD
NEWS LETTER.

July 26, 1897.

(It is our intention to print under this head from week to week items of interest from the old Stafford News Letter.)

The new Ellington Congregational church is being framed in this village by Capt. T. D. Johnson of West Stafford, builder. The building is to be 107x65 feet.

The pulpit of the Congregational church in this village, for a few Sabbaths past, has been occupied by Rev. E. Ripley, principal of the Somers Home school, who will probably continue to officiate until the place is taken by a candidate for settlement.

Two boys who escaped from the Monson state almshouse, put a couple of times on the track of the New London railroad, near State Line on Thursday last week.
Mr. Downer's train escaped running into them by a timely discovery, and the boys were caught and sent back for safe keeping.

The new church of the M. E. society at South Coventry was dedicated Wednesday July 17th. The services were of great interest. Rev. E. F. Clark gave the opening address and the sermon was by Rev. P. T. Koeny, presiding elder. The worship was fine and the attendance large.

A year ago last Spring it was decided that a new and larger house of worship was a necessity. The present pastor, Rev. S. S. Cummings, who came to Coventry about that time took hold of the work with energy. It was proposed to limit the expense to $5000, the old house to be sold for $1000, and a subscription was started with the condition that the subscriptions should be binding if $4000 should be subscribed by the 20th of June, 1896. The required amount was subscribed within the time limited, and arrangements were at once set on foot for the erection of a church edifice.
The lot increased the expense, and the cost of the building exceeded considerably the estimates made at the beginning. A very pretty house of worship centrally located, and though not large, will doubtless be found adequate to the wants of the society for some time to come. The building is of wood and is neat and tasteful in its architecture. The audience room is plainly but tastefully finished.
It has a commodious basement for evening services, etc.

MARRIED.—Stafford Springs, July 25, 1897, by Rev. Wm. T. Worth, Marshall Belleau and Ednah M. Puffer.

A VALUABLE PRESCRIPTION.—Editor Morrison, of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription, Electric Bitters, and I can heartily recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stebble, 2429 Cottage Grove avenue, Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary.
But six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength.
Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a bottle at E. K. Taft's drug store.

W. C. T. U.

From our Y Missionary.

My Dear Y's!—I wish I could draw a true picture of Japan for you at this season. Truly, it is one vast flower garden. No wonder the people of the Mikado's Empire are so artistic. The pines of the north and the palms of the tropics grow side by side, and with their setting of roses and lilies, form nature's most perfect cameo. And then there's the snow-capped Fujiyama. No matter what the angle of vision, it is always in the background. To see it in the early morning is to receive an inspiration for the whole day. It seems as if the Father had set this ideal before us to woo us to higher and holier endeavours. I feel that I shall always be better because it has been my privilege to gaze long and often upon beautiful Fujiyama, and I know, now, that I can never be satisfied to attain merely mediocre spiritual heights. There is certainly much good in a people who have this mountain constantly before them, for we become like what we look upon, and Fuji could suggest nothing but purity and truth.

Soon after I joined the Young Ladies' Foreign Missionary society, I was asked to prepare a paper on "Young Women Here, Young Women There," the theme being the girls of the Far East. I was much impressed then with the differences which a study of conditions revealed, but I did not dream that they were as great as they are, I. e., difference in privileges and positions in the mind and heart of the girls. We know young women may do anything in English-speaking countries, here, there are certain prescribed lines, out of which it is as impossible to move as for a railroad engine to make progress off its regular track. It is not necessary to go into detail or enumerate these differences. Just think of what an American girl is permitted to do and the respect that is paid her, and then remember that a Japanese girl's privileges and position are just the opposite.

Recently I listened to a young minister who had spent several years in America.
During his address he thanked God that he had been permitted to go to our country where he had learned to appreciate manhood. Then he amused his audience very much by imitating a gentleman taking off his hat and bowing very low, while the ladies merely inclined their heads, and he told how strange it seemed to him. Here, it is the woman who prostrates herself, and she can not bow until she is fully recognized by the gentleman. All customs are reversed, gentlemen being served first at table, etc. If indeed ladies are permitted to sit at table with gentlemen at all. Broad-minded, great-hearted men are trying to change these customs, but progress must be slow.

In the face of all these things you ask what are the prospects for temperance work among young women in Japan. As compared with the home lands I should say, as midnight to midday, yet I am not discouraged. There are about thirty-five Christian girls' schools in Japan. Three of them now have Y organizations, with a pledged membership of two hundred and forty. Three others have sent invitations to be organized, and I am hopeful of at least three more. I have set my heart on having one thousand white-ribbon girls in Japan, though I may not reach that number, for I have learned that many of the schools are very small.

While of course I have changed my ideas somewhat as to methods of work, as my perspective has changed, still I can not get away from my earliest impression, viz., that the girls now in the schools and colleges, and the children are to be the "corner stones" upon which the "palace" of the W. C. T. U. in Japan is to be built. We can not hope to train many mothers, it is too late; we can not work for the Japan of to-day, it is the future that is ours. So while I shall continue to speak to general
