

AMERICAN LEGION TO A MAN SUPPORTS SOLDIERS' BONUS

CONVENTION AT NEW ORLEANS GOES ON RECORD AS READY TO FIGHT TO LIMIT FOR "THEIR RIGHTS"

Convention Hall, New Orleans, Oct. 19.—(A.P.)—Demand for a roll call that the "world may know where we stand on the bonus question" followed a viva voce vote Wednesday affirming the report of a resolutions committee of the American Legion convention which asserted the legion will "continue to fight for the legislation until it is enacted into the law."

A division, called for by Commander MacNider, resulted in announcement that the vote was unanimous. One delegate who voted "no" by mistake cried out his apology when hundreds of delegates yelled out, "Who is he?"

"Exposure of war profiteers" was proclaimed another duty of the legion. The report, which was adopted in its entirety, was in part as follows:

"The American Legion, in convention assembled, has given consideration to the arguments urged against adjusted compensation. The legion believes:

"The argument that the nation cannot afford it is unsound. The cost of adjusted compensation would not exceed one month more of the war, and the nation could and would have afforded that. The net debt of the United States is billions below that of our principal allies, though our economic strength is many fold greater, and our allies have granted adjusted compensation to their war veterans.

"The argument that the adjusted compensation measure would fail because it does not carry taxation provisions is more insincere. None of the great war acts calling for expenditure ever contained taxation features to raise revenue, revenue raising measures being independent measures.

"The argument that the cost would be five billions is misleading. That figure is arrived at by opponents of adjusted compensation by compounding at 4 1/2 per cent interest for twenty years the real cost, if met now, of one and one-half billion.

"That the nation is spending millions on the disabled is not an answer because if there is a debt to the nondisabled it should be paid, and the payment of one debt does not excuse nonpayment of another.

"The American Legion believes in adjusted compensation, not only as an expression of the nation's gratitude to those who dedicated their all to its services, but more especially as an approximate adjustment of the economic losses sustained by the service men by reason of their service.

"Congress drafted the soldier and ordered him to serve at $1 or $1.25 per day. Labor was not drafted. The wages of those not drafted doubled and trebled in the war period.

"This basic injustice compels the nation to do what it can toward rectification. The adjusted compensation measure passed by congress is a recognition of this injustice and an attempt to remedy it by constructive legislation.

"Instead of meeting this just obligation in the manner indicated by the congress, with the approval of the representatives of the service men, by the passage of an adjusted compensation measure which would make home owners, home builders and possessors of insurance of thousands of American men—the chief executive proposes a pension. The American Legion stands four square in favor of adjusted compensation and against a pension.

"What is sought by the American Legion is that the entire nation shall meet its obligations to the service men by the constructive legislation proposed, and not by the creation of a pension system. The legion wants the nation to pay its debts, and not to do charity. Whenever the people have voted their verdict has been for adjusted compensation.

"The legion desires to stand, not in a position of taking something from the nation, but of giving something to it. The legion must carry on its Americanism program in behalf of better education and aid generally in the development of patriotism and love of country—its progress to help inculcate in all our people a sense of individual responsibility to community, state and nation, and must now actively help in fighting one of the greatest wrongs in the history of the American people—a wrong connected with the prosecution of the war, and therefore the duty of the American Legion to help correct, the exposing of the war profiteers.

"Immediate Obligation." "The legion recognizes this as among its immediate obligations, because when the American people become aware of the extent of war profiteering, a national determination will have developed that in any future war, there shall be a draft not only of the service man, but of the laboring man and capitalist as well. Had there been such a draft, the fundamental basis of adjusted compensation now temporarily thwarted by executive action would never have arisen."

Former Judge Landis, supreme commissioner of baseball, told the legion that its stand on adjusted compensation was based on justice.

STREATOR MEMBER MOVES UP NOTCH IN ODD FELLOWSHIP

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 19.—H. H. House, Nashville, was elected grand junior warden of the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at their annual state convention here today. J. D. Phillips, Green Valley, automatically became grand master and George Turner, Streator, deputy grand master.

NEWBERG FACED BY HARD TASK TO PICK MEN FOR HIS TEAM

HIGH SCHOOL COACH MEETS STICKLER IN TRYING TO GET SQUAD UP TO STANDARD FOR GAME WITH SPRING VALLEY.

Last night saw another stiff practice for the high school squad, under the tutelage of Coach Newberg. It was announced last night by the local mayor that Farrell, veteran half back and captain of the team, would not be in uniform for the balance of the week. However, he will be out Monday for practice for the Peoria game.

Antram, Calkins and Koenig were not allowed in uniform last night and Johnson, full back, was only allowed to limber up, being kept from the scrimmage with the college team, for fear of injuries before Saturday's game.

As in previous conflicts, the high school squad although made up of mostly second string men last night had no trouble in holding the college team at bay and securing a few tentative victories.

The college aggregation showed decided improvement over previous appearances on King field this year. The college plays Wenona high school at Wenona either Friday or Saturday. Reports coming from down along that way say Wenona has the same aggregation as last year, which beat the high school limits by a score of 77 to 0 so this will give an idea of what Coach Brynstead of the Pleasant View college is leading his warriors against.

Griffiths a high school guard will be lost to the squad for the rest of the season as he landed in his suit last evening. But Pearce who reported Monday is showing better form and will develop into one line guard.

Maher, a sophomore who has been playing guard, is developing into a wonderful drop kicker and on several occasions last night booted the ball over from a good distance. He has plenty of fight but is a little light for a regular guard.

With Koenig at center and Stevenson at one guard and either Pearce or Maher at the other the center of the high school line ought to be materially strengthened and be able to hold its own whenever they go. Antram and Calkins will be at the tackles Saturday and are expected to do more than hold their own. "Pat" Dekroon is almost sure of starting at one end but who will start at the other is a puzzle. Danmann will probably play quarterback Saturday and in Farrell's absence will act as captain. To pick the rest of the backfield is largely guesswork. "Art" Johnson looks like the fullback selection with "Speed" Logan at one end and "Hontz" Dekroon at the other but because of the failure of the back field to do its duty in previous games it will be hard to say who will constitute the backfield.

ILLINOIS 'GETS SET' FOR IOWA CONFLICT

Yale, Ill., Oct. 19.—Despite the reverse at the hands of Butler on Illinois field last Saturday, the Illinois student body, alumni and followers are planning to make the annual homecoming this week end the best ever.

Loyal fans are loud in their praise of Zupke and place a world of confidence in his ability to round his charges into real shape for the Orange and Blue's conference opener with Iowa.

The Hawkeye team is much like the championship Iowa squad of last season despite the loss of many stars. The offense of Coach Jones' team is centered around Captain Locke, whose line plugging featured in the 6 to 0 victory over Yale.

Reports from the Iowa camp indicate that the entire Hawkeye outfit came through the Yale contest in fine style and that hard practice is being held daily in preparation for the Big game.

Woodward, fullback of the Orange and Blue, is in better shape than it was first thought and the husky fellow will be ready to start in the Iowa game. Bill Robinson will be on the sidelines as the result of an ankle injury sustained in the Butler contest.

OSWEGO AND VALLEY WANT GRID GAMES

This paper has received numerous inquiries from football teams in various districts desiring games with any Ottawa football team or any other team in their class and caliber. The Hoffman Trunk factory of Spring Valley has organized a football team averaging 145 pounds and is desirous of booking games with teams of their weight. Anyone interested in securing a date with this team or arranging for games should communicate with Thomas Barick, care of Hoffman Trunk & Bag company, Spring Valley.

The Oswego football team at Oswego, Ill., claims to have an organization with a line weighing 135 pounds and a backfield weighing 145 pounds. Anyone desiring further information should please communicate with them through D. Boyle, Box 23, Oswego, Ill.

Teams who believe they are called upon to play teams like the Hoffman Trunk Center of Streator can arrange for games by communicating with Peter Paletto, 406 East Main street, Streator.

Streator, Ill., Oct. 19.—Herold Smith, basketball idol of the stockyards, and Pal Moore yesterday were matched to meet in the main event of the boxing show to be conducted by Jim Madden in this city. The only hitch over the date. The promoter wanted to stage the contest on Oct. 27, but Harry Hoekstadter, manager of Moore, insisted on a later date. Bill Montgomery, manager of Smith, agreed to a November date and promoter Madden finally consented after he saw there would be no match if he held out for the original booking. Moore is in New Orleans attending the national convention of the American Legion, and the exact date of the show will be announced upon his return next week. The weight will be 118 pounds at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the mill.

SIKI TO MEET JOE BECKETT DEC. 7TH

Paris, Oct. 19.—(By the A. P.)—The fight between Battling Siki and Joe Beckett, English heavyweight, will take place in London on Dec. 7. It was officially announced last night by the International Boxing union, under whose auspices the battle will be held. The articles call for a twenty round encounter and will be for the official heavyweight title of Europe, as neither Beckett nor Siki are able to make the light heavyweight limit. The Senegalese, who recently defeated Georges Carpentier, will fight around 150 pounds, which is ten pounds heavier than the weight he fought in the Carpentier struggle. The fight will be staged at the Olympia.

AURORA PAPER SINGS STREATOR'S PRAISES

The Aurora Beacon-News certainly has a good opinion of this year's team representing the Streator High school. It says:

"Madden will make the first real formidable opponent of the season on the upriver gridiron Saturday when it takes on Streator High. The downstate crew is said to have a much stronger eleven than last season, and is expected to give Coach Oswald's boys one tough bit of opposition. Fans of this section of the country will ever remember the Streator eleven that invaded the northern part of the state in 1920, with the famous Daugherty at right half. This young fellow is now on the University of Illinois freshman team, but the downstaters have not been idle in his absence, and have developed another team which they think will repeat the performance of that worthy outfit."

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP BY THIS SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment and discomfort. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good drug-gist and use it like a cold cream.

What Makes a Good Portrait? A Good Likeness--Plus

It's the (Plus) that makes the portrait something more than a mere photographic reproduction. Anyone can set a camera before a person and get a picture but it takes an artist to make that photograph a picture. Yourself—just as you are. (PLUS) character and proper lighting effects. Speaking from the picture. What better gift. What better time. Even today is not too early to arrange for sittings for Christmas gifts. Think of economy, 12 portraits. The gift your friends can't buy.

DOCTOR ORDERED WOMAN OBEYED

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and is Now Well

Chicago, Illinois.—"You surely gave women one good medicine when you put Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on the market. After I had my babe I was all run down and so nervous it kept me from gaining. My doctor did everything he could to build me up, then he ordered me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with his medicine and I am now a new woman. I have had three children and they are all Lydia E. Pinkham babies. I have recommended your medicine to several friends and they speak highly of it. You see certainly doing good work in this world."—Mrs. ADRIAN TOMSHER, 19557 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

There is nothing very strange about the doctor directing Mrs. Tomsheck to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There are many physicians who do recommend it and highly appreciate its value.

Women who are nervous, run down, and suffering from women's ailments should give this well-known root and herb medicine a trial. Mrs. Tomsheck's experience should guide you towards health.
