Miss Stevens to Wed Oklahoma Man in South May 15

An engagement announcement in which many Rock Island friends will be interested was made recently at Lawton, Okla., when it was announced that Miss Dorothy Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Stevens of 1923 Tenth avenue, was to wed Gerbert Felix of Oklahoma City, May 15, in Oklahoma City. Miss Stevens, who has been art supervisor in the city schools of Lawton for the past two years and a friend, Miss Metta Gifford, home economics supervisor in Lawton, entertained a company of friends recently when the guests learned of the engagements of both young women. Mr. Felix was an officer in the 9th field artillery stationed at Fort Sill. The home will be in Oklahoma City, where the bridegroom is in business.

Before taking up her work in the southwest, Miss Stevens was assistant supervisor of art in the public schools here for three years. She had always made her home in Rock Island, attending the local schools and graduating from the high school in the class of 1911. She took the art course at Illinois Woman's college, Jacksonville, Ill., graduating in 1915.

Squires-Mattas.

The marriage of Miss Lydia Mattas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mattas of 2208 West First street, Davenport, to Harry Squires, son of Mrs. Walter Blakeslee of Lodi, Cal., was celebrated Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the bride's home. Rev. L. M. Coffman of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Mattas attended the bridal couple. The bride wore a gown of white charmeuse and georgette crepe with pearl trimmings and her veil was fashioned in cap effect and caught with pearls. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas. The matron of honor was in pink georgette and mesalaine. Covers were laid for 16 at the wedding supper. The young couple will remain at the home of the bride for the present and later go to housekeeping. The bridegroom is employed at the Rock Island arsenal.

Announcement Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. DeGraw of 951 East State street, Bettendorf, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Elsie Roberts to Fred J. Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Woods of Grinnell, Iowa. The wedding will be an event of the early fall. The bride has made her home in Bettendorf for the past 10 years, coming here from Chicago with her parents. Mr. Woods has been making his home in Davenport recently.

Bjorndahl-Winter.

Miss Muriel Winter of this city, daughter of William Winter of Florida, was wedded to Richard Bjorndahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bjorndahl of Moline, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at a ceremony performed by Rev. W. G. Ogilvie, pastor of the South Park Presbyterian church at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. F. Koehler, 2923 Nineteenth avenue.

The bride was gowned in a dainty frock of white organdie and carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Miss Charlotte Bjorndahl, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid and Mrs. Koehler as matron of honor. The groom was attended by his brother, Levi Bjorndahl, and W. F. Koehler. The day was also the fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Koehler.

After the ceremony there was a wedding supper served to the company of 27 relatives and friends of the couple. The table decoration was formed of roses, and the place cards were dainty affairs sent by friends in Korea for the occasion.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Bjorndahl will be at home to their friends in a new home recently finished in Moline. The bridegroom has been manager of the Moline Cast-Stone company. Out-of-town guests at the affair were Mr. Winter of Florida, Miss Laura Bateman and Frank and Jesse Winter of Reynolds, and Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Krentel of Bloomington.

Broadman-Dihlmeier.

Miss Ruth Dihlmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dihlmeier of Coe township, and John Boardman, also of Coe township, were married Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. J. S. White at the parsonage of the Methodist church in Port Byron. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boardman and Miss Amy Genung were attendants. Mr. Boardman is employed by the Phelps Power company and the new home will be at 1524 Twelfth street, this city, after May 1.

Miss Titus to Wed.

Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Hazel Titus of 1127 Second avenue to Wilbur Ritze of this city, at a party given Thursday evening by Miss Titus as a post-nuptial courtesy for Mrs. B. Rundquist, nee Miss Hazel Buckingham of Davenport, who was married last month. Another interesting feature of the affair was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Florence Caroline Lind to William Kendall, both of Davenport. No date has been set for either of the weddings.

During the evening hours games were played by the company of young women, and a delicious luncheon was served. The decorations were carried out in pink and white, carnations being the flowers used. Mrs. Rundquist was presented with a pretty silver bon bon dish as a guest favor.

Aledo Merchant to Wed.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Harold C. Nesbit, dealer in electrical supplies at Aledo, to Miss Louise Ketchum of Milwaukee, Wis. The wedding is to take place June 30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Thompson, 1120 North Eighth street, Springfield. Miss Ketchum is Mrs. Thompson's sister and formerly lived in Springfield, where she was prominent in Y. W. C. A. circles.

Roth-Lau Wedding.

Miss Cora Marie Lau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lau of 1421 Main street, Davenport, and Walter Roth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roth of 908 Fourth avenue, will be married at a 10 o'clock ceremony Saturday morning in Trinity cathedral, Davenport. The Rev. Ver. Marmaduke Hare will officiate. Miss Gladys Moore Dowling of Wisconsin will be maid of honor and William Roth, brother of the groom, will serve as best man. There will be a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip the couple will make their home at 921 Seventeenth street.

Miss Lau comes from a prominent Scott county family and has a host of friends in the tri-cities. Mr. Roth served in the army for more than two years, serving in France for several months. He was with the 38th infantry until transferred to the intelligence department while in Paris. He is now connected with the Rock Island Wood works company.

Play Greatly Enjoyed.

A most enjoyable two hours was spent by the large audience in attendance at the first presentation of "An Old Fashioned Mother," given by the Christian Endeavor society of the Central Presbyterian church. The actors all took their parts exceptionally well. Orchestra selections were enjoyed between the acts and the candy booth proved an attraction. The play is to be repeated this evening at 8:15 at the church.

Entertains for Guest.

Mrs. G. W. Townsend of 4423 Eleventh street entertained yesterday noon at a luncheon at the Y. W. C. A., honoring her house guest, Mrs. Charles Gronewold of Monticello, Iowa. The guests were the members of the Moline club. Covers were laid for eight, and following the meal the guests enjoyed a theatre party at the Columbia in Davenport.

Dr. Evans Is Humorist.

Dr. Arthur W. Evans, the noted lecturer who is to be the speaker at the April meeting of the Rock Island Woman's club Saturday afternoon at the Masonic temple, came with the highest recommendations as a humorist. His home was in Wales, but he recently became a naturalized citizen of the United States. For the past five years he has talked in over a thousand different cities, and practically two-thirds of these engagements were return ones, which shows how greatly he is appreciated. It is said that he is able to make anyone who does not believe in lectures forget all about his prejudices and he is a real antidote for the blues. His subject for tomorrow is not announced, but it will be on some up-to-date subject. Harry Ramsdell of Moline will sing in the place of Miss Bernice Mason, who was announced to have a part in the program. Members of the club are all asked to attend this meeting, for the two tickets prepared for the election to be held in May will be read.

Community Club Card Party.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Community club sponsored a card party of six tables in the club rooms Thursday evening. The game of 500 was played, prizes for high score being won by Mrs. J. Furlong and H. Wendell. Mrs. R. Berry and H. Murray won the second prizes, and consolation favors were awarded to Mrs. M. Tank and F. Rumbon. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Mrs. Homer Pfenniger and Mrs. Charles Speckhart. The date of the next card party was not definitely decided upon, but will be announced later.

Clear Sam at Musicals.

The sum of $25 was cleared at the musicals given at the home of the Misses Catherine and Thekla Helmbeck, 1720 Twenty-fifth street, Thursday afternoon, by the Rock Island Musical club for the benefit of the piano fund. The house was prettily decorated in vases of American Beauties, sweet peas and jonquils. Mrs. A. D. Huesing, Miss Lilly Cervin, Mrs. J. R. Tuckis and Mrs. L. R. Freeman served at the frappe table. The program was delightfully carried out as announced.

Surprise Mr. Wright on Birthday.

Thursday evening a company of 20 friends carried out a surprise party on Howard Wright, 417 Fourth avenue, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Cards were played during the hours. Miss Dora Marx and Bob Thomas taking the head prizes and Miss Lucy Naab and Len Howard the consolation prizes. Refreshments were served in the dining room where the centerpiece was a pretty basket of carnations. Mr. Wright was presented with an Eagle ring by the company.

Irving P. T. A.

The program Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the parent-teacher association of the Irving school was carried out as announced with the addition of two splendid piano selections by Clyde Downing, a former pupil of the school. Mrs.

F. H. Boman read the report of the parent-teacher convention of March 30, and Miss Lenora Wilbergsen gave the report of the council meeting held April 10. Refreshments were served. The time of the next meeting will be announced later.

FASHION'S LATEST DEMAND

Is a figure that is extremely flat both back and front. This type of figure is necessary to wear the latest gowns with good effect.

NEW NEMO DIAFRAM-REDUCING

Flat-Front Corset. accomplishes this perfectly.

The concealed elastic bandlet flattens the entire front of the figure and controls and permanently tones any accumulation of flesh over the stomach and diafram.

The Extension-Stays in the back flare at the top and converge toward the bottom permitting the shoulder-flesh to drop down inside the corset and giving an exceptionally flat effect below the waist-line.

No. 1002—Very fine durable coutil; low top, rubber bust insertions. Sizes 24 to 36—$10.00.
