

HE life-giving principle of advertising is truthfulness; you wouldn't heed us if you didn't believe us. The trademark feature of our BLUE BIRD SPECIALS is price. Every article advertised for Tuesday selling is truthfully described. Every piece is indeed special and offered for one day only. You will not find a word of exaggeration in what we say. Neither will you find a price that is not much lower than the usual one. Form the habit of shopping at the "Big Store On the Corner," every Tuesday. It's a habit you'll eventually acquire.
