PUBLIC NOTICE.
After this date I will not be responsible for debts contracted by any one other than myself. June 4, 1920. CHARLES WELLES. Big Island.

Here Comes the Bride!
Give her a present that's practical and different, one—the "Y and K" Typewriter. It consists of a beautiful little white enameled cabinet, 200 ruled white 6 by 4 inch cards on which recipes can be written or posted, and an index of 15 guides for the different kinds of food. Every up-to-date housewife should have one.

Here is a Great Double Bill
Commencing Sunday for Five Days
D. W. Griffith's great production

"THE IDOL DANCER"

You have never seen a picture like this. It is the strangest, sweetest romance ever pictured!
It is unique, startling, with its setting in the islands of the Southern seas, where D. W. Griffith took his company to make the scene.
There is a girl—French-Japanese girl, beautiful, wild, free as the wind and waves, who will fascinate everyone. She dances the Devil-Devil dance, the dance of the surf, the dance of the woodland, the dance of the idols—with an abandon and grace that charms and captivates. How she can dance!
There is a stirring story, filled with thrills and powerful dramatic action—the clash of empires, slave traders, head hunting savages, desert white, traders and missionaries.

The Greatest Hawaiian Orchestra you ever heard will play at each performance and the Real Hawaiian Dancer
Direct from Keith theatre will dance at each performance.
