Tasker L. Oddle, who has ansounced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States senator from Nevada, is a former governor of that state. Mr. Oddie is a native of Brooklyn, N. Y., having first gone to Newada in 1898, in the employ of a New York firm. He was educated in the publie schools of East Orange, N. J., and later obtained his bachelor of laws degree at New York univers-He has the distinction of having been one of the early develop-ers of the famous Tonopah mines in Nevada. He served as district attorney of Nye county, Nevada, from 1900 to 1902, and two years later was elected a member of the state senate, a position which he held for four years. He was elected to the governorship in 1910 and since the expiration of his term he has been twice an unsuccessful candidate for the same office.

Andy Bowers and Claud Moses Dis missed On Charge of Having Burgiar Tools.

Andy Bowers and Claud Moses, formerly of Davenport, both dope flends, according to their own confession, were dismissed by Acting Magistrate A. M. Klove in police court Monday afternoon on charges of having had burglar tools in their pressession.

The men were arrested two weeks ago in a raid on their room in the Sherman hotel, corner of Third avenue and Seventeenth street. Detectives Dennis Bennett and

Charles Ginnane found the men with three hack saws, a pair of wire cutters, a gun, flashlight and a large quantity of morphine. The raid was made late at night and as the men were still up the detectives suspicioned that they were about to go out and pull a buglary. On being arraigned the day following their arrest the two men were remanded 1919."

EAUTY REVUE Beruse at the Illinois theatre to morrow aight buriesque patrons will enjoy a treat. This is conceded to be the best aggregation of stars ever gathered together in one company. Every one of the principles in the large cast has earned stellar homors and each of them has been out with the leading roles in one company or another. Beautiful Ada Lum, the Chinese American prima donna, has the principle feminine part while Jimmie Cooper leads the comedians into action. Dainty Princess Livingston and shapely Rose Hemly assist Miss Lum, while Jimmie Cooper is aided in getting the laughs over by Marty Collina, Eddie Hall, Johnny Bell and That Melody Trio. There is a large chorus of youthful beauties who display their attractions in gowns that were not made to hide pretty curves.
