

DAVENPORT TO SEEK REMOVAL OF RESTRAINT

City Attorney Screechfield to Go Before Court With Plea for Dissolution.

City Attorney Screechfield of Davenport announced today that he is preparing to petition the district court for a dissolution of the injunction which has tied the hands of the city officials in taking any further action against the officers of the street railway company for cutting service. He states that the city is not going to act in haste, but that he will devote considerable time to the preparation of a petition and will be ready with it early next week.

HOLD FUNERAL FOR RESIDENT OF MANY YEARS NEAR VIOLA

(Special Correspondence). Viola, Dec. 2.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sophia B. Huntley, aged 85 years, and a resident of Viola since 1866, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home on Shepard street. Rev. C. C. Harper of the Presbyterian church officiated and interment was made in the Viola cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntley came to Viola in 1866, 54 years ago, and have lived here continuously since that time. They are among Viola's oldest citizens and are well and favorably known to the entire community.

FESTIVAL SERMON WILL BE GIVEN AT TEMPLE SERVICES

Rabbi J. L. Baron of Tri-City Temple Emanuel will give his weekly sermon at 8 o'clock this evening on "Cleansing the Temple; How Will You Celebrate It?" The sermon is in connection with the Feast of Dedication which is to be celebrated all next week. Rehearsals on the program to be given by the Rock Island and Davenport Sunday schools on Dec. 12 at the temple will be held next Thursday evening at the temple, Eleventh and Brady streets, Davenport.

INVITE PUBLIC TO MEETING ON CITY PLANNING

Neighboring Towns Are Asked to Come Also in January—Reverend Attends Session.

Representatives of every civic, fraternal and social organization in Rock Island and surrounding cities will be invited to take part in the discussion of a city planning project at an open meeting to be held in the early part of January. Decision to hold this session was reached at the regular meeting of the Rock Island city planning commission held last evening.

The public will be invited to attend the meeting. Edward H. Bennett, who will be the Rock Island city planner, will be present and make the talk of the evening. The aim of the commission is to create an interest in the movement among the people of the city and in neighboring cities. Suggestions may be brought to this meeting for consideration by the city planner.

ARMY KETTLES TO SIMMER TOMORROW

Captain Martin Watner of the Salvation army, announced today that the annual Christmas fund kettle will be established for the holiday season in prominent places in the business district tomorrow. The money collected is used in helping the needy of the city.

HEAR DROST CASE AT CARROLL AND NOT DES MOINES

The case of Dan Drost, convicted Rock Island News editor, now serving 12 months in the Scott county jail, is being heard this afternoon at Carroll, Iowa, before Judge Ben I. Salinger of the supreme court. The case was scheduled to come up at Des Moines, but instead was taken to Carroll.

BOOST JOHNSON FOR STATE JOB

(Special to The Argus). Chicago, Dec. 3.—Mayor Harry M. Schriver and John T. Campbell, chairman of the Rock Island county central Republican committee, headed a Rock Island county delegation which waited upon Governor-elect Len Small at the Great Northern hotel here yesterday to urge Julius Johnson for a cabinet position. Johnson was defeated for state auditor on the Small slate, but the delegation brought word that Rock Island county "Wanted Julius Johnson well taken care of." Small promised the men that he would be given something, just what not being stated.

HOLD SERVICES FOR MARTYR WORLD WAR

The body of George Winter, son of Mrs. B. Winter of this city, who died in Luxembourg while in the service of his country, was laid at rest this morning in Calvary cemetery. A requiem mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Catholic church by Rev. F. J. Uhelein, who was assisted by Rev. Joseph Kelly, Rev. Ralph Lane and Rev. C. Albani. At the grave the burial service was read by Father Clarence Higgins, who was chaplain of the regiment with which the young soldier served in France. The pallbearers were Al Duncan, William Van Evers, R. Osterman, Joseph Schaub, Jr., James Dugan and Ivan Kinney.

Personal Points

Mrs. Lillian Olsen and son Elmer of 2618 Seventh avenue, have left to spend the winter months with their daughter and sister, Mrs. W. L. Garrison, at Santa Rosa, Calif. Mrs. Garrison was formerly Miss Grace Olsen of Rock Island. Mrs. Olsen and Elmer Olsen were accompanied by Charles Wolstencroft of 2618 Seventh avenue.

Dr. A. B. Rimmerman has returned to Chicago after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Rimmerman, 1003 Second avenue. Dr. C. Bernhardt returned yesterday from Omaha, Neb., where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. Sohalek. After a short stay at Rock Island he will go south to Hammond, La., to his daughter, Mrs. D. E. Snider, and later on go, via the Panama Canal, to Los Angeles, where his third daughter, Mrs. Woodworth Clum, formerly of Davenport, is now living. The doctor will always claim Rock Island, where he has lived since April, 1869, as his home and if any of his old friends wish to communicate with him, Dr. J. W. Lane, who occupies the doctor's former office at the People's National bank building will always know his address. The Daily Argus will keep him posted with the news at Rock Island. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harris of 2716 Fifth avenue, are the parents of a son born Nov. 30.

DAVENPORT MAN PAYS BIG FINE

Emil Olson Insults Women in Rock Island Picture House and Officer Haals Him Out.

Emil Olson, Davenport, was removed forcibly from a Rock Island motion picture house Thursday night by Officers Gus Kirsch and William Behlke, who had been called on the complaint of women patrons of the show that Olson was conducting himself in an obnoxious manner. Olson is alleged to have insulted several women and to have caused considerable commotion among the persons seated close to him. Of the offended persons one young woman appeared at the police station and signed the complaint against Olson. Olson made a poor showing at a defense before Magistrate D. J. Cleland in police court and was fined $50 on a charge of disorderly conduct.

CHAMBER WILL BACK ONE-FUND DRIVE IN 1921

Board of Directors Approves Recommendation of Public Forum—Appoints Trustees.

The board of directors of the Rock Island Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting this noon went on record in favor of a one-fund campaign for financing the city's welfare and charitable organizations during the year 1921, and adopted a resolution whereby the chamber agrees to sponsor the drive. A board of trustees, recommended by the public forms of the Chamber of Commerce and composed of T. A. Murphy, Phil Mitchell, F. C. Denkmann, H. S. Cable and W. H. Dart, was approved by the directors and was empowered to determine the amount to be raised and the appropriation of the fund among the various organizations. Secretary Otto F. Hildebrandt was instructed to inform every organization which desires to secure an appropriation from the fund, to prepare a budget for 1921 and submit it to the board of trustees on or before Dec. 20. The trustees will have full power to determine the amount each organization is to receive from the fund.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF UNDERTAKERS HELD LAST NIGHT

Rock Island county undertakers and their wives enjoyed a turkey banquet in the social rooms of the Trinity Episcopal church last evening. Thirty-five men and women were seated at the table. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock. Following the banquet dancing and games were enjoyed. The flowers and the remains of the dinner were today given to Bethany home. A. Danielson of Moline made the talk of the evening. Miss Dorothy Pleasants gave several piano solos.

PRESENTS SCHOOL WITH TITLE BALL

A short program was given at assembly at the local high school this morning. Celeste Olson gave two vocal solos, "When the Heart Was Young" and "Memories." The charge in the installation of the student council was given by Arnold Lau, principal of the high school. The meeting was then conducted and announcements were made by Benny Rosenfeld, president of the school council. Den-ward Henke, captain of the football team, presented the school with the tri-city championship football and it was accepted in behalf of the school by President Rosenfeld. An announcement was made by Elwell advertising the frolic this evening. The event was brought to a close by singing of the school song.
