

30-MINUTE WEDDING
IN 18 MINUTES

The Recruiting Non-Com Dashes to Work and Commence Train for Rock Island.

Thirteen minutes is plenty of time to be married, especially for a "dogg" dog marine!

As it is says Sergeant Carl Hauptman, in charge of the marine recruiting office opened yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. And Corporal Frank Hauptman, assistant to Hauptman on the train, this city, vouches for the statement; but he failed to say whether he thought the brass buttons and tanning braids, or just the military marine insignia on his dress collar really turned the trick for him.

How Come!

The sergeant with the help of Corporal Price was hard at work at the Chicago headquarters on Wednesday afternoon packing the odds and ends for their trip to Rock Island to establish a station here. Everything was about ready and train time was but 18 minutes distant when Hauptman missed his side.

Nothing could be found of the A. W. G. L. corporal. Train time drew close without any return. In desperation the sergeant hurried to the station lest he, too, should miss the train.

Just as the train was pulling out of the shed, the corporal dashed down the platform and swung aboard the train.

He looked just the same. But out of wind, and out of single loneliness into the double-tree of wedded happiness, the corporal had sped his way in 18 minutes.

The wedding ring let Sergeant Hauptman in on the secret and the corporal was forced to tell the details of his hustling adventure of wedlock to Miss Nora Morris, 122 S. Wood street.

Nuts! Sergeant Is Top!

It's kind of a shame, too, because Sergeant Hauptman has been married only since Nov. 20, and he too has hardly lost any of the charm of that bachelorhood lends to the gift of his regalia.
