

SOCIAL EVENTS

Young Men's Social Tea.
The Young Men's Social tea, given at the home of Mrs. George Peck at 1125 North 15th street, was a most successful affair. The room was decorated in the colors of the season and the tables were covered with white cloths. The menu was a most excellent one and the evening was a most enjoyable one. The tea was given in honor of Mrs. George Peck and her family.

Community Sociable.
Another of the series of community sociables will be held this evening at the church. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis will give a stereopticon lecture on "Socialism." Mrs. John Crampton of Pleasant Ridge will give special numbers and there will be numbers by the Victory Saxophone quartet, composed by Charles J. Schlick, piano; Emil Lemburg, alto; Bertram H. Kemper, tenor, and Dr. J. E. Assay, baritone.

Tea Dance for Daughters.
Mr. and Mrs. Burton F. Peck of 823 Eleventh avenue, Moline, will entertain at a tea dance of Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 22, at the Rock Island Arsenal Golf club for their young daughters, the Misses Katharine and Alice Peck. Miss Katharine Peck is at Bryan Mawr and Miss Alice Peck at Vassar, and both will be home for the holidays. The guests will be 150 or more.

Decorations for Mrs. Blakemore.
Mrs. Robert S. Blakemore of 1021 Seventh street, Moline, was hostess to a large number of tri-city friends at her home, Saturday afternoon, at a tea in honor of Mrs. Paul H. Blakemore. The decorations were beautifully carried out in yellow and white colors. Shella roses and narcissus predominating in the floral decorations. The guests were received by the hostess, and her mother, Mrs. Eustace of Dubuque, Iowa. Mrs. Blakemore was in a lovely gown of white georgette over yellow satin, and the honoree wore a beautiful dress of black lace. She wore a corsage of Opheelia roses. Mrs. Eustace was in black velvet and she wore a beautiful strand of pearls. The dining room was attractively decorated in the colors, and yellow and white colors were carried out in the sandwiches and cakes. A large basket of Opheelia roses, the handle of the basket tied with a huge butterfly bow of yellow tulle, formed the centerpiece of the serving table, and dainty candle sticks containing yellow candles were arranged, one at each corner of the table. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. G. W. Huntoon, Mrs. Nelson Green, Mrs. A. E. Ehl, Mrs. George Crampton, Mrs. W. R. Morgan, and the Misses Mary Blending, Dorothy Herbst and Mary Foster.

Goben-Dollinger Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Margaret Dollinger, 511 Twenty-fifth avenue, Moline, to Lewis Goben, 320 Sixth avenue, Rock Island, was solemnized Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of the Sacred Heart Catholic church, Moline. Rev. J. B. Culemans officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Albert De Becker, brother of the bride, and sister of the bridegroom, attended the bridal couple. After the ceremony a three course wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, covers being laid only for immediate relatives.

Hostess at Delightful Tea.
Mrs. Thomas W. Griggs of Camp McClellan, Davenport, entertained at a very delightful tea Saturday at her home, having some 60 or more friends from the three cities as her guests. Baskets of Russell roses in the library where the hostess received, and tall vases of American Beauties in the music room, with green and white colors in the dining room, carried out the pretty details of decoration, the serving table having a large silver basket filled with white lilies, and unshaded glowing tapers of green with silver holders adding their sparks of light to the tea hour scene.

Miss Agnes Gilmore of Chicago, sister of the hostess, Mrs. Isaac Deutch, Mrs. Julius Haller, Mrs. Charles Sessions, Mrs. Henry Hubers of Davenport, Mrs. Ben

Benefit Association Party.
Queen Bee Review, No. 190, Women's Benefit Association, will hold its annual Christmas party at Math's hall this evening. The affair is for members and their families. There will be a program and several Christmas features including a visit from Santa Claus who will bring the evening's treats. Each member attending is asked to bring a package for the shipboard, and anyone desiring to have personal gifts distributed by Santa Claus to their children or friends can have it done.

Ladies' Relief Society.
A very pleasant meeting of the Ladies' Relief society was held Sunday afternoon at Math's hall. After a short business session refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. M. Minis and Mr. H. Viner. Prizes were awarded in the games to Mrs. S. Shapiro, Mrs. L.
