

SHERIFF AND POLICE FORCES ENGAGED IN ROUNDING UP MEN HELD IN PRISON WAR

TOMMY MURRAY, WANTED IN LOONEY SHOOTING, IS ARRESTED IN DAVENPORT

Rock Island Gambler Said to Have Been With the Billburg Faction.

Tommy Murray, wanted since Oct. 6 on a warrant charging him with complicity in the killing of John Connor Looney, was arrested in Davenport last night and later taken into custody by Sheriff John G. Miller of Rock Island.

Murray is the fifth to be arrested for participation in the Market street battle, in which young Looney was fatally wounded. A. W. Billburg, Dan Drost, George Holmquist and George Buckley, comprising the faction opposing John Looney in Rock Island's underworld, were arrested shortly after the riot and later gained their release on bonds of $20,000 each.

Murray's name was mentioned prominently in the evidence collected by the authorities, but he disappeared.

Murray spent the night in the Rock Island county jail. Today he was being made to furnish leads for him. Billburg predicted that he would be out of jail early this afternoon.

Although Murray has been wanted since the day of the riot, it is understood that he has not been one of the tri-estimates. His home is said to be in Davenport, but he is reported to have been seen frequently in Rock Island. He was picked up last night by Detectives Miller and Phelan and Officer Snyder of the Davenport police department at the corner of Fourth and Brady streets, about 10 o'clock.

Rock Island police were notified, and Detectives Dennis Bennett and Earl Shannon were dispatched to Davenport to bring Murray across the river. The prisoner was turned over to Sheriff Miller.

The testimony at the inquest into the death of young Looney mentioned Murray as one of the occupants of the three automobiles from which the fire against young Looney, his father, and Lawrence Padgo was directed. W. A. Allen, an attorney who witnessed the shooting, said Murray was seated in the rear seat of the smaller machine.

Cleared by Friends. Murray for years was connected with Rock Island's underworld in the role of gambler. He is said to have been the houseman in the gambling rooms above the Club salon, on Eighteenth street. Murray's friends express the conviction that he had no connection whatever with the shooting of young Looney, and say they have their doubts that he was in Rock Island at the time the riot took place.

GLAND ROBBERY STORY WAS FAKE

Chicago Police Investigation of Alleged Incident Apparently Proves It False.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Investigation of a story told police in connection with an alleged gland robbery reported to officials six weeks ago, of which Joseph Wozniak was said to be the victim, apparently has proved a false, Chief of Detectives Michael Hughes announced last night. As told to police, the story connected the name of an aged Chicago millionaire with the theft.

'MA' AND 'BILLY' SUNDAY SEND BIG TURK TO HARDING

Hood River, Oregon, Nov. 25.—President Harding will have an Oregon turkey for his Thanksgiving dinner, a 22-pound "tom" grown in the country place of the Rev. William A. "Billy" Sunday. The bird was shipped to the White House. A 21-pound bird went to George H. Christian, secretary to the president.

Ed Sunday, brother of the evangelist, who has charge of the place, said that "Billy" and "Ma" Sunday cared for the turkey flock last summer themselves. They selected the Harding Thanksgiving present before they left for the east in September.

Harvard, 7, Yale, 3, at End of Half

Yale Bowl, New Haven, Conn., Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)

The Yale and Harvard university football teams completed their training for the season by meeting in the 41st game between the two institutions since 1875. A capacity throng of more than 76,000 spectators filled the huge Yale amphitheatre. The weather was cold with a gale-like wind.

Harvard scored a touchdown in the first few minutes of play when Yale punted out from her 20-yard line and Owen ran 41 yards to Yale's four-yard line, also making the touchdown in third attempt.

Hammond kicked goal. Yale recovered their own kick-off and Neidlinger and Jordan advanced to Harvard's 10-yard line. Gerhrke stopped Captain Jordan of Yale from making a touchdown.

Harvard held firm and O'Hern missed an easy field goal from the 15-yard line. Score, end first period: HARVARD, 7; YALE, 0.

Yale's long pass from a fake punt formation and a short pass brought them early in the second period and small gains. O'Hern then kicked for Yale's first score.

Yale advance toward midfield from kick-off was soon checked and O'Hern punted into Harvard territory. Owen made six yards and Yale's off-side gave Harvard first down.

Harvard jumped and Jordan made the small gains. O'Hern then missing another field goal from Harvard's 45-yard line.

Harvard jumped out to midfield. Score at end of second period: HARVARD, 7; YALE, 3.

UNITED STATES ASKS FOR OPEN DOOR IN TURKEY

Ambassador Child Amazes Delegates at Lausanne.

Lausanne, Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Richard Washburn Child, chief American spokesman at the near eastern conference, amazed the other delegations at this morning's sessions by reiterating the insistence of the United States upon the open door policy in Turkey. He read the aide-memoire delivered on Oct. 30, to Great Britain, France and Italy, and said that the American government and public supported this policy.

Lausanne, Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Few people here apparently are aware of the silent drama which daily is being played in the ranks of the Turkish delegations to the near east conference. A majority of the European delegations are convinced that Ismet Pasha, leader of the Turkish delegation, is genuinely seeking a reasonable peace, because Ismet realizes that Turkey needs tranquility and friendly relations with Europe, and above all, capital with which to develop Turkey, for Turkey is poor in money.

Silent Observers. With Ismet are several men, some of whom keep in obscurity, watching his every move. These are silent observers, and represent either the bolshevik element in Turkey or are pronounced reactionaries who hate any concessions to non-Mohammedan Europe. They have been likened in conference circles to the commissaries of the French revolution, who spied on the revolutionary leaders like Robespierre and Danton and who possessed such sinister power. The secret French commissaries had the guillotine as their weapon.

The Turkish weapon is not known but some of the observers here affect to feel that Ismet must watch his step in dealing with capitalistic and Christian Europe and America. The apprehension is felt by some of the European delegates that the powerful men behind the scenes will force Ismet into making demands which cannot possibly be accepted.

TIERNAN OF SOUTH BEND WEDS AGAIN

Former Mate of Principal in Paternity Case Marries Iowa Girl.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Professor John P. Tiernan of South Bend, Ind., and Mrs. Blanche J. Brimmer of Hansell, Iowa, were married this morning by Justice Howard Kemp, at Crown Point, Ind. The professor, who was divorced Thursday from his wife, Mrs. Augusta Tiernan, principal in the Tiernan-Poulin paternity case at South Bend, gave his age as 32. The bride gave her age as 24.

The license for the marriage was issued at Crown Point this morning and the couple at once went to Justice Kemp, and after the ceremony left Crown Point immediately without, so far as known, mentioning their destination. The bride at the time of the issuance of the license stated that she was a widow.

Professor Tiernan recently resigned his law professorship at Notre Dame university prior to the divorce case hearing.

The first information that the professor intended to marry again came from Waukegan, Ill., yesterday, when it was reported that the professor and a young woman had been refused a marriage license there because the Illinois law forbids remarriage of divorced persons within one year.

At South Bend, Mrs. Augusta Tiernan, who had lost her suit to prove Harry Poulin, a haberdasher, was the father of her third child and who allowed the professor to obtain the divorce on a cross-complaint, Thursday announced she had been "tricked" and that she and her former husband had planned to remarry quietly. She declared she would take steps to reopen the divorce case.

Throughout the Poulin case, Professor Tiernan took a legal attitude, and with his wife declared they were trying to make Poulin accept responsibility for his alleged acts.

The professor and his bride did not disclose their plans to Justice Kemp. Mr. Tiernan merely told the official that he was a lawyer by occupation.

Methodist Minister's Daughter. Hansell, Iowa, Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Blanche Brimmer, who married Professor John P. Tiernan of Notre Dame fame, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hawa, a Methodist minister here.

Mrs. Brimmer is 23 years old, and has been a widow for a year, her father said today.

The Rev. Hawa said that his daughter has been corresponding with Professor Tiernan for some time. He said he did not know just how long. The Rev. Hawa and the girl's mother have never seen Professor Tiernan.

Mrs. Brimmer left her home Thursday for Chicago. Her parents knew she planned to marry Professor Tiernan.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 25.—When informed that her former husband had been married to Mrs. Blanche J. Brimmer, at Crown Point, Ind., this morning, Mrs. John P. Tiernan stated that she did not know the woman but that she had frequently heard Professor Tiernan speak of a "Blanche" whom he some day expected to marry. These statements were generally made in the form of a jest to which she paid little attention. So far as she knows the new bride of Professor Tiernan has never been in South Bend.

Mrs. Tiernan expressed indignation when told of his action. She asserted she would refuse to give up her two daughters, awarded to Tiernan. She charged she had been tricked in an agreement to allow Professor Tiernan to obtain a divorce and added that she would take steps to have the decree set aside.

Judge C. R. Montgomery, who presided in the superior court when the divorce was granted to Professor Tiernan last Thursday, stated today he had started an investigation into the marriage of Professor Tiernan and the decree of divorce might be revoked or altered.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—A dispatch to the Chicago Journal from Crown Point, Ind., today said that Professor John P. Tiernan of South Bend, Ind., who was divorced Thursday, was married at the Indiana city to Blanche Brimmer of Hansell, Iowa.

DRY LAW IS BIG PUZZLE IN AMERICA

Prohibition Mess Worse Than Ever, Lawrence Says.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright, 1922, by The Argus.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—The prohibition mess is getting worse than ever. Nobody is satisfied with the present situation.

President Harding's announcement that the cabinet had discussed the entire subject and that an appeal to the conscience of the American people is pending constitutes the first direct result of the last election. The significance of Mr. Harding's course in bringing the matter to public attention at this time is a realization that the machinery of enforcement is not only inadequate but ineffective without a sympathetic public sentiment. Many of the foes of prohibition argued again and again that a country ought not to be put on the books until sentiment is practically unanimous. Experience with liquor laws in the several states for a generation has proved that public sentiment makes a law effective or a dead letter according as the people choose.

Law is Nullified. The federal government is aware that in many states public sentiment has virtually nullified the law. Dry leaders are constantly urging the government to do something about it. Recent elections in the so-called wet states have made matters even worse. How much enthusiasm for instance have the state officials in New Jersey for law enforcement when the state voted for a wet candidate by a big majority? And how discouraging is the task of the federal officials who realize that they haven't the moral support of the local authorities. After all the police powers of the nation are vested in the states and cities and even the most ardent friend of prohibition will concede that without the support of the states the federal government faces an almost hopeless task in ridding the country of "bootleggers." The constitutional amendment contemplated concurrent jurisdiction of the states and the federal government. It was hoped that both would be exerted for the enforcement of the law. But some states have by one means or another shirked their tasks. Massachusetts in the last election voted against a bill to help the federal government enforce prohibition. The movement in the wet states is not at present aimed to secure a return of the saloons—the way is for "liberalization," namely, the making of wines and beers.

No Respect for Law. In accordance with this sentiment (Continued on Page Sixteen.)

Navy, 7, and Army, 3, in First Half

Franklin Field, Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25.—In the coldest weather of the season and in the teeth of a high northwest wind, more than 50,000 persons saw the annual Army and Navy battle here today.

Navy advanced from the kick-off to the Army's 40-yard line on a pass and took good gains by McKee, but Conroy missed a field goal.

Dodd and Wood gained through the navy line to the Navy's 13-yard line but Gerbisich missed a placement goal.

In the second period, McKee's long forward pass, and McKee's 13-yard run scored the first touchdown for the Navy, Barchet kicking goal. Smythe made 20 yards on a Navy punt enabling Garbisich to score a field goal for the Army from the 40-yard line. Army made another threat at Navy's goal but was stopped on the Navy's 20-yard line.

Score, end second period: Navy, 7; Army, 3.

RUMOR CHAPLIN AND POLA NEGRI ARE BETROTHED

Famous Film Comedian and Actress Won't Affirm or Deny.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 25.—A story published today by the Los Angeles Times that a report of the engagement of Charlie Chaplin, motion picture comedian, to Pola Negri, Polish screen tragedienne, was current among the Hollywood studios, was neither denied nor confirmed by Chaplin, while Miss Negri denied herself to interviewers.

The report was said to have kept the studios excited for three weeks and the remainder of Hollywood talking for several days.

When the Times' reporter met the tragedienne first when he toured Europe more than a year ago, and since Miss Negri came to Los Angeles for film work recently, Chaplin is reported to have been in her company as often as the conventions permitted.

Chaplin told newspaper men any announcement must come from Miss Negri.

"I can't say 'yes' or 'no,'" he declared. "And if I said 'no,' think of the position it would put her in."

Chaplin is a native of England and was a music hall comedian in London before entering motion picture work. Miss Negri is a Polish countess.

According to the Times, Madame Negri cancelled an engagement to give a representative of that newspaper an interview when she received intimation of the subject he wished to discuss.

The Chaplin-Negri romance, the paper continues, "had its beginning when Chaplin toured Europe last year."

And when Negri recently arrived here and met Chaplin she was said to have exclaimed: "This is what I have looked forward to ever since I started."

"Almost inseparable" They are said to have been "almost inseparable" since she reached Los Angeles.

When the Times' reporter sought to reach the actress to ask her about her reported engagement to the comedian, a personal representative said: "She hit the ceiling when the subject of the talk was mentioned."

Chaplin was reached and interrogated with considerable difficulty after at first declining to discuss his personal affairs, he said: "I can't say 'yes.' Any such announcement must necessarily come from her. She is a gentlewoman and a foreigner. Don't you see? She does not understand American ways in affairs of this kind. She would resent my making a statement. And if I said 'no'—just look at the position in which that would put her."

"No Crime," Says Charlie. Later Chaplin commented: "Marriage is no crime." The comedian is said to have moved recently from a small cottage into a house of many rooms and to be occupying it alone.

There have been many reports in the last year that he was to marry. He was formerly the husband of Mildred Harris, screen actress.
