

THE ARGUS SANTA CLAUS FUND FOR POOR KIDS

Special, Special, Special Ladies, Fair and Women of World All Their Contributions.

Rock Island series No. 956, Fraternal Order of Eagles, which never overlooks the poor kiddies taken care of through The Argus Santa Claus fund, today has sent in its check for $15. The Argus fund is only one of several charitable enterprises to which the local Eagles lodge contributes every Christmas. Other organizations from which donations have recently come to The Argus Santa Claus fund are Colonel Brackett's circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., 45; Camp 85, Woodmen of the World, 110; Rock Island Turner society, $10. Among the individual donors are Victor Beck, Jr., J. E. Anderson, William H. Fredricks, R. P. Gilloley, S. H. Pierce and Dr. C. Bernhard.

Only a few weeks remain until Christmas. In the meantime The Argus Santa Claus fund committee must look after all of the details of the gift purchasing and distribution. There is in addition the important detail of checking names of all children turned into the committee. Christmas packages are left only at those homes where the parents are not in circumstances so they can give their children the happy Christmas they would wish to. The one mission of The Argus Santa Claus is to prevent Christmas heartaches among the poor children of Rock Island.

If you are going to help the fund, do it without further delay. And if you know the name and address of a family where there are children that may be facing a cheerless Christmas you are urged to reveal your information to The Argus Santa Claus committee. Your responsibility will end there.
