Killed Above Moline.

This morning section hands, employed by the C. R. I. & P. in Moline, while going to work, found the body of an unknown man lying near the west bound track. The Moline police were notified, and in turn Coroner Hawes was also summoned. The body was found a couple of miles above Moline, and Undertaker C. B. Knox was told to bring the body to Moline, where Coroner Hawes empanelled a jury composed of: E. L. Eastman, foreman; W. A. Jones, August Lindblad, John Geisberger, James Trevor and Frank Sumar. From the testimony it is supposed that the man's name was Edward Verbeke, and the jury returned the following verdict: "That Edward Verbeke came to his death by being struck by a west-bound train on the C. R. I. & P. road about two miles east of Moline, in Rock Island county, some time during the night of June, 10 or 11, 1894."

Fire at Milan.

MILAN, June 11.—What came very near being a serious conflagration for Milan, originated in an ante-room next to the Milan News office Sunday morning at 2:30. The cause of the fire is unknown. Frank Brashar discovered the fire and notified Marshal Reynolds, after which an alarm was turned in and the Volunteer Fire company responded, and in a few minutes a stream of water was playing. Although the fire's whereabouts was hard to discover, it was soon found and put out. Had the fire had a little longer time, there would have been anything on that side of the street saved, and it would have been a worse fire than in '92 had it not been for the prompt action of our "boys." The boys are getting right onto the fire. The Milan News has damages amounting to $25 or $30—no insurance. F. G. White's grocery was damaged by water. The insurance on this store was in the Phoenix. G. R. Sydnor's store was also damaged by water.

The next building was Dr. H. J. Huyett's, and it was a picnic to see the doctor hustle around packing things up ready to move. Mrs. H. J. Huyett and Miss Jessie Perrine were not at the fire. All his work proved unnecessary, as the fire was soon under control.

Court Callings.

All these lots are nice, clean, new goods, made in a superior manner. Other and better values at wonderful low prices.

In children's dress aprons we show the best assortment in Rock Island at the lowest prices—still to make this sale doubly interesting, we will deduct from the price of every child's apron sold from Monday morning to Saturday night 16 2/3 per cent—one sixth.
