

THE EFFECT OF IT.

Republicans Develop a Fifth Ward Boomerang.

POLITICAL DILIGENCE AND RESULT.

Attempt to Force J. H. Reeves the Populist Candidate Out and What It Led to—Now Where is Schneider "At"—His Nomination Held to be Out of Order.

Diligent efforts were made on the part of republican leaders in the Fifth ward yesterday to induce J. H. Reeves, the populist candidate for alderman by petition, to withdraw from the field. All manner of pressure was brought to bear upon him by these designing politicians, but the candidate stood firm. He was nominated, he declared, in response to a principle and he could not see why he should be forced from the track by any party or anybody. He could not see any reason in the diligence employed to persuade him, and the more persistent became the efforts to impress upon him the philosophy of his withdrawal the more steadfast he became to remain on deck. Numerous influences were brought to bear, and when it was found that all was for naught a new tactic was employed. The signers of the petition under which, in accordance with the law, Mr. Reeves is an independent candidate, were attacked. Several were worked, with the result that finally a number of them notified City Clerk Huesing that they had determined to withdraw their names from Mr. Reeves' support, and as a consequence the Union of this morning announces that "J. H. Reeves, who became a candidate for alderman in the Fifth ward by petition, is out of the race after all," etc. But the facts are that Mr. Reeves is very much in the race, and that Ald. Schneider, in whose behalf Mr. Reeves and his supporters were worked, is today the actual victim of yesterday's funny business. As yesterday was the last day for filing the petition it was supposed the withdrawal of the indorsees from Mr. Reeves' petition would invalidate his nomination, but contrary to the Union's view Mr. Reeves is not out of the field, but is still a candidate, as it is too late to desert him, for the clerk having passed upon the sufficiency of the petition and assumed jurisdiction of it and placed it on file they cannot now withdraw, and Mr. Reeves' name will be printed on the ballot.

But how as to Schneider? But it is Schneider's name which may be left off, for Mr. Reeves this morning, when he found what had been attempted with him in the interest of Schneider, entered protest and objection to the certificate of nomination and nominating papers on file in the clerk's office of George Schneider, on the ground that he was alleged to have been nominated under the primary election law, and the committee who called said primary election fixed the time for opening and closing the polls to make such nomination from 1 o'clock to 8 o'clock p. m., and that the judges unlawfully closed the polls one hour before the time fixed for closing the polls in the notice of the primary election, and thereby prevented all persons who had a right to vote at said polls between the hours of 7 and 8 from voting.

The law which the republicans availed themselves of delegates to the committee the authority to fix the place and hours of holding the caucus, but the hours were not less than from 1 to 7 p. m. The call specified from 1 to 8, and this was not complied with in the Fifth ward. It now becomes the duty of the mayor and clerk and one of the council, the latter to be selected by lot, to constitute the tribunal to pass upon whether Mr. Schneider's name goes on the ticket or not. The alderman will probably be selected this evening by lot by the council and the judges will decide tomorrow whether Schneider is or not a candidate.

But at the present stage Reeves has the upper hand over Schneider.

Contractor C. J. W. Schreiner's horse, attached to a light wagon, took fright on Fourth avenue at noon, threw Fred Timmerman, the driver, out, and dashed down to Second avenue and up through the Rock Island railway yards at a lively rate. The wagon was somewhat disfigured, the boy escaping with some bruises and the horse sustaining a few scratches.

Alfred H. Yates who grew up here is again back in Rock Island, being resident agent for the N. O. Nelson Manufacturing company of St. Louis, manufacturers of plumbing and steam goods, marble work and mantle dealers. Contractors and owners needing goods in his line will be able to buy them at wholesale prices, thus saving the plumber's profits on them.

A workingman named Cunningham was severely hurt while at work on the government bridge yesterday morning. The injured man is a boarder at the Walker lodging house on Perry street in this city. He had just obtained employment on the works and was unacquainted with his surroundings. A trained timber, springing back into position, struck him on the knee, dislocating the cap over the joint, allowing the serum to escape, which may possibly leave the injured member stiff upon its healing. It was a sad accident and Mr. Cunningham's many friends will regret the mishap.—Davenport Leader.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists. If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
