Frank Ainsworth, who shot and killed Engineer Fred Dempsey while attempting to hold up a Burlington passenger train at Roodhouse a few months ago, has evidently prepared to make a desperate fight for his liberty. His trial was set to begin Monday of this week at Carrollton, but his attorneys, of whom there are four, succeeded in getting a continuance until February.
Yesterday was tri-city day at Bowlby's, as the following named gentlemen called and purchased a fine piano each to gladden their homes: John A. Peterson, Moline; George Simpson, Rock Island; and L. Stollenburg, Davenport. We have a large and fine stock for you to select from and can suit you on any price you may want to invest in an instrument and give you terms of payment to suit your own convenience. Call and see our bargains.
A few more of Rock Island's best singers have been secured in addition to those whose names have already been published to take part in the benefit concert and reading, Dec. 16. Mrs. Mae Richards Casey, our sweet voiced contralto, and E. R. Maloney, the well-known baritone, will each sing a solo. The Chopin quartette, composed of Miss Alice O'Connor, Mrs. Mae Casey, J. A. Lindley and E. R. Maloney, will render a selection. Bertha Sonntag and W. E. Moody will sing the "Miserere" from Il Trovatore. A large audience should greet these famous singers who donate their service for such a worthy cause.

ANOTHER GREAT CLOTHING SALE.

ANOTHER magnificent opportunity for Bargain Seekers. Another big purchase which enables us to offer the patrons of our Two Big Stores a price-benefit which will meet with popular approval and add to the splendid growth of our business. Another sale that will demonstrate in the most emphatic manner the correctness of the M. & K. Price-way and the M. & K. Method. Another rare treat in which some other fellow pays the loss and M. & K. patrons get the benefit. People have grown tired of being humbugged with fake sales and glaring exaggerations of unfilled newspaper promises. Here, and here only, is another offering of irresistible, trade-compelling prices at the two big stores of M. & K., the stores which have been tried, always found true, and never wanting.
