A thing that must be stopped, says Johnny Jones. "Did you ever stop to think that the enormous sum of from $50,000 to $100,000 of our good old Rock Island money is left in Davenport, Iowa, every year. Let us manage a little better from this on and keep more of the money at home, and contribute to the upbuilding of our own beautiful city. I am still doing business at the old stand, next door to the Rock Island house." Johnny Jones, the greatest second hand friend on earth.

Prof. C. A. Wendell, instructor in English history at the High school, has arranged a literary contest in which all the members of his class are expected to participate. It will consist in the writing of a letter based on English history, describing the condition of the people of that country beginning with 1211, the information to be drawn from the Magna Charta. The contest will close Jan. 31. Prof. E. V. Robinson, Mrs. Eastman and Miss Alice Rush have been selected as judges.

The will of the late Andreas Schultze, of Hampton, has been probated in the county court. The testator names his wife, Amelia, as executrix and bequeaths to her $2,000 in cash and all his personal property. He leaves all his real estate to his son, Franz, on condition that he first pay to deceased's sons, Andreas, Henry and Fritz, $225 each; to Edward, another son, $725; Henry Little, a grandson, $300; and Anna Schultze, a granddaughter, $200. If Franz shall fail to accept the property on the conditions named it is ordered that it be sold and the proceeds divided among the heirs. The testator also makes a bequest of a team of horses and a set of double harness to Albert Lewien.
