such as it never had before. The present administration, in both branches of municipal government, legislative and executive, is the weakest unquestionably ever known in the city's history. It is the most pronounced do-nothing council we have ever had. It has pursued a retrogressive course since its inception. There has been no effort to improve or to preserve or keep in respectable condition improvements already nothing in drinking." "Will your directory of drunkards be published?

"No, sir. We know what that would mean. Some lodger stole a book in which one of the soldiers had a partial list of some of the drunkards in St. Joseph, and the thief sold each drunkard came out in the mornup to the shop of this dealer and promised six glasses of beer, half a pint of whiskey, and two meals to act as sandwich man for a day. For twelve hours, they rolled about the own intoxicated, bearing signs adertising some special brand of rye. Nearly all had to go to the rock pile. But it was a lesson to them."

Major Sammons hasn't completed his plans for reformation. But he is certain that he can pick out a big percentage of the drunkards, who will turn up good citizens.

"I don't believe in drink cures, as they are generally understood," said e, "Faith in Jesus Christ is the only thing that will save a man. The cures' may save some people for a time, but those with whom we comin contact haven't the money for about the world so much that they haven't the courage to fight out the battle.
