MITCHELL AND BAER

U. M. W. President Replies to Recent Statements of the Reading President.

CALL FOR TROOPS IS REPUDIATED

Sheriff Says He Asked for None—More Cavalry Ordered Out—Boston Men Go Into Court.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 29.—Some of the local coal operators, after being shown a copy of the statement issued by President Mitchell yesterday, say it will probably be the last he will give to the public before the ending of the strike. They say that his appeal is made up of generalities. At strike headquarters Mitchell's latest deliverance is termed a "ten strike," and it is stated that the facts and figures he presents are irrefutable. The military authorities, Sheriff Jacobs and some of the superintendents of the coal companies in this vicinity held a meeting in the office of one of the coal companies Saturday evening and talked over a plan by which the troops can be moved promptly to scenes of disturbance.

Purpose of the Militia.

It is not the purpose of the militia to do police duty, but if any of the companies can get men to go to work the soldiers will give them protection. It is reported again that attempts will be made today to resume work at several collieries in this region which have been idle since the strike began, but the report cannot be verified. At strike headquarters it was claimed that there will be no change in the situation this week, which is the twenty-first of the strike; that the strikers are as firm as ever, and that there will be no desertions from the ranks to make it possible for the coal companies to start up any new collieries.

Another Troop Ordered Out.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 29.—Governor Stone yesterday ordered the Sheridan troop, of Tyrone, to report to General Gobin for duty in the anthracite strike territory. The troop left Tyrone last evening by special train.

Says His Name Was Unauthorized.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 29.—Sheriff Knorr, of Columbia county, says he did not sign nor authorize his name to be signed to the telegram which was sent to Governor Stone asking that troops be sent to Centralia, and the miners' leaders here, headed by Terence Gintley, of the executive board, have telegraphed the governor to that effect, and to guarantee the surrender to the authorities of all accused persons.

JOHN MITCHELL'S STATEMENT

He Replies to Baer's Allegations Relative to the Coal Strike.

Philadelphia, Sept. 29.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, has written a statement in reply to recent utterances of Baer, president of the Reading railway. Mitchell says in part: "Mr. Baer states that 'the wages paid in the anthracite coal regions are, compared with the wages paid in like employment, fair and just.' By 'like employment' Mr. Baer must refer to bituminous coal mining. I am willing and prepared to demonstrate that wages in the bituminous coal fields are from 20 to 40 per cent. higher than those paid for similar classes of work in the anthracite fields." He then presents figures to prove that assertion, and adds that the danger in anthracite mines to life is greater than in bituminous.

Mitchell says: "There are other statements of Mr. Baer which are equally incorrect; among these is his assertion that 'the mines only worked from four to six hours per day,' and his further assertion 'that the lowest scale of wages was 85 cents for boy slate pickers.' If Mr. Baer desires I will gladly furnish him with the names and addresses of thousands of slate pickers, each of whom received much less than 85 cents per day, and I shall be willing to have the returns verified by the companies pay rolls.

"The next misstatement of Mr. Baer to which I shall give notice is that which claims that 'for some mysterious reason' the miners restricted the output of the mines. Mr. Baer claims 'that in this manner the product of the collieries has been reduced about 12 1/2 per cent. and that in the case of the Reading company it amounted to more than 1,000,000 tons.' Mitchell then quotes figures from official reports and 'The Engineering and Mining Journal' to show that this statement is wide of the truth, and that even the per capita output was increased, not diminished.

He also denies that the United Mine Workers seeks to interfere with the management of the coal properties, that the organization is lawless, and that the companies cannot pay the increase demanded. He declares that the hired guards are lawless, however, and that their acts are charged to the miners. He declares the statement that the 40 per cent. of the coal mined being less in the market than the case of mining misleading, because it leaves out of account the coal that is sold, for which the miners receive no pay.

He closes with the declaration that

LEG STILL SORE: BONE AFFECTED

President Roosevelt Again Submits to Surgery—Seems Much Better.

Washington, Sept. 29.—At the White House this morning it was stated the president spent the best night since he was brought here from Indianapolis.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Secretary Cortelyou at 3:30 p. m. yesterday issued the following statement:

Dr. Newton M. Shaffer, of New York, joined the president's physicians in consultation this morning at 10 o'clock. The increase in local symptoms and a rise in temperature rendered it necessary to make an incision into the small cavity, exposing the bone, which was found to be slightly affected.

"Thorough drainage is now established, and the physicians feel confident that recovery will be uninterrupted. The operation was performed by Surgeon General Rixey, assisted by Dr. Lung, and in consultation with Surgeon General O'Reilly and Doctors Shaffer, Urie and Stitt."

CHILD'S HORRIBLE DEATH

Falls into a Steam Well and Is Literally Parboiled—Sister's Heroism.

Anoka, Minn., Sept. 29.—Alice Bibeau, the 7-year-old daughter of David Bibeau, fell into a steam well Saturday and was literally parboiled, death resulting before she could be rescued. Her 9-year-old sister was probably fatally scalded in a heroic attempt at rescue, and a man, whose name is not known, was also fearfully burned, but will recover.

The children were playing upon some boards which covered a well used to condense steam from a nearby mill. The boards gave way and precipitated Alice into the pit, in which there was about a foot of boiling water. Her sister stood over the well and reached down through the steam time and again in her efforts at rescue.

The fight is not so and for the present generation of miners as it is for the little children "prematurely doomed to the whirl of the mill and the noise and blackness of the breaker." * * * * *
Win a life for the child and secure for it a place in the world in keeping with advancing civilization."

BASED ON CHAPLAIN'S THEORY

Receiver Is Asked by Boston Citizens for the Anthracite Properties.

Boston, Sept. 29.—A committee of citizens, headed by the publisher of a Boston newspaper, Saturday sought relief in the courts from the present coal shortage and high prices by asking for a receiver for the coal companies and coal-carrying roads. A bill inequity was filed in the supreme court against the corporations involved in the anthracite strike. The petitioners ask that a receiver be appointed for the benefit of all concerned, upon such terms and in such manner, and with such agents and servants, and with such rates of wages and other conditions of employment, and at such prices for goods produced and sold, as the court shall from time to time adjudge proper.

The bill is based upon the legal theory of the coal situation given by H. W. Chaplin, a lawyer. Chaplin says in support of his position: "Since the public have a right in the mines—a right to have coal forthwith mined for immediate consumption—and have a right to have that coal immediately transported out of the mine regions by the coal-carrying roads, a court of equity if no other solution of the difficulty is open, has authority to, and upon the application of a representative proportion of the people undoubtedly would, appoint a receiver or receivers to take into his or their hands the whole business now in the hands of the anthracite coal combine, and to run it in their place."

Want the President to End It.

New York, Sept. 29.—Petitions are being circulated throughout the country by the members of the various organizations comprising the American Federation of Catholic societies asking President Roosevelt to use his good offices to end the coal strike.

PARIS EDITORS DIFFER

As to What the United States Should Do Down in South America.

TWO KINDS OF WARNING GIVEN

Both of Which Have the Central Idea "Look Out When Your Uncle Sam Is Around."

Paris, Sept. 29.—The French press has been following closely the "armed intervention" of the United in affairs on the isthmus and at Panama, and the article published in La Prensa, of Buenos Ayres, Argentina, Sept. 26, in which attention was called to the alleged tendency of the United States toward imperialism as illustrated by the landing of United States marines on the isthmus, and against which action the paper protests energetically, has evoked comment in several newspapers. La Liberté says the Latin countries of South America have several times clearly affirmed their intention not to allow themselves to be absorbed by the United States. The great nations of Europe ought to support them vigorously in this work of defense and self-preservation. It is the special duty of nations of the same blood as theirs, says La Liberté—such as France, Italy and Spain—to stretch out a helping hand.

Other Editor Indorses U. S.

Le Journal Des Debats, on the other hand, indorses the policy of the United States toward the republics of South America. This paper first remarks that the United States government does not need to repeat the Monroe doctrine to Europe. The situation itself suffices to recall to the latter that the American continent cannot longer be a field of European political action. The paper then says that the protest against the landing of United States marines on the isthmus made by General Salazar, commander of the Colombian forces on the isthmus, is futile, and therefore of only mediocre interest. "America," says the Journal Des Debats, "is scrupulously fulfilling the duty imposed upon it by the treaty of 1846, and it will fulfill this duty more and more in the future as the canal is completed. The good old times of civil war at Panama are a thing of the past."

Latin Americans Warned.

The Journal then proceeds to warn the Latin-Americanist deep reforms are necessary if he wishes to remain free, and concludes by saying: "The economic scandal of Colombia and the internal disorders which cause it will certainly impose upon Uncle Sam, injured and indignant, some form of control. It is evident that we are at the beginning of a period of North American intervention in South America, or of fundamental reforms in the latter country. Those nations which are duly forewarned, and disposing of adequate resources do not make the effort necessary to live, abdicate purely and simply the right to exist."

LATEST ABOUT SEA SERPENT

Monster of the Deep Said to Have Appeared at Lake Geneva.

Geneva Lake, Wis., Sept. 29.—A sea serpent has been seen in Geneva lake. Its appearance is vouched for by a number of witnesses. About 6 p. m., as Mrs. Buckingham, of Sharon, who occupies a cottage with her son, John Buckingham, captain of the steamer Geneva, was sitting on her porch, her attention was attracted by a disturbance in the lake a few rods from shore. Closer observation revealed a long, slender body coiling and moving with an undulating motion through the water. It splashed the water and sent waves in all directions.

Mrs. Buckingham called her neighbor, Mrs. Dorliska Reid, of Delevan, to the spot. The latter's two children also came, and another boy about 16 years old, named Carl Henders, the snake appeared to them to be as long as the steamer Aurora (eighty-four feet long), which was moored a short distance away. The boys resolved to get a closer view of the strange creature and pulled out in a rowboat. As they drew near the reptile gave a splash and disappeared.

All of those injured were caught in the fiery blast of flames and ashes which followed the blowing out of a bell while the men were at work. They were sent up to the dangerous place about an hour before. Something had gone wrong with the working of the furnace and the men were ordered to make the necessary repairs. While they were there the explosion took place.

BURN BRUTE AT STAKE

Horrible Fate of a Negro Murderer in Mississippi.

YET SAID HE DESERVED IT

Tom Clark, alias Will Gibson, Pays Penalty for Atrocious Crime.

Corinth, Miss., Sept. 29.—Writhing in the flames of burning faggots, piled high by hundreds of citizens, Tom Clark, alias Will Gibson, a young negro, was burned at the stake here at a late hour yesterday, after having confessed to one of the most atrocious crimes in the history of North Mississippi, the assault and murder of Mrs. Carey Whitfield on Aug. 19 last. Before the torch was applied Clark stated that he deserved his fearful fate. Last August Mrs. Whitfield, the wife of a well-known citizen, was found dead in her home. Investigation showed that the woman had been assaulted, and her head was practically severed from her body, a razor having been used in the bloody work. The indignation of the people knew no bounds.

Betrayed by His Wife.

After a long and fruitless search a committee of twelve citizens was named to continue the hunt for the murderer, and these men have been very active in their work. On Monday last it became known that Tom Clark, a negro living near here, had had trouble with his wife, and the latter threatened to disclose the secret of a crime. Officers apprehended the woman and she told enough to warrant the belief that Clark had murdered Mrs. Whitfield. Clark was arrested and brought before the committee of twelve in Corinth. The negro finally confessed the murder, and also told of other crimes that he had committed. He said that several years ago he killed two men on an excursion train in Mississippi.

Committee Usurps Court's Place.

After hearing the confession the committee decided that the negro should be hanged from a telegraph pole in the street. Clark said he deserved death, but asked that the execution be delayed until yesterday so that he could have a farewell interview with his mother and brother who lived in Memphis. The request was telegraphed. Meanwhile the news of the negro's arrest and confession spread rapidly over the surrounding country, and yesterday's incoming trains brought hundreds of people into the city to witness the lynching.

Roasted the Brute.

The crowds became so great that at midday the main street of the town was ordered cleared, and the announcement was made that it had been decided to burn Clark at 3:30 p. m. This statement caused much excitement, and surging crowds of people began to gather about the place selected for the enactment of the awful tragedy. At 2 p. m. pine faggots and larger pieces of wood were carefully laid about an iron rod which was driven deep into the ground, and half an hour later it was announced that all was in readiness.

At 3 o'clock the prisoner, heavily manacled, was taken from the jail by a posse of armed men, and followed by a large and excited crowd of men and boys was led to the east gate of the negro cemetery, which is situated in the western part of the city. Faggots and wood had been piled high around the stake, and the negro was securely fastened to the iron rod. Clark was asked if he cared to make a statement. He again said that he deserved the fate prepared for him, and asked that a letter be delivered to his mother and brother. He appealed to his brother to raise his children properly, admonishing them to beware of evil company. Finally all was in readiness and the word was given to fire the funeral pile.

Wife's Relatives Apply Torch.

The husband and brother of Clark's victim stepped forward and applied torches, and in a moment the flames leaped upward, enveloping the trembling negro in smoke and fire. The clothing of the doomed man was soon ignited, and as the flames grew hotter the skin began to parch. The negro moaned piteously at this juncture, and the agonized look upon his face told of the awful torture he was undergoing. Finally his head fell forward upon his breast, and in a few minutes all was over. The flames were fed by the crowd and the body was burned to a crisp. Then the mob dispersed and the town soon assumed its normal condition.

MOB LAW IS SO EASY

Attempt to Hang a Man for Alleged Dishonest Practices.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 29.—Frank Stecher, a former Chicago attorney, who removed recently to Van Buren, was threatened with lynching by a mob of 400 infuriated oil workers and other citizens and the officers barely succeeded in saving his life. As it was he was badly hurt. He was struck in the back with a stone and it is thought his spine is injured. Stecher aroused the enmity of the people of Van Buren, it is alleged, by questionable practices.

The affair which caused the popular feeling to reach a climax and nearly ended in the attorney's death by mob violence was the collection of a note for John Blair, a feeble-minded boy. Stecher refused to give the boy the money when he demanded it. A committee called on the lawyer and demanded a settlement. Stecher gave the boy $10, but the citizens refused to allow the boy to be imposed on and formed a mob to lynch Stecher.

GLASS WORKERS' WAGES

Increase of 12 Per Cent. Obtained by the Knights of Labor.

Pittsburg, Sept. 29.—The window glass workers' association, L. A. 300, K. of L., has won a victory for its members by securing a sharp wage advance from the manufacturers. The advance granted by the manufacturers Saturday, after a conference of two hours, is 12 per cent. over the wages recently secured by the rival organization, headed by John L. Denny.

While this advance of 12 per cent. simply re-establishes the wage scale of the close of the last fire, it is regarded by the wage committee as one of the greatest settlements ever made, inasmuch as the rate it re-establishes was granted voluntarily late last fire by the American and Federation Window Glass company as a ware measure, directed against the opposition workmen of the Independent Glass company.
