JOINS RICH FAMILIES

Marriage of Frederick C. Weyerhaeuser and Miss Harriet L. Davis.

CELEBRATED AT SAGINAW, MICH.

At the Home of Bride's Parents—Groom Son of Lumber King.

Miss Harriet L. Davis, the only daughter of Charles H. Davis, a retired millionaire lumberman, and Frederick Edward Weyerhaeuser, of St. Paul, the youngest son of Frederick Weyerhaeuser, were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, at Saginaw, Mich., Rev. Bancroft Hill, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., performing the ceremony, assisted by Rev. William C. Covert, of Saginaw.

The bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with pearl passementerie, and veiled by ancient and rich lace. The only ornament she wore was a diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jay Secor, of Toledo, Ohio, was matron of honor and C. Harry Davis, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Mr. Weyerhaeuser is a graduate of Yale and holds a responsible position in the Weyerhaeuser lumber syndicate.

Other Weddings.
Cards are out announcing the wedding of J. M. Seigel, the Twentieth street broker, and Miss Lena Waxenberg, of Omaha, Neb., the ceremony to take place in that city Jan. 4. Mr. Seigel will take his bride east for a wedding tour, and the couple will be at home after Feb. 1 in the Hurst block.

The engagement of Miss Theresa Scott, of Springfield, to Capt. Frank Stoddard Dicken, a prominent lawyer of Fayette county, is announced. The bride-to-be has many warm friends in this city who will unite in extending congratulations.

OBITUARY RECORD.

Robert Dean, son of Mrs. Althea Dean, 909 Second avenue, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Detroit, Mich. A telegram received here last evening conveyed the sad information and announced that the remains would be shipped from that place in time to arrive here Friday for burial. Definite funeral arrangements will be made when they arrive.

Deceased was 42 years of age. He was born and reared in this city and here he learned his trade as stove moulder. Seventeen years ago he went to Detroit and since that time has been employed in the factories there. It was known by his relatives here that he had been in ill health for the past year, but it was not thought that his condition was critical, and news of his death came wholly unexpected.

A daughter, Miss Althea Dean, survives, together with the mother and two sisters, Mrs. L. C. Roe, of Yorkville, Ill., and Miss Abigail Dean, of this city.

The remains of ex-Ald. John W. Lawhead were laid at rest at Chippewa cemetery this afternoon. Short services were conducted at the home on Forty-fourth street at 2 o'clock and the regular services were held at Trinity Episcopal church immediately following those at the house. Dr. R. F. Sweet was in charge at the church and Rev. R. M. Laurensen at the home and at the cemetery. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of the family and of friends. The family and a wealth of floral tributes attested the respect and esteem in which deceased was held. Mayor Knox and the city council attended in a body, and the pallbearers were ex-Mayors T. J. Medill and William McConchie and Alds. F. G. Gall, A. G. Anderson, Charles Willis and F. W. Bloehlinger.

A Million Voices

Could hardly express the thanks of Homer Hall, of West Point, Iowa. Listen why: A severe cold had settled on his lungs, causing a most obstinate cough. Several physicians said he had consumption, but could not help him. When all thought he was doomed he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and writes: "It completely cured me and saved my life. I now weigh 227 pounds." It's positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and lung troubles. Price, 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at Hartz & Ulmeyer's drug store.

That sealbrown taste of a canton flannel tongue speaks from the liver and tells you to take Rock Mountain Tea at night. Genuine 35c. T. H. Thomas' pharmacy.

PERSONAL POINTS

M. R. McKinley is in Chicago. James Moffitt spent the day hunting near Reynolds.

Attorney H. R. Brown, of Kewanee, was a Rock Island visitor yesterday. Division Freight Agent H. W. Crawford and Tri-City Passenger Agent F. A. Hart, of the Burlington, were in Chicago today.

Capt. and Mrs. O. E. McGinley went to Geneseo yesterday to attend the funeral of Capt. McGinley's uncle, William Aldridgean, an old settler of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston and daughter, Miss Bella Johnston, leave this evening for their home in Sacramento, Cal., after a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnston. They have just returned from a trip to the east, during which Mr. Johnston attended the meeting of the National Grange at Lansing, Mich.

MAY INDICT MANNON

Conspiracy to Defeat Justice Alleged in Dunlap Murder Case.

SHERARD PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY

Says Chocolates Bought for His Sweetheart Also Contained Strychnine.

Developments in the Dool murder case at Alledo yesterday indicated that the defense may raise the point that all chocolate drops are likely to be poisoned while in the process of manufacture.

Dr. J. A. Mannon and Miss Frances Edgar, of Sherrard, appeared before the grand jury yesterday and gave evidence in an alleged poisoning case in Sherrard on Oct. 9, in which they were the principals. Mannon testified that he bought a pound of chocolate drops at McCabe's in Rock Island, and gave them to Miss Edgar, to whom he had been paying attention for a long time. Miss Edgar put a piece of the candy in her mouth, but immediately spat it out, finding it to be extremely bitter. Mannon said he communicated the facts to Miss Dunlap's attorneys, who sent the chocolate creams to Chicago, where they were analyzed and found to contain a quantity of strychnine in crystal form.

Declares It a Fraud.

The state's attorney asserts that the Sherrard case is a fraud, and that he is now seeking to indict Mannon and Miss Edgar for conspiracy to defeat justice. He claims to have a witness to whom Mannon stated Tuesday night that Miss Edgar was posted to spit out the chocolate drop, and not to swallow any of it.

Only two more jurors were secured yesterday. Three venires of 50 men each were drawn, one venire to appear each of three remaining days of the week. It is not at all probable that a jury will be completed this week.

CAUSE OF INSANITY OF MOLINE MAN A MYSTERY

A jury in the county court yesterday composed of Dr. F. H. First, R. S. Dact, R. Haverstick, A. C. Miller, Fred A. Smith and Fred R. Pollard declared John P. Anderson, of Moline, insane and Judge Parmenter entered an order committing him to the Watertown hospital. The patient is 42 years of age. In February of the present year he attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat and since that time he has been subject to nervousness, although never requiring restraint. What has led to his condition is a mystery and the jury was unable to assign any cause. He has a wife and family.
