COWARD ATTACKS POSTMASTER THOMAS

Unknown Person Hurls Rock at Him While on Way Home Last Night.

Postmaster T. H. Thomas, while on his way home at 10:30 last night, was made a mark for a stone thrown from the hand of some unknown coward, who darted into an alley and made his escape.

Mr. Thomas was walking up Seventeenth street and noticed that a man was trailing him, but paid no attention. When in front of Capt. George Lamont's home, near Fifth-and-a-half avenue, Mr. Thomas was startled by the whizz of an object past his head, his assailant missing his mark and hitting a tree. Mr. Thomas turned quickly and saw the fellow dodge into the alley at the rear of Capt. Lamont's home. He shouted after him, calling him a coward and asking him to come out in the open and make known his grievance if he had any, but that was the last seen of him. The police were notified.

BOY SAYS HE IS TO GET $50,000 FROM ESTATE

A special to the Chicago Record-Herald today from Omaha makes interesting reading here. It is as follows:

"Jack Kelley, a stable boy, groomed horses yesterday at $6 a week and slept in a loft. This evening he has apartments at the swellest hostelry in the city. A policeman this morning notified him that attorneys for the late John Kellar, of Rock Island, Ill., were ready to pay him $50,000 on formal proof of identity.

"Kellar was a wealthy uncle. Kelley was a volunteer in the 1st Nebraska regiment, and in the Philippines was twice wounded.

"The bequest was a surprise, as he was not aware the uncle would leave money to any but immediate members of the family. He says he will go to college."

At the county clerk's office, where all estates are recorded, the above item was characterized as a pipe story. There are several Kell estates, but no such amount as mentioned above has been distributed in any instance.

THREE THOUSAND AT FARMERS' PICNIC

Fine Time Had at Annual Outing at Woodward's Grove.

Three thousand people turned out for the annual farmers' picnic at Woodward's grove, in the upper part of the county, yesterday. The farmers and their families made up the bulk of the crowd, but there were many from the cities to join in the celebration of the day.

Congressman B. F. Marsh accompanied the Rock Island and Moline picnickers, of whom there were about fifty. They had engaged the steamer Barnard to transport them to the grounds, but just as the boat was leaving the Moline harbor a break in her machinery occurred, and the Park Bluff was summoned. The Park Bluff was secured to tow the Barnard to her destination, but a sand bar was struck on route, and it was nearly 2 o'clock in the afternoon when the party reached the grove.

The oration of the day was delivered by Rev. W. B. Shaw, and Prof. Oberlander gave an acrobatic performance. Two exciting baseball games followed, the Cordova Sand Ruckers cleaning up the Albany team 14 to 8 for a purse of $20, and the Zuma Red Caps falling before the Twin-City team 5 to 3. The purse hung up for the winner of the latter game was $25.

The dinner served the picnickers was the good, old-fashioned kind that one has to go to the country to get, yellow-legged chicken, and plenty of it, being an item on the menu that particularly appealed to the folks from town. During the progress of the dinner the band appropriately rendered "Home Ain't Nothing Like This."

Big Job in Construction.

The Burlington road is just completing one of the largest tasks in the way of railroad construction that has been undertaken in Iowa in recent years, the object being the straightening of the track and the reduction of grade on the main line between Ottumwa and Street. The work will have cost $1,500,000 when completed and will reduce the distance between the two places from seven and one-half miles to six and a half miles, besides cutting down the grade from 75 feet per mile to 30 feet, the Burlington standard, and taking out numerous tortuous curves. In this distance for three-quarters of a mile there is a fill 200 feet in depth and for a distance of half a mile there is a cut of 100 feet.

We Want Every Man In town to call and inspect the All Wool 18 ounce blue serge Suits we are selling at $7.90 Now when we say All Wool we mean just what we say: No Cotton but ALL WOOL and 18 ounce material, not 12 or 14 or 16, but 18 ounces. These suits are well made and have good trimming. We could have cheapened the making and trimming, which would have enabled us to sell them for less, but they bear an M. & K. label and that means merit.
