

MILWAUKEE.

The cost of production has always been a secondary consideration. The very choicest of every component part of the Blatz brews is the invariable rule. Expert judges of barley and hops are engaged in contracting months in advance of the demands, and only the best of Mother Earth's crop is ever considered.

GOES TO NEW POST

Capt. George W. Burr Leaves for Fort Riley, Kan., to Become Chief Ordnance Officer.

VISIT OF COL. MORDECAI

Extension of Powerhouse on Waterpower Dam Completed at Arsenal.

Capt. George W. Burr, of Rock Island arsenal, left last evening for Fort Riley, Kan., where he is to be chief ordnance officer on the staff of Gen.
Bates, in charge of the field maneuvers at that point. The assignment will last two weeks, and it will be a busy one while it continues. The time will be spent right in the field, in a tent most of the time. There will be little of the sunny side of war about it.

Capt. Fuller, who has been serving in the same capacity at the maneuvers at West Point, Ky., is to be home today, after an absence of two weeks there.

Col. Mordecai, who came to the island last Friday as the guest of Col.
Blunt, is still there, visiting but making good use of his time nevertheless. Col. Mordecai is the senior colonel in the department. He is on duty in the department, at Washington. He served one year at Rock Island arsenal during the time Gen. Rodman was commandant, and he paid the post a visit in 1887, but since then has not seen it till he came to it this time.

A Close Observer.
All his life an ordnance officer, Col.
Mordecai is very much interested in matters pertaining to that department of the army. The administration of affairs at posts such as this is highly entertaining to him. He wants to know all the ins and out of Rock Island arsenal, and he is getting them.
He is putting in good solid hours every day, and is going through the place from end to end, into every corner and every detail of the shops, their arrangement, management, operation, and economy. He will know the place by heart by the time he gets away, which will probably only be a few days hence. This thorough study of the best arsenal in the country is characteristic of Col. Mordecai, who has been thus alert in all matters that pertain to his work all through his life.

The extension of the powerhouse on the waterpower dam was completed some time ago, and the six additional turbines were set in their penstocks, and the big generator that they are to run has been put in place. The wiring of this additional plant is being done now, and will soon be finished, so that a trial can be run, if desired.

Twenty Big Waterwheels.
This additional plant gives the new power installation on the dam a total of 30 of the biggest waterwheels, with an aggregate output of 3,000 horsepower in anticipation of the opening of the smallarms plant, some time hence. The 3,000 horsepower will be ample for all departments of the arsenal, smallarms plant and all. For the present there is more than enough power in the two big generators that are in place.

BOOK COVERS.

All of the Cloth For Them is Made From Cotton Fabric.

All of the cloth used in the binding of books is made from cotton fabric, yet one would not say so on seeing the finished product. Some of it looks exactly like coarse linen. Other styles have an appearance of the finest kind of silk, while others have various sorts of finishes that look like leather, canvas, watered silk and a thousand different designs.

When the cloth comes from the mills it is treated in various ways to prepare it for the dyeing process, which is the most important. Different kinds of sizing are used in the different grades, and after this is done it is ready for the color machines.

These are really the same sort of machines that calico is made on. They are built of great steel rolls or cans that are heated to a high temperature by means of live steam passing through them constantly. The cloth passes through boxes filled with the aniline color that the cloth is expected to be colored with. This is mixed with a starch paste and is spread evenly all through the cloth.

The latter then continues through the steam heated cans and is finally rolled up at the back of the machine in a heavy roll of the desired color. The different finishes are given in a second process. The cloth is passed through very heavy and massive steel rolls which have been engraved with the design that is wanted. Fine lines running diagonally across the cloth will give a silk effect, and there are many other impressions that may be stamped on in this way.—Springfield Union.

Naval Encouragement.

Admiral Watson always prohibited swearing on the vessel where he happened to be, and if any luckless officer enforced an order from the bridge with an oath he was called upon for a private interview with his superior. But another matter in his squadron troubled the admiral. His was the flagship, and yet her men were sometimes the last to finish the execution of a command to carry out a maneuver.
One day when the seamen were behind in getting down from the rigging he called a captain to him.
"Why is it," he asked, "that here on the flagship, where we ought to be the quickest, the men are behind the other ships?"
While the officer was seeking for an inoffensive reply a volley of oaths came floating across the water from the captain of the nearest ship.
"Well, you see, admiral, our men don't get the right kind of encouragement, sir."—Exchange.

She Was There.

"Mamma," said little Frances. "I dreamed of you last night. We were all sitting in the parlor, and you began to scold me."
"What did I say, Frances?" asked mamma.
"Why, you ought to know, mamma," replied Frances, with some astonishment. "You were there."—Judge.

Preocious In Spots.

Mother—Of course, Bobby.
Bobby—Why, mother, I heard you tell father last night that I knew entirely too much.—Detroit Free Press.

LORIMER AS A STAR

Young Romantic Actor to Have Play of His Own This Season.

PAYS VISIT TO THIS CITY

Comes Here to Consult Frank Williams, His Future Manager.

Wright Lorimer, known to theatregoers here as leading man with Milred Holland and Katherine Willard for the past three years, and to a select coterie of friends as one of the pleasantest gentlemen when off the stage that has risen to some measure of fame, was in Rock Island yesterday. It will interest local admirers of his "Baron Ronald" to know that Mr. Lorimer resigned his connection with Miss Willard's company a short time ago, and after remaining to work his successor into the role that he has filled so well for three years, came out here in connection with arrangements that he is making to star in a play of his own next year.

Mr. Lorimer's particular mission here was to consult with Frank Williams, the manager of "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," who will become Mr. Lorimer's manager when his play is ready to be produced. Mr.
Lorimer counts himself fortunate in securing Mr. Williams to look after his business affairs, as his long experience in managing stars and big attractions will insure the actor's bid for stellar honors being made upon the right lines. Mr. Williams was the first manager for Clara Morris, managed Booth's theatre in New York, directed Augustin Daly's affairs for a decade, and is known to the profession at large as a clean cut, discriminating manager of long experience. He will bring Mr. Lorimer out in New York in a manner that will insure the success of the trial if the new play proves to be all that Mr. Lorimer, Mr. Williams and other good judges have declared it to be.

Wide Scope in New Play.

Mr. Lorimer goes to New York at once to give his entire time to preparing for the production of the play, the staging and costuming and assembling and drilling of the capable company with which he intends to surround himself. The new play will allow him a wide scope for this preliminary work, as it dips into a new field and one that offers wide latitude in the matter of artistic embellishment. It is entitled "The Shepherd King," and is a romantic drama in four acts, by Arnold Reeves and Wright Lorimer, telling an old testament story of beauty and power, and without a bad woman in it, as Mr.
Lorimer states with evident satisfaction. While he is not trying for reform on the stage, Mr. Lorimer is an ardent advocate of all that tends to its elevation, and he holds to the somewhat heretical belief that good women can be made as attractive on the stage as bad women. Mr. Reeves, the main creator of the play, is known as a very clever writer, and Mr. Lorimer supplies the scenario and will have personal charge of its production.

It is evident that the young actor-manager has set himself a large task, but those who know him believe that it will be found within the range of his capabilities. He has everything in his favor—youth, physique, a handsome stage presence, intense earnestness, ambition, perseverance, talent—the qualities that win. He has made steady advance from an unimportant position in a stock company six years ago to leading man in some of the best companies that have been on the road.

Confessions of a Priest.

Rev. John S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for 12 years." If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by Hartz & Ullemeyer. Only 50 cents.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never-failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol di-gests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured in Three Days.

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life."

WE EXCHANGE
RECORDS

Bring your old disc records that you have grown tired of (either Columbia or Victor), and we will exchange them for the new Improved Columbia Disc Records. We will allow you 30 cents for your 25-cent record and other sizes in proportion.
The new Improved Columbia Records are of elegant workmanship and are a decided advancement in the art of record making. They have a full, sweet tone, and owing to the manner in which they are made they have a less scratching tone; the needle seems to run smoother on the record. We also wish to introduce to your notice the new Grand Opera Sound Box, which is designed to obviate the scratch of the needle and at the same time retain the full volume of tone.
We will exchange the new Grand Opera Sound Box for any of the old-style Columbia sound boxes now on the market. Call at our warehouses and get our plan of exchange. We carry the largest line of records in the city.

It's Quality That Counts

In coal it's quality that makes heat, it's quality that retains it, it is quality that makes possible consumption of 90 per cent of the combustible part of it, leaving a
