

DAVENPORT DOTS

Promptly at 6 o'clock Saturday night every gambling house in Davenport turned its clientele into the streets and locked its doors as a result of an official order to close issued by Mayor Becker and imparted to the various keepers of the places during Saturday. No hour of limitation was expressed in the order, but by mutual agreement the gamblers decided to suspend at the same hour—6 o'clock being set. The agreement was carried out to the letter. Mayor Becker stated that no special significance is attached to the order. He said: "I simply learned that gambling was going on, and I wanted it stopped at once. My order merely includes the regular gambling houses, which I understand have been running. The police understand it and if infractions are made they will arrest the parties who are guilty."

The funeral services for John E. Cook were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Grace cathedral. Rev. N. S. Stephens officiated. Interment was at Oakdale cemetery.

The divorce bill was set in motion by Judge Bollinger Saturday and during the day's session of court five decrees were granted and two others heard. The decisions of which were reserved by the court. The majority of the cases went by default, the defendants not appearing to defend the actions. The following is the day's record: Byron Weston vs. Hannah Weston, decree; Hubbell & Hubbell appearing for plaintiff; S. C. Burdick, decrees as prayed; A. P. McGuirk, attorney; Olof Dahlquist vs. Gladys Dahlquist, decree; E. J. Dahms, attorney; Myrtle Griffith vs. George Griffith, decree and $25 expenses; Chamberlain & Petersen; Eliza Messenger vs. William Messenger, decree; W. G. Mori, attorney.

The total costs of the trial of Michael J. Conroy in Scott county have been compiled and the bills have been forwarded to Clinton county which will be compelled to stand for the expenditures. While the exact amount could not be ascertained Sheriff McArthur announces that it will run close to $1,200.

Harry Bell, colored, was arrested Saturday afternoon for the theft of a harness from Charles Martin at the rear of the Reupke & Martin real estate office on Third and Main streets. The harness was taken from a horse belonging to Mr. Martin in a particularly bold way. The horse was standing in the shed during the afternoon when the alleged purloiner entered and removed the harness, taking it to the Sanders' pawnshop, where it was sold for $1. When the theft was noticed it was reported to the police, who at once located the stolen property and by means of evidence furnished by the proprietor arrested Bell as the thief.

Two of Scott county's most valuable and best farms were sold Saturday through Charles Maher. The old Magonie homestead, situated about two miles west of the town of Princeton was sold to Joe Ackley by E. J. Dougherty for a consideration of $16,000. Joe Hupley's farm of 150 acres, located about two miles this side of the Magonie farm, and better known as the old Morris place, was sold to his brother William Hupley for a consideration of $11,000. The two deeds break the record at the county recorder's office for the year 1904.

A. R. Rambo, of 1108 Perry street has filed a suit for $5,000 damages against the Tri-City Railway company alleging that the defendant through negligence of its employees was responsible for his having been permanently injured on the evening of May 27, last. In the petition Mr. Rambo states that while crossing Brady street, on Twelfth street last May, he was struck by a Brady street car which at the time was running at an unlawful rate of speed and that he was thrown violently to the pavement, causing his left leg to be broken, bruising his right leg and injuring his head. He alleges that the motorman failed to sound the proper warning and that he was not aware of the approach of the car.

The short but bitterly fought three cornered war between saloon men at Second and Brady streets was ended Saturday with a conference held in the offices of Chamberlain & Petersen and the peace dove now hovers over that section of the city. Gustav Becker's Pickwick saloon will not be enjoined and the temporary injunction issued against the opening of Carl Muxfeldt's saloon at 121 Brady street will be dismissed and he will be permitted to open his place of business.

Sunday, Feb. 21 and the Monday following have been set aside as a day for renovation at the court house. Monday will be the anniversary of Washington's birth and as it is a legal holiday the place will be closed all day. Sunday morning will begin the painting of all the floors in the building.

HINTS ON DIETETICS.

Unripe fruits should never be partaken of.

Outmeal is heating, hence a desirable cereal in winter months.

Well cooked rice, arrowroot and boiled milk heal intestinal irritations.

Pickles, except when eaten with meat and oily foods, are positively unwholesome.

Strong coffee, taken without cream, is refreshing to the nerves and stimulating to the brain.

Sweet things and rare meat conduce to make gouty acid in the blood of those predisposed to rheumatism.

Tea and tea form an invalid diet which is far from ideal. There is tannic acid in the tea and but little nutriment in the toast.

Food values differ according to individual constitutions. According to the old saw, "What's one man's meat is another man's poison."

Gastronomic experiments should be made with extreme caution. Nothing is of greater importance than to partake of those foods which best equip the body for life's work.

Willing to Help Him.

Clerk—I am to be married shortly. Couldn't you manage to increase my salary a little?

Employer—Couldn't, really. But I'll tell you what I'll do for you, my boy. I'll shorten your hours during the first three months, so that you can spend your evenings at home, and after that I'll lengthen them again so that you will have an excuse to get away.

Papa's Heathens.

Mamma—Georgie, where is the 5 cents I gave you to put in the contribution box for the heathens?

Georgie—I'm saving it for Aunt Hetty when she comes.

Why?

Georgie—Cause I heard papa say, "Is the old heathen coming here again?"

ABOUT THAT COAT

You wear a coat. Why? To keep the cold out? No; to keep the warmth in. What of the body that has no warmth—the thin, poor body that lacks the healthy flesh and fat it needs?

For such we say that Scott's Emulsion provides the right kind of a coat. Why? Because Scott's Emulsion builds firm, solid flesh and supplies just enough fat to fill nature's requirements—no more. That means bodily warmth.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

MOLINE MENTION

About 30,000 tons will be the amount of ice used by Moline people next summer, according to the estimate of the local ice companies, which have this amount stored away for home consumption. Of this quantity the Moline Channel Ice company has some 20,000 tons in its houses in the east end of the city, and the Sylvan Ice company the other 10,000 tons in the large storehouses near Sylvan island. In addition to its local supply the Moline Ice company will have 15,000 tons in the new houses in Watertown, a part of which may be used by the Moline trade. The Moline Channel Ice company completed its harvest at noon Wednesday. The Moline Ice company finished filling the ice houses in this city several days ago.

Radical reforms in the saloon ordinances and in the control of the city saloons is advocated by Mayor Skinner, and he has the council at his back in support of them. The sentiment is crystallizing in favor of the following changes: Raising license fee to $700 or $1,000. Abolishing practice of some breweries of inserting their names on licenses issued to their agents. Compelling saloonkeepers to furnish indemnifying bonds. The fact that Moline is one of but three cities in the state to charge the minimum license fee set by the state law is considered by the mayor to be argument enough why the fee should be raised. Only Chicago and Rock Island keep company with Moline in assessing the minimum of $500 a year, and many other smaller cities than Moline are assessing as high as $1,000 a year without complaint by the saloonkeepers who pay it.

Farmer Burns, champion wrestler of the country, won a match from Hilding Archl, of Moline, at Sea hall in Rockford Friday evening. The Moline was heavier than the farmer, but Burns' veteran tactics and experience were too much for the Moline, though it took three falls and fair time to decide. The match was won in straight falls, the first requiring 10 minutes and the next two 15 minutes each. Hugh Nicol was referee.

Moline will be without city water for possibly several days just before the new filter plant is put in operation. Two carloads of special fittings are anxiously awaited to permit of the completion of the plant, but there is no telling now when they will arrive. The fittings are to be used in connecting up the old pump with the new system, and when these connections are made it will be necessary to entirely shut off the water. It depends entirely on how fast it is possible to work as to the length of time the water will be shut off. The factories will lend assistance during the interim and their pumps will supply water as well as possible. The greatest danger will be the lack of adequate pressure should a serious fire break out.

Mr. Sands, traveling salesman from Morrison, was in the city Saturday attempting to locate his son, Roscoe Sands, who disappeared from his home several days ago. The boy left home on a trifling pretext, and his father thought that he would become tired of roughing it and would return before this, but having failed to do so, the parents became alarmed and have notified the police officers to be on the lookout for the boy. He is described as being 14 years of age, weighing 125 pounds, with light hair and blue eyes. He was in Clinton, Iowa, a few days ago, and it is thought he came to Moline from there.

Thor lodge, I. O. V., dedicated their new Swedish and American flags, the Swedish banner having been presented by lady friends of the lodge. Six candidates were initiated and seven applications received. Axel Samuelson was elected grand lodge delegate and Sven Larson alternate, the session being in Chicago in February. There was dancing and refreshments after the meeting.

Edward Moran, well-known modeler for Bernard & Leas Manufacturing company, died at his home in Ridgeview at 9:30 p. m. Friday, after an illness of two years in which he has been in bed since August. He was born in Ireland in 1837, and came to America when 8 years old to Baltimore. He married Margaret Dacey in 1864, and six children survive, two being dead; Mrs. G. Benson, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. L. Connors, Mrs. F. Ridgeley, Harry and John. Mrs. Moran died four years ago. The funeral took place at St. Mary's this morning, interment at Calvary cemetery.

News has come to the Misses Chester of the death of their brother-in-law, William Kellison, who was married to Ann Chester in Texas some four years ago. He died at Kerrville in that state, yesterday morning. One child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kellison in that state, the infant died at the age of three or four months. Mr. Kellison has been an invalid for some time. He lived in Moline for some time and had many friends here. He was obliged to go to Colorado for the benefit of his health.
