Three Hits the Sum Total of Rock Island's Portion Against Camnitz in Game Yesterday.

YOUNGSTER IN FINE FORM

Plenty Fast Enough for National League Company From Which He is Dropped.

Barney Dreyfus might have regretted his parting company with Camnitz if he had been a witness of his superb performance against Rock Island at the Twelfth street park yesterday afternoon. Rock Island was able to scrape together just three hits off this little man whom Pittsburg gave away in a trade for Charley Case and a money consideration on the side. Seven of the local men were mowed in the bargain. The score was four to one.

Donnelly had not been feeling so secure on his hold on the flag since the two defeats he received here on this trip and he went after the game yesterday with both feet, switching Catcher Smith into fifth field because of his poor work behind the bat and giving the job back to his old reliable, Tacks Latimer, who has been holding down the first station since the injury to Red Wright. Looie Lippert was brought in from the field and placed at first. Looie made his debut in the new position by making two errors, but as it happened neither was costly.

Pair of Doubles Bring the Lonely.
A pair of doubles brought Rock Island's one run of the game in the fifth inning, Hagerman starting the music after two men had been retired by sending one out in left just far enough away from Caffry to allow him to feel it. Thornton hammered safely in the same direction. Then Lister drove into the arms of Neal. Rock Island's third hit was made by Annis in the sixth inning. When Caffry dropped Hupp's fly local hopes brightened, but they were sent glimmering in the next instant. Annis, thinking Caffry had repeated his offense in fielding Carlisle's fly, lighted out for home, and was to far gone when he discovered that Ben had cooped the ball, and was in the act of doubling him at second. Vandine had struck out.

How the Senators Got Theirs.
Two scratch hits and a misplay gave Springfield the run in the third inning. Lippert beat out a crack that Hagerman tried to stop, and then Lister failed to hold an easy toss from Sweeney, who had made a nice recovery, the runner reaching second, and registering on a single in center by Donnelly. Thornton threw to the plate, but Cheek's failure to corral the ball did not cost anything, as it might have, Donnelly going to third, for Neal made the third out by hitting Hagerman.

The Senators did not get on in either the fourth or fifth, but they hopped on Hagerman for two doubles in the next session following a pass and the hitting of a batter, resulting in three tallies. Lippert, first up, was drilled. Donnelly fled to center. Neal was binged on the right tribby. Then Caffry drove hot just inside the left foot line for two bases, sending in Lippert. Latimer tried for the case barn, but fell about a half block short, dropping one between Thornton and Carlisle that brought home Lippert and Neal. Tacks was suffered to freeze to the second station, Smith and Durkee flying to the infield. The three remaining hits credited to the visitors were scattered, one each in the succeeding innings.

Camnitz Effective From the Start.
Rock Island had two men on base without an out in the first inning, but could not score, Thornton being tagged on the foot by Camnitz and Lister surviving on Looie's fumble of a throw from Neal. Camnitz settled down, fanning Annis, sailing Vandine to left, and causing Hupp to miss the third strike. Tacks dropping the ball and throwing him out at first. Lippert dropped a little fly knocked by Cheek in the second, after two men were gone. Cheek pilfered, but got no further. Hagerman being fanned. The score:

FINALS TO OCCUR TOMORROW

Cup Will Go Either to Moline or Davenport, Rock Island Being Out of It.

The semi-finals in the contest for the women's handicap cup are being played on the links of the Rock Island Arsenal Golf club this afternoon.

In the race for the championship cup Miss Nott is playing today with Mrs. W. H. Martin, and Mrs. C. P. Skinner with Mrs. J. F. Lardner.

The victors in these two contests will be paired tomorrow afternoon and will play for the cup. The pairs for today are:

DUST FROM DIAMOND.

A Rockford dispatch announces the engagement of Rusty Owens for manager of the red sox next season. Rusty formerly pitched for Rockford.

The standing of the Three-Eye clubs corrected today from the official records of President Edward Holland appears in The Argus this evening.

Each club's share of the pooled receipts for the Labor day games is $196.86. The receipts for the Davenport-Rockford games played in the latter city were $349.85, which is the best showing ever made in Rockford.

Davenport papers make a bid for attendance at the closing series now on across the river with Rockford by calling attention to the fact that there will be on exhibition the largest play in the league, Meek, and the smallest, Burg.

Durkee overreached himself in the ninth inning after cracking out a nice one in left field. Togo tried to make it a two-bagger, and would have been safely at second probably, had he not overrun the sack, Carlisle pegging to Sweeney before he could get back.

Mike Jacobs has sold his snuff parlor in Davenport and returned to his old home on the banks of the Wabash. Mike discovered that wading through the hops was not what it was cracked up to be. Handling the high ones was tougher on his throwing wrist than getting them over to first base.

The last schedule game of the season on the Twelfth street grounds is being played this afternoon. When the season opens in the spring you will be sitting in a new park, and one of the finest in the country, by the way, if the committee that has in hand the raising of the funds to provide the building continues with its work as successfully as it has been to the present.

Manager Hugh Nicol was presented a floral horse shoe by Umpire Joe Lobeck when this afternoon's game, the last of the season on the home grounds, was called this afternoon. Manager Nicol was summoned to the plate and the big bouquet showered on him by Lobeck. It was a little remembrance from the friends of Nicol for the good work he has done since his connection with the Rock Island team.

Joe Lobeck either fears Looie Lippert or is trying to boost him along, judging by two of his decisions in yesterday's game. Once Looie turned wrong at first base and should have been out, but Joe shook his head; another time he touched a runner with his empty glove, having the ball in his other hand. Joe said the runner was a dead bird. It was pretty raw work.

MAKES SPEECH ON SQUARE

Myrtle Holmes Objects to Being Addressed by Stranger at 2 a. m.

Myrtle Holmes was walking through Market square at 2 o'clock this morning after having had her rolls and mocha when a passer addressed her and asked her if she had had her morning plunge.

Myrtle was not in the most congenial mood, having had a late session, during which she consumed more disturbance than she could handle with absolute comfort, and she tore off a speech on the freshness of the youth of the land that is said to have waked the watchman at Grand Isle.

Myrtle wanted the world to understand that she was every inch a lady, even though she were out unescorted after all good little girls should be in the feathers. Capt. Lawrence Kramer interrupted Myrtle when she had reached the middle of her speech and walked her to police headquarters.

This morning she was charged with disorderly conduct and paid a fine of $5 and trimmings.

Genevieve Johnson, the white girl who is in love with a Moline negro, paid her $10 fine yesterday afternoon and was released, and directly made a bee line for the Baker lodgings, where a number of colored people hang out, and where she was arrested the night before in company with her dusky friend.

Officer James Brinn saw Genevieve heading for the place, and arrested her when she emerged therefrom. Genevieve insisted at the station that she merely returned there to secure some personal effects she had left behind the night before.

She was allowed to go on her promise to be in another town inside half an hour. Genevieve boarded a car for Moline.

NEXT SATURDAY BEGINS THE JEWISH NEW YEAR 5665

One of the Most Sacred and Solemn of the Feast Days of the People of That Faith.

Next Saturday occurs the Jewish New Year, or Rosh Hashonah, as the festival is known to the people of that faith. The day will be celebrated in this city.

The New Year and Day of Atonement (the latter occurs Sept. 19) are perhaps the most rigidly observed of all the holidays on the Jewish religious calendar. The sacredness of these two observances is recognized by the Jewish people of both the orthodox and the reformed sects.

The most important distinction between the observance of the two sects is perhaps the fact that the orthodox people observe two days of the New Year, while the reformed temples observe the first day only.

The beginning of the Jewish New Year is not fixed by the government of the seasons, it being the lunar year. It therefore has no fixed date, according to the Christian calendar, but may occur at dates varying several days from year to year. The date of this new year will be the year 5665, which according to Jewish historians is the record of years from creation. According to the Jewish calendar, Sept. 10 is the first day of the month of Tishri, the first month of the Jewish new year.

While being one of the most sacred and solemn in its nature of any of the Jewish holidays, it is at the same time one of the most gladsome. It is characterized by feasting most sumptuously and the giving of gifts. The holidays sets in this year on Friday evening, New Year's eve, and continues till sundown, Sunday, Sept. 11.

The orthodox Jews observe special worship, also, during the interval between the New Year and the Day of Atonement. The latter festival is a day of fast—24 hours of absolute abstinence from both food and drink. Special prayer and special services in the synagogues and temples are held on New Year's and the Day of Atonement.

"The Little Homestead."

The closer to actual life, to the realistic atmosphere of the hearth and home, a story is told, the more surely does it find a responsive chord within the heart. This is one of the chief charms of "The Little Homestead," which will be seen at the Illinois theatre Sunday. Here is a story which carries a message for good with it. It unfolds a story of love and happiness, of bitterness and pain through the evil designs of a man whose only aim in life is revenge. It traces step by step his evil schemes until the inevitable hand of justice rights the wrongs and punishes the perpetrator. It follows the wife who, in an evil moment leaves the happy fireside, to return again remorseful, repentant and dying. It portrays the loving devotion of a husband who, through the weight of his own pain, rises above the weaker self and forgives. It points to virtue as its own reward, to wickedness with its harvest of sorrow and pain. There is action in every moment of "The Little Homestead" and there is a bond of sympathy between the auditors and the characters, made possible through the fact that a picture of everyday life and of heart interest is being unfolded in the atmosphere of home. This happy conception is by W. B. Patton, author of "The Minister's Son" and "The Last Rose of Summer," etc., and is headed by William Macaulay, supported by an unusually talented company of players.

A Power for Good.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are Dr. Williams' Little Elder Pills. W. S. Phillips, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Elder Pills are certainly an ideal pill."
