

DEMOCRAT CONVENTION WILL ASSEMBLE TONIGHT

Much Will Depend Upon the Action Adopted—The Delegates.

Tonight the democratic city-township convention will assemble at Turner hall, for the purpose under the call of naming candidates for city and town offices. The delegates from the several wards entitled to seats in the convention are as follows:

First ward—Herbert Cook, George Simpson, Joseph Lerch, Sam Dean, Peter Etzel, Oscar Barth.

Second ward—Henry Kinner, Joseph Geiger, John A. Cahill, George Barger, Frank Cury, R. H. Robb, E. C. Berry, John P. Sexton, Anton Kick, Henry Deisenroth.

Third ward—George W. Henry, Joseph F. Grotz, Louis Ohlweiler, P. J. Lee, M. M. Briggs, Harry Coyne, W. H. Lamont, E. E. Lamp, Peter Pfaff, John Schlemmer, B. E. King, W. C. Hubbe, S. R. Davis, Charles Walker, Dan Schroeder.

Fourth ward—Ralph Lamont, Henry Lemburg, M. W. Battles, P. Corcoran, Charles Bleuer, S. A. LaVauway, William Curran, O. M. Clonias, Joseph Bender.

Fifth ward—Henry L. Wheeler, T. B. Reddy, James Cavanaugh, C. A. Temple, John Greve, James Hansen, John W. Welch, C. C. Marshall, W. J. Cochran, Valentine Janssen.

Sixth ward—George Wright, Frank Lawler, James Davis, Frank Meenan, Gustave Blankenberg, C. C. Wilson, Herman Detjens, Fred Calkins, John Glinane, John Smitzer.

Seventh ward—Louis Funkenstein, Henry Heuck, August Hanson, W. C. Peck, Andrew Birkland, Joseph Kerr.

The course of the party in the forthcoming campaign depends of course upon the convention so composed, and it need hardly be said that much as it affects both the welfare of the city and the democratic party is at stake in the action of tonight's convention. The party already has the advantage of strong aldermanic candidates in the various wards, and it should not hesitate to place such a ticket in the field tonight as will command the respect and endorsement of citizens generally, regardless of party, while at the same time for the party's future placing the organization in the keeping of men who will hold it to the standard at present attained.

Among those who are being discussed for the office of mayor, apart from C. B. Marshall, who, notwithstanding that he has emphatically declined to be so considered, is nevertheless still favored by many of the party are: W. B. McIntyre, J. W. Cavanaugh, T. J. McDill, Daniel Corken, M. S. Heagy, George Lamont, J. W. Welch, H. L. Wheeler, G. P. Stauduhar and George Price.

For city clerk, Guy Pinkerton, Ralph Lamont, Herman Detjens and J. Edward Elliott are mentioned; for magistrate, E. C. Berry and J. P. Sexton; for treasurer, H. B. Simmon and Paul Hamilton; for assessor, G. W. Henry and B. Birkenfield; for collector, Orrin Leonard; for assistant supervisors, Gus Lohse, Henry Frick, Henry Burrall, C. Gannon and Michael Bulger; for justices of the peace, Henry Kinner, Louis Funkenstein, M. M. Briggs, John R. Warner and Valentine Janssen.

Chief of Police, East Chicago.

The Rawel Lectures.

Rev. Wherahiko Rawel, the New Zealand evangelist, gave the first of a series of three lectures at the Y. M. C. A. last evening. The hall was well filled by an interested audience, the speaker vividly describing the people and customs of his native land. There were illustrations by stereopticon and the native songs were sung. Rev. Rawel will lecture again this evening and tomorrow evening.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS.

The ladies of the First Baptist church will hold a thimble party tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Pollard, 728 Eighteenth street.

Miss Mary Long last evening entertained a company of 40 friends at her home, 2336 Thirtieth avenue, at a shower for Miss Flora Fry, whose marriage to Marshall Lucas will be an event of the near future. The guests made the term shower appropriate, for the bride-to-be was made the recipient of a great number of beautiful gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Mr. Lucas and his bride will at once take up their residence on holdings which he has in South Dakota.

NEW DEPARTMENT IS OPEN

Harned & Von Maur Receive Visitors in Jewelry Department.

Yesterday marked the formal opening of the new jewelry department of the big Boston store, Davenport. This department is practically a store in itself so far as completeness of stocks is concerned, and the optical, repairing and engraving departments will be features. The fixtures are of massive mahogany, with an art glass canopy over the main cases, which are of beveled French plate glass. It is at once apparent that money has been expended lavishly to make this the beautiful department that it is. The store is located directly to the left of the main entrance, and as stated heretofore will be in charge of H. D. Folsom, of this city, who needs no introduction to the buying public.

CHARLES WOOD IS INSANE

Edgington Farmer Ordered Sent to Watertown Asylum.

Charles Wood, aged 43, was adjudged insane this afternoon in the county court. He was ordered committed to the Watertown asylum. Mr. Wood is a farmer, and has resided in Edgington township all his life. It was charged that he had hallucinations, and had at times made threats to injure his wife and take his own life. Of late he has had an idea that he owned between 8,000 and 10,000 ducks, while in reality he had but a few dozen.

Perrine-Galloway.

Rev. R. B. Williams, at the parsonage of the First Methodist church last evening, officiated at the marriage of P. V. Perrine, of Davenport, and Miss Jessie Galloway, of Clinton, Iowa. They were attended by Ernest Parker, of Davenport, and Miss Minnie Galloway, of Clinton, sister of the bride. The groom is staff artist for the Tri-City Trident. The couple will reside in Davenport.

William Jennings Bryan.

Auspices of the Y. M. C. A., at the M. E. church, Tuesday, 21st, 8 p. m. Lecture, "The Prince of Peace." Admission, 50 cents. Only a limited number of tickets to be sold.

OVERDOSE OPIUM

PROVES FATAL TO MARTIN S. PATCH
—IN HABIT OF USING IT FOR SICKNESS.

Martin S. Patch lies cold in death at the Boies undertaking parlors in Davenport and his demise is supposed to be due to the taking of an overdose of opium. For some years Mr. Patch has been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and has been in the habit of using opium to counteract its effect.

Wednesday afternoon Dr. Barewald was called to attend the patient and found him to be apparently suffering from an overdose of the drug. Near him was found a box of opium. His death followed towards evening.

The deceased was 84 years of age and is survived by two sons. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Boies undertaking parlors.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN

CHARLES VERSHOOTE STANDS ON RAILROAD CROSSING TO VIEW FIRE COMPANIES.

Charles Vershoote, 38 years old, stood on the railroad crossing at Seventeenth street, in Moline, at 9:15 last evening to watch the fire department companies turn out in response to an alarm. So engrossed with the spectacular maneuvers of the fire companies was Vershoote that he did not hear the Rock Island passenger from the east bearing down on him. Fortunately for him, he was standing in such a position when the locomotive struck him that he was shunted off to one side, the wheels missing him. His right shoulder was dislocated, and his scalp torn, but there were no internal injuries. He was removed to the city hospital.
