THE CRYING NEED

Rock Island Should Have More Houses for Growing Population.

A CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT

Demand Greater This Spring Than Ever Before For Cottages and Flats.

On an average of twice a season for the past dozen or more years, The Argus has found it its duty to call attention to the lack of a sufficient number of tenement houses of moderate rental to accommodate the rapidly increasing population. While the record of building improvements published in The Argus at the close of each year has shown that these suggestions have not been unheeded, yet the city has expanded and extended so much more steadily than has the march of building improvement with all that has been done, that each springtime has found the demand for houses greater than the supply. This is as usual the experience this year.

The statement may be safely ventured that today not less than one hundred medium priced houses, that would rent from say $12 to $18 per month would find ready takers. Further than this a number of even higher rated tenements would not go begging.

What is true in the matter of houses, would apply with equal emphasis to the flat question. Flat buildings in all sections of the city would undoubtedly prove profitable investments.

The capitalist who wants to realize quickly on his investment has only to put up a number of tenement houses or flat buildings, and help the town as well as himself.

GOES TO THE PENITENTIARY

William T. McDonald Sentenced to Two and One-Half Years.

William T. McDonald, who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of perjury was sentenced to the Fort Madison penitentiary, Iowa, for 2 years and six months at hard labor, this morning by Judge Barker of Davenport. In making his statement, McDonald said that he had been drinking in Chicago, and was influenced to sign the affidavit which was presented as an argument for a rehearing of the Huggard case against the Glucose company. McDonald will be taken to Fort Madison this evening.

Western Flour Mill Co., Davenport, Iowa.

Gentlemen:

We congratulate you on the eight months' growth of your business, which gradual increase we have had good opportunity to note since we have your account.

Your modern and complete plant and expert mechanical force, together with your wheat connections at various points in Minnesota and South Dakota, and F. H. Peavey & Co., Minneapolis, on North Dakota wheat, certainly equips you to manufacture an extra grade flour.

We predict and hope to note additional growth and further increase in your output.

Yours very truly,
Geo. Hoehn, Cashier.
