JEWELER
1707 2ND AVE
ROCK ISLAND, ILL.

THE CHARM OF DISTINCT-IVENESS

Is thoroughly evident in our jewelry. Graceful styles, perfectly wrought, are here in abundance. Rings, scarf pins, brooches—in the new art designs. As you look you wonder why you admire them. The figures are strange and the colors never weary. Here the spirit of a rose, there an ethereal feather, you'd think either of them might have dropped from the skies. The pallid lustre of topaz, amethyst, turquoises, opals and diamonds shimmering like a jeweled veil with their confluent gleamings.

A double welcome to all who come—merchant, modiste, milliner, our neighbors or guests from far away, whoever or whatever you are, this store is yours to enjoy today and the coming days.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE GREAT Book Auction Sale

NOW IN PROGRESS AT THE

CRAMPTON BOOK STORE, 1719 SECOND AVENUE, ROCK ISLAND.

Three of the largest publishers and jobbers of books in the United States, The John C. Winston Company, of Philadelphia; Thompson & Thomas, and David B. Clarkson & Co., of Chicago. These houses represent not only their own publications, but also the efforts of at least 50 Other Big Publishers, enabling them to carry immense stocks. They have adopted a new way of distributing their productions and have placed us in a position to draw on them for an unlimited supply.

The first shipment of more than a car load has arrived and is being disposed of at Auction and private sale—thus affording a very unusual opportunity to obtain a supply of the World's Best Books at a Small Fraction of Their Usual Price.

The stock on sale comprises in part complete sets in handsome bindings of cloth and half morocco:

Bulwer Lytton, 15 volumes; Thackeray, 10 volumes; Scott's Waverley Novels, 12 volumes; Charles Dickens, 15 volumes; George Eliott, 8 volumes; Washington Irving, 8 volumes; Victor Hugo, 10 volumes; Alexandre Dumas, 15 volumes; M. Balzac, 16 volumes; Shakespeare's works in small and large volumes; History of the American People, by Professor Woodrow Wilson; Popular History of the United States, by Edward Ellis; History of England, by Green and Macaulay; Gibbons' History of Rome; Justin McCarthy's History of Our Own Times; Grotte's History of Greece; Plutarch's Lives of Illustrious Men; Heroes of Nations, and many others.

All of the above mentioned sets are bound in beautiful and substantial leather binding, well printed on good book paper.

Encyclopedias, Dictionaries and Atlases.

Why pay $50 to $100 dollars for a set of encyclopedias when you can get here what is equally as good for $6.00, and $8.00, or $15. Large atlases of the world, which usually cost from $5.00 to $8.00, may be had from $1.50 to $2.50.

This is preeminently the teachers' opportunity; attend the sales and be convinced.

The young men should add to their store of learning and keep abreast of the times; they can get here something to stimulate higher aims, nobler achievements.

The older men and women can be made to enjoy their leisure moments by commencing with the world famous writers living and dead. The cost will be trifling indeed.

WILL STUDY BIBLE DURING NOON HOUR

Shop Class Organized Under Y. M. C. A. Auspices—H. N. Hanson is Leader.

The Y. M. C. A. shop bible class, at the Rock Island Plow company's factory was organized this noon, and promises to be a great success. The class is to be conducted throughout the winter by Henry N. Hanson, the class meeting for study at noon once each week. It is expected that another class will be organized in the near future at the Rock Island Sash & Door Works factory.

Last year the association conducted noon meetings at the shops, Rev. D. L. McNary acting as leader. The meetings proved of such benefit and the association met with such encouragement from the men that it was decided to attempt the bible class this winter. Music was furnished this noon by Mrs. J. F. Witter. The weekly bible class supper will be served this evening at the association, and will be followed by the regular study hour.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS.

Taylor-Westphal Wedding.—One of the prettily appointed weddings of the season took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Mable Carnes Taylor was united in marriage to Oscar Bernard Westphal of Davenport at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Taylor, 511 Fifteenth street. Rev. R. B. Williams of the First Methodist church officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. The house was very prettily decorated in the wedding colors, green and white, the ceremony taking place under a bower of smilax and white chrysanthemums, banked with palms. In the dining room white carnations, ferns and palms were used with charming effect. The bride couple, attended by Miss Sarah Walker Taylor of Chicago, sister of the bride, and Wil J. Westphal of Davenport, brother of the groom, preceded by little Miss May Hess bearing the ring in a white rose, descended the stairs to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Grace Greenwood Taylor. The bride wore a gown of white mull and carried white bride's roses. The bride's maid wore a gown of white Persian lawn and carried white roses. An elaborate dinner was served, covers being laid for 65. Many elaborate and beautiful presents testified to the esteem of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Westphal. The bride has for four years held the position of cashier at the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company's store in this city, and by her charming personality has won scores of friends. The groom for three years has been salesman for the same company and is well and favorably known. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Westphal will make their home with the bride's parents and later will go to housekeeping in this city. During the evening Master Kinney Leins delighted the company with several violin solos which he played with exquisite finish for so young an artist.

Cinci. Club Surprise.—Mrs. Clarence Hibbard was agreeably surprised last evening at her home, 2730 Seventh avenue by the members of the Jolly Dozen Cinci. club, who came masked to help the lady celebrate her birthday. She was presented with beautiful table linen by the club and with a handsome silk dress by her husband. The prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Riess, first; Mrs. Hibbard, and Mr. Kail, second; Mrs. Dou and Mr. Johnson, consolation.

Guests of Mr. Stephens.—A small party of Rock Island gentlemen will be the guests of Arthur Stephens, at his home in Moline, Saturday evening, at an informal gathering.

Song Recital.—Mrs. Charles McHugh has issued invitations for a song recital at her home, the Harper, at 3 o'clock Saturday, Jan. 20.

Gratifying to Americans.

The role played by the United States in the peace affair with Japan and Russia has met with the hearty approbation of all true Americans. It was a work which we can always contemplate with satisfaction. The role played by the famous Hostetter's Stomach Bitters during the past 53 years, that of health-maker and preserver, is a work that we also contemplate with satisfaction. Its record of cures is something wonderful, and its influence reaches almost over the entire world. You'll make no mistake in getting a bottle of it. It will strengthen the entire system and thus cure and prevent nausea, sick headache, bloating, heartburn, sour risings, indigestion, dyspepsia, costiveness, female troubles, chills, colds, grippe or malaria. Our 1906 almanac is at your druggist's for free distribution. Be sure to get a copy before they are all gone.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the liquid cold cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief from coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by all druggists.

Don't let your face grow old, sallow, hollow and wrinkled. If you care at all for beauty, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. T. H. Thomas' pharmacy.

MAILING DIFFICULTIES AS TO MODERN WOODMAN

F. O. Van Galder Returns from Washington, Where He Went Relative to Postal Laws.

F. O. Van Galder, editor of the Modern Woodman, the official paper of the order of Modern Woodmen, is home from Washington, where he went owing to technical difficulties in postal regulations relative to the mailing of the publication, that while bearing the Rock Island date, is mailed at the office of publication, Indianapolis. Mr. Van Galder says the difficulties have not yet been overcome, but hopes for some sort of adjustment in the near future.
