

AGAINST LOONEY

Court Overrules His Motion for Bill of Particulars in Criminal Case

FOR CONSPIRACY TO BRIBE

Arguments Are Begun on Demurrer in Wagner Will Suit—Evidence in Divorce Cases Heard.

In the criminal case against John Looney, William Catton and C. W. Neal for conspiracy to bribe, a motion made by Looney in the circuit court today to compel the state's attorney to file a bill of particulars was overruled by Judge Gest. W. R. Moore and H. A. Weld appeared for Looney.

The motion had as its purpose an order to require the state's attorney to file a statement of the particulars of the alleged offense, stating when, how, in what manner, by what persons and means, the alleged bribery was sought to be accomplished.

Will Case Is Up.

The arguments on a demurrer to a bill for the construction of the will of the late George Wagner, in the case of Ernest Wagner against Robert Wagner and others, was commenced this morning, and continued until Dec. 9. The will left $200,000 of stock in the Rock Island Brewing company for Ernest and George Wagner, Jr., the income to be for their use. The complainant holds that with a fair construction of the will his share of the stock, $100,000, should become his at once, and not be held in trust by the executors, Robert Wagner and B. D. Connelly. Kenworthy & Kenworthy appear for the complainant, and Searle & Marshall for the executors of the will.

Hears Divorcees.

Judge Gest heard two divorce cases this morning. Herman Gerlach charges that his wife, Mrs. Clara B. Gerlach, deserted him in 1904. They were married in 1898. Harry McCaskrin is the complainant's solicitor, and Benjamin S. Bell conducted the examination for the court.

Mrs. Annie Bennett also seeks divorce from her husband, Richard Bennett, on the ground of desertion. They were married April 6, 1904, and the defendant is charged with leaving his wife three months later. The same attorneys were in court as in the Gerlach case.

In the case of Mrs. Lillian B. Hall against Nigle Hall, heard some weeks ago, the court intimated that it would dismiss the bill, but granted George Wood, the solicitor for the complainant, further time to present authorities. The defendant is charged with holding lighted matches under his wife's nose. Mrs. Hall has already been once divorced from her husband.

PAYING IN CASH

Banks Meet Pay Rolls Without Resorting to Clearing House or Cashiers' Checks

LOOK FOR IMPROVEMENT

Situation in Moline Is Different, and Steps Are Taken to Relieve Conditions There.

The financial situation in Rock Island remains practically unchanged, and the banks in this city have found the precautions taken two weeks ago, including the enforcement of the 60-day notice on savings deposits, to be sufficient. The banks here today meet large pay rolls, paying all of these in gold and currency. The arsenal pay roll was met this week by the banks, but this is different from the ordinary pay roll, because it is paid on checks on the sub-treasury at Chicago, and the banks can secure such currency and gold as is required from the federal vaults.

Conditions Improving.

Bankers here state that every indication is that the situation is improving greatly in New York and Chicago, and this is sure to result in improved conditions here in financial matters. With the receipt of about $10,000,000 in gold expected in Chicago early in the week, the banks there will be greatly relieved, and this will be reflected throughout the entire west.

The situation in Rock Island and Moline has at no time been serious, and the banks have met all of the pay rolls with cash, and have issued no clearing house certificates or cashiers' checks. It is likely, however, that the rule of a 60 day notice of withdrawal will be continued in force indefinitely.

Do Not Want Gold.

A peculiar thing observed in the present financial stringency is that the public is not demanding gold, but prefers the more convenient currency instead. In Rock Island the men employed in the different factories have objected to the payrolls being made up in gold, asking that currency be supplied instead.

One banker said today that the banks as a result are more anxious to secure currency than they are to get gold, but of course anything in the way of real money is acceptable.

Phil Mitchell, president of the local clearing house association, states that he looks for an improvement in conditions throughout the entire west, shortly, as New York has the situation in hand now, and Chicago is improving its conditions rapidly.

Moline in Difficulty.

The situation in Moline is somewhat different than in Rock Island, for the manufacturers, banks and business men have found it necessary to form a clearing house association to meet the conditions in order to keep the men in the factories at work. An association was formed at a meeting yesterday, and securities placed in the hands of a committee to back up checks to be issued by the association.

The securities are one third more than the face of the checks, and the merchants have agreed to accept them freely in business transactions.

There is a deficiency in the supply of cash in Moline, and the banks have found it necessary to take measures to meet the big payrolls of the factories.

SEEKS HOMES FOR CHILDREN.

Home Finding Association, an Auxiliary of Jewish Charitable Organization, in Quest for Open Doors.

As the Home for Jewish Friendless and Working Girls of Chicago, is only a temporary home, a Home Finding association has been established for the purpose of placing such children who have no parents or interested relations. The association desires to find suitable homes where the children will be cared for and treated like one of the family, or better still, to find people who will legally adopt these unfortunate.

The children in the home include boys and girls ranging from 1½ to 14 years of age. All children over 5 years attend the public school, and their records are all that can be desired.

Address all communications to Miss Jennie Mandel, superintendent, Home Finding association, Fifty-third street and Ellis avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

MANY MEN ARE LAID OFF
