FOR ASSOCIATION OF LAUNCH OWNERS

Call for Convention to Be Held in Muscatine Jan. 21 Issued by Club of That City.

Communications have been received in the city from the Muscatine Launch club announcing the initial call for the Upper Mississippi River Association of Launch clubs, to be formed at a convention of delegates in Muscatine Jan. 21, 1908. The officers of the Muscatine club have had an organization of this kind for some time, and a committee was appointed consisting of A. C. Adams, H. C. Ashalter, Charles P. Hanley and Oscar Grossheim to arrange for the meeting. All launch and boat clubs on the upper river are invited to send two or more delegates and any launch owners interested are asked to attend. The association will be organized for the purpose of promoting the sport of motor boating and the holding of regattas.

CENTURY'S BIGGEST BARGAIN

Congressman Taylor's View of Government's Purchase of Panama Canal.

When Uncle Sam purchased the Panama canal from the French he obtained the biggest bargain of the century, according to Representative Taylor of Alabama. Mr. Taylor, who is a member of the appropriations committee, recently returned from a trip to the canal zone, and he called at the White House to tell the president that he has been converted from an opponent of the Panama canal to a most enthusiastic supporter. In an interview with a Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune he said:

"I was simply amazed at the work I saw going ahead with such rapid strides under the army engineers. When the president gave the work to the army constructors he took a great step in the right direction.

"Taken at the valuation that our engineers put upon it, the actual appraisalment of the work done by the French engineers before they sold the canal to us would have amounted to $26,000,000, so you see, the United States got the greatest bargain of the century when it purchased the ditch. The Panama railroad is another valuable asset.

"It is a pity that everybody who is interested in the subject cannot make a trip to the isthmus to see the work as it is. When the water is let in there will be a lake fifty-seven feet deep with an area of 170 square miles between the Gatun dam and the Colon cut. On that lake all the navies afloat could find maneuvering space, and I am confident that in time it will become the greatest dry docking rendezvous in the world.

"Before I went to the isthmus I believed the United States made a huge mistake in adopting the Panama project. I was in favor of the Nicaragua route. Now I am thoroughly and permanently converted."

Here's Good Advice.

WHY THE CORPS IS POPULAR

United States Marines Represent Highest Type of Service.

It is a circumstance highly creditable to the recruiting officers of the United States marine corps that, while the army and navy are far behind with their enlistments, the marine corps has been kept up to its authorized quota of 9,000 men. The fact also speaks well for the treatment of the men by their officers and for the general attractions of the service.

This latter consideration is perhaps the most influential one. "Tell that to the marines" is an obsolete phrase. The marine is nobody's fool. The work that he does, both afloat and ashore, in foreign countries brings him constantly before the eyes of the world as a type of the American soldier. Such a career naturally appeals to ambitious and patriotic young men. That is why the ranks of the marine corps are kept recruited with a minimum of effort, while the army and navy present their attractions in vain.

The marine is an amphibious animal; he is equally at home on land or on sea. He is not to be confounded with the blue jacket, though he is subject to the navy department. He is a sea soldier who carries the flag of the republic wherever the honor or the interests of the United States are at stake. With such a commission, it is hardly to be wondered at that he is proud of his billet or that the nation is proud of him.

THE GRIGGSITES AT CHAUTAUQUA

Dr. Griggs' Popularity There Has Given
His Name to a Large and Loyal
Army of Admirers.

"The Griggsites" are the people, a numerous body, who go to the New York chautauqua for the fortnight that Dr. Edward Howard Griggs lectures there, solely to take the studies for which he is the lecturer, religiously attend his three lectures a day, and to disperse to their homes when his courses are over. So many and so enthusiastic are the Griggsites that they have won for Dr. Griggs the reputation of the most popular lecturer at the country's principal chautauqua. We are to hear him in Davenport at the Grand opera house, Dec. 9, when he comes to lecture under the auspices of the Tri-City Press club.

AMERICA'S LEADING PUBLIC TEACHER.

Two notable leaders in the intellectual world, the one an Englishman, the other an American, have simultaneously sounded the alarm concerning certain dangers attending the evolution of the democratic idea. Hon. James Bryce and Professor Edward Howard Griggs have this in common: Both are Miltonic men; first, "beholding the bright countenance of truth in the quiet and still air of delightful studies," then putting truth in the field with the charge, "Let her and falsehood grapple."—The Boston Transcript.
