Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus
Comes with Trained Animals and Star Performers.

IS DELAYED IN ARRIVAL

Accident to Cars Makes It Necessary to Call Off the Street Parade in the Morning.

Today is circus day—the first of the year. The big Hagenbeck-Wallace shows arrived in the city this morning, and are showing this afternoon and will hold forth again this evening at the Exposition park on Ninth street. The show came in about 7:30 this morning from Peoria. The trains were brought in over the Rock Island, by way of Bureau. The circus was delayed because of the pulling out of several drawbars in the cars, necessitating repairs and much switching before the trip could be continued. There were 22 big special cars in each of the strings.

Call Off Street Parade.

The delay in reaching the city made it impossible to establish the show at the grounds and get started in time for the street parade. The calling off of the parade was an evident disappointment to thousands of people, who began gathering about the downtown streets at an early hour to witness the spectacle. The circus has a reputation for a brilliant street pageant, and it was unfortunate that the trains were delayed so that the parade could not be held.

Within an hour after the first wagon reached the show grounds the cook ranges were steaming and the hungry workmen of the traveling city were lined up for breakfast. The 24 hour man was in here yesterday and bought the best in fresh vegetables and meats. The workmen of the show sleep and eat out of doors and that makes for appetite so that when breakfast is served before the grounds are dry or the sun wide eyed these sons of toil are hungry and it takes a lot to satisfy them. three times a day at places miles apart is one of the great problems of the circus business. This is a scene of which people never tire and there was the usual crowd of spectators gathered about the grounds all day.

Fine Animal Acts.

The fame of the Hagenbeck-Wallace shows rests primarily upon its great trained wild animal acts and the featured act of a large group of polar bears in a colossal steel girt arena it can truthfully be said they do everything but talk. Without noticeable suggestion from their trainer, these huge Arctic bear assemble in imposing pyramids, permit themselves to be harnessed and driven to carts; do tumbling and balancing stunts that make the performances of human acrobats seem tame affairs.

Then there are royal Bengal tigers riding monster elephants, Arabian stallions ridden by full grown African lions, leopards, in startling feats of equestrianism, zebra's ridden by English bulldogs, dog faced baboons controlling and riding Shetland ponies and no other show can present a similar single feature.

The ring acts are mostly European novelties and sensations. Two-thirds of the 350 performers in the program are announced as making their first appearance in America. The Hagenbeck-Wallace shows has always presented an exceptional and satisfactory list of acts in which refinement and novelty have been leading characteristics. In fact the tone and individuality of this big show have brought it to the first place in the circus world.

European Acrobats.

There are acrobats from Persia, riders from Italy, gymnasts from England and Germany, jugglers from Japan, dancers and equilibrists from France and specialists from 22 countries of the world. Equestrianism that tricks on the back of a running horse which have heretofore been considered difficult on the firm foundation of the ground, gymnasts that turn triple somersaults in mid-air before they alight upon swings or receiving hands, the elephants show amazing intelligence in their act, horses, dogs and ponies are educated beyond human belief.

An estimated crowd of 6,000 people are attending the afternoon performance and the doors for the night show open at 7, the performance starting promptly at 8 o'clock.

TURNERS WILL GO IN SPECIAL TRAIN

Big Representation of Tri-City Societies Will Attend Festival at Cincinnati, June 23.

The Turners of the three cities have arranged for a special train to take them to Cincinnati to attend the 30th annual gymnastic festival of the North American Turners which will be held in that city June 23. Nearly a hundred Turners from Davenport, including both a class of ladies and a class of men will attend the festival. From this city about 25 are expected to go and there will probably be as many more from Moline.

The special train will consist of three coaches and a baggage car, the latter being used to carry the apparatus which will be taken along from Davenport. There will be no special on the return trip and the Turners will have to return on regular trains.

AMUSEMENTS

The Elite.

(Eighteenth Street, North of Second Avenue.)

Elite Stock company, appearing each evening at 8:15, with matinees Tuesdays, Fridays and Sundays.

Mary Mannering in "The Independent Miss Gower."—Mary Mannering, the beautiful and always charming young Shubert star, comes to the Moline theatre Monday, May 31, in her latest success, "The Independent Miss Gower," a three act comedy from the pen of Emma Beatrice Brunner. The story concerns the doing of some members of the fashionable set, and shows the result of the independence of a spoiled child and her innocent but foolish acts. The scenes are laid in the Berkshires, amid a fashionable summer colony. The first act is in the library of a wealthy New Yorker, and the second and third shows an artist's studio. Miss Mannering is surrounded by a company of exceptionally prominent players. Her leading man is White Whitley, who has just closed a two years' engagement with Julia Marlowe in a similar capacity. Others in the cast are Helen Macbeth, Robert Conness, Dodson Mitchell, Mary Lash, Louise Rial, James Spottswood, Louise Sydmet, Carol Elliott and James A. Dixon.

SHOWING IS DISAPPOINTING

But Americans Will Do Better in Next Rifle Match.

Washington, May 28.—Everyone interested in indoor rifle shooting is disappointed at the showing made by the American team against the British and Australians in the three-cornered international indoor match with .22 caliber rifles. The match was shot with 50 men on a side and the British beat the Americans with a score of 14,582 against the American score of 14,179. The average per man on the American team was 283 and on the English team was

The accused men are charged with obtaining titles from the government to town lots in Muskogee by illegal methods. Bond in each case was fixed at $5,000, and was promptly furnished.

This is the second indictment for Governor Haskell in the Tulsa case. The first bills were dismissed on a technicality.

The fight before the grand jury had many sensational features. Numerous witnesses from Ohio and elsewhere testified. Twenty were on the stand yesterday.

In a few hours the pain was relieved and in three days the rheumatism was completely cured and I was at work." Sold by Otto Grotjan, 1501 Second avenue, Rock Island, Gust.
