Beer Possibility; But Couldn't Prove It.—Emil Speth, against whom a suit to secure an injunction restraining him from conducting his place of business at Little's Grove, owing to an alleged violation of the state's law, was dismissed by Judge House after the case had been given a thorough airing. It could not be conclusively proven that the liquid bottle goods he had been dispensing at his place were beer, although the same is said to have closely resembled the intoxicating beverage. Several witnesses were introduced by the state and Attorney H. B. Betty, who prosecuted the charge, but Judge House held that the evidence was insufficient to convict the man. Attorney Henry Vollmar appeared for Mr. Speth.

Number of Divorces Granted.—Six decrees of divorce, severing as many marriages were granted by Judge A. J. House in the district court in what was the first active day of this term of court. The cases were: Carrie Moore was granted a decree of separation from her husband, Daniel Moore, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. C. F. Compton was given marital freedom from his wife, Dean May Compton, securing his decree on the grounds of desertion. A decree was granted Winnifred D. Klein from her husband, Joseph M. Klein. The charge made against the defendant in this suit was that of desertion. Addie Bailey from her husband, John B. Bailey, on the grounds of statutory violations. She is granted the custody of their little daughter, Willie. Louisa Abel was granted a decree from her

CATARRH GERMS

Move Out When Hyomei Moves In.—No stomach dosing. HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) is made from the highest grade of eucalyptus, taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, and combined with the excellent antiseptics employed in the Listerian system.

In inland Australia the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs cannot live, and in consequence catarrh and consumption are unknown.

Breathe HYOMEI and get the very same, pleasant, healing, germ-killing air as you would get in the eucalyptus forests and kill the germs. HYOMEI is sold by Harper House Pharmacy and druggists everywhere at $1.00 a complete outfit.

An outfit consists of a bottle of HYOMEI, a hard rubber cough inhaler and simple instructions for use. The inhaler will last a lifetime, but bear in mind if you need another bottle of HYOMEI you can get it at druggists for only 50 cents. Guaranteed to cure catarrh, croup and throat troubles, or money back. Trial sample of Hyomei free to readers of The Argus. Address Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

What Women Are Looking For

A quick way! A safe way! An easy way to wash clothes!

That is what women are looking for. They will find it if they use P. AND G.—The White Naphtha Soap.

P. AND G. has changed the whole theory and practice of laundering. It has entirely done away with the necessity of boiling clothes.

It has reduced the hard work over the wash-board to a minimum.

And it has enabled tens of thousands of women to get through their washing in about half the time it once required.

MOLINE

Say Woman Is Impostor.—Carrying her 2-month-old child in her arms and walking from house to house seeking financial aid, Mrs. Cotton, a Moline widow, who states that her husband died here about four or five months ago is charged with misrepresenting facts concerning herself by the police and police matron of Moline. Mrs. Cotton first made her appearance in Rock Island, where she applied for help at the association building. According to Miss Rammer, the head of the home, the woman was offered work and free care of her child during the day time. This Mrs. Rammer claims the woman refused. Today Police Matron O'Connor received word through the police department that the woman is seeking aid in Moline. She is alleged to tell those from whom she seeks aid that she was presented with the blackening she endeavors to sell by Miss Rammer of Rock Island. This, Miss Rammer states, is untrue, she never having given the woman the outfit. Mrs. O'Connor requests that persons from whom the woman seeks aid should send the woman to her at the police station, as the woman has refused the offer of work and is thereby counted undeserving of help.

Moline After County Fair.—Moline merchants are agitating a movement whereby Moline would secure the Rock Island county fair permanently. Joslin having threatened to give up the enterprise owing to the poor crowd that has attended during the past week. It is estimated that this city could easily form a stock company, sell shares and build a fair grounds that would attract farmers from all over the county. The movement is as yet in its infancy and has not as yet reached a stage where anything definite can be stated. The business men of the city have been wanting the fair here for years but have never taken the initiative and gone after it in the proper manner.
