In view of Kinsella's recent threats. it is time for the Three-Eye league directors to get together and lay a few plans for the 1912 season. There is no reason on earth why the circuit next season should not be practically the same as it is today, for all of the cities of the league are good baseball cities and it is a certainty that the attend ance next year with the same circuit will far exceed that of this season Right now the attendance all over the league is picking up, and possibly be fore the end of the season-Sept. 17there will have been a large boost in the figures.
