

OLD SETTLER IS CALLED TO REST

Mrs. Frances Donovan of South Rock Island Dies After a Short Illness.

WAS TAKEN SICK FRIDAY

End Came Saturday Night and Was Caused by Heart Trouble and Infirmities of Age.

Mrs. Frances Donovan, 2020 Ninth street, South Rock Island, passed away Saturday evening at 7:50 o'clock after an illness lasting only since Friday morning. Heart failure augmented by the infirmities of age caused the death. Her children who idolized her as the ideal mother and life companion, were around her when the final spark took flight to the other and better world. Many friends and acquaintances sympathize with them in their loss of one respected and beloved for her fine qualities and her exceptionally endearing character.

NATIVE OF IRELAND.
Mrs. Donovan, whose maiden name was Frances McClelland, was born in Ireland in December, 1832. In 1855 she came to this country coming almost direct to Rock Island where she had lived since. She was among the oldest settlers here. A year after her arrival she was married to Daniel Donovan, who preceded her in death by some 30 years. Surviving Mrs. Donovan are the following children: Cornelius Donovan, Mrs. William Helderman, Mrs. Margaret Phaff, Jeremiah Donovan and Charles D. Donovan, all of South Rock Island, William Donovan of Bowling and Daniel Donovan, Jr., of this city.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY MORNING.
The funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from the home and immediately afterwards from St. Joseph's church. Dean J. J. Quinn will officiate. Burial will take place at Calvary cemetery.

MRS. CARRIE DRIFILL.
The remains of the late Mrs. Carrie Drifill, formerly of this city, who was fatally burned at Shafter, Texas, arrived at DeWitt, Iowa, this morning. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Webb, a sister of deceased.

13 KILLED AT CROSSING

In the early evening and was taking them back home, the round trip being completed, except for a mile drive, when the collision occurred. On the outgoing trip the hayrack contained 40 persons, but the rig was uncomfortably crowded and on the return trip an additional wagon was obtained. Eight of the party occupied second vehicle, which followed about a mile behind.

CORNER A DEATH TRAP.
A farmer, his wife and children were recently killed in a similar accident at the same crossing. During the last eight years nearly two dozen persons have lost their lives at the same place.

CONDUCTING INVESTIGATION.
Work virtually suspended today in Neenah while officers investigated the killing of 13 members of a hayrack party run over by a fast passenger train on the Northwestern railroad yesterday. The 18 survivors, eight of whom were unhurt, and three of whom may die of injuries, say the accident could have been avoided but for the signboard.

COMMISSION ACTS.
Madison, Wis., Sept. 25.—A thorough investigation of the crossing tragedy at Neenah yesterday which cost a loss of 13 lives has been ordered by the railroad commission. The accident is characterized as the worst grade crossing accident in the history of railroading in Wisconsin.

Do You Know

Why a diamond bought here is always admired?

Because we do not sell imperfect diamonds, hence every diamond that leaves this store is a gem with double the fire and brilliancy of a flawed one.

We will save you money on fine diamonds.

BRIBE LAWMAKERS IN LOCAL OPTION WAR?

Thomas A. Dean

C.A. Bond

Among those indicted by the legislative bribery grand jury in Ohio who are to be given early trials at Columbus are Senator Thomas A. Dean, of Fremont, O., and C. A. Bond, of Cleveland, a merchant. The indictments charge Dean and Bond with offering bribes to legislators in 1908 to oppose the county local option bill.

cigarettes in Minneapolis yesterday. In most tobacco stores even these credentials were unavailing. The clamping down of the lid followed the arrest last night of three clerks in cigar stores under the anti-cigarette law passed by the legislature of 1909. A test case will be made.

European Civilization.

The first pavements in Paris were laid about the year 1200; in London, about 1417. Berlin was without pavements far into the seventeenth century. No houses had glass windows before the twelfth century, and as late as the fourteenth century anything might be thrown out of the windows of Paris and London after three times calling out, "Look out!" Shirts were not known until the time of the crusaders, and the fine clothes which ladies and gentlemen wore were seldom washed, but only occasionally "scented." So late as 1550 there were to be found in Paris but three carriages, while in England coaches date from 1580. Forks were unknown, and table manners were exceedingly "unsightly."

Occupation of Idols.

Some strange occupations figure on Indian census schedules. At the last census in many villages of Haidarabad and the central provinces enthusiastic and devout enumerators returned the village shrines and temples as "occupied houses." The occupant was the idol, whose occupation was stated as "granting boons and blessings, living on contributions from the tenants." Other callings returned on the schedules include collectors of edible birds' nests, receivers of stolen goods, witches, wizards and cow poisoners. Pall Mall Gazette.

LARGE HATS BARRED IN CHICAGO CHURCH

Worshippers in Lexington Avenue Baptist Congregation Can See Clergyman.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—No more will mere man be crushed between mammoth hats abloom with flowers and rampant hat pins while attending services in the Lexington Avenue Baptist church. In the weekly calendar, issued yesterday, women are requested to remove their hats. "One would not expect to keep raised an umbrella in a house of worship," reads the request, "but some hats are almost as large and quite as great an obstruction to those seated behind them." The question of removing hats was advanced several weeks ago at meetings of the woman's guild of the church and was received favorably. So many women, however, failed to remove their hats that the request was printed in the church weekly paper. "It is a great innovation," declared Rev. M. P. Boynton, pastor of the church, last night. "We are meeting with all sorts of help from our women members. It really is a difficult thing to see from behind the large hats, and I think the wearers enjoy the service better because the removal of hats of others gives them an unobstructed view of the chancel, something they did not have prior to the movement."

TAFT TYRANT, SAYS GOVERNOR JOHNSON

California Executive Stirred by President's State Rights Attitude Is Insurgent.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Governor Hiram Johnson, speaking in the Long Beach auditorium, referred to President Taft as a tyrant and said it was time his rule should cease. "When the time comes," the governor said, "that any man feels he has the power to say to a state that it shall not govern itself, then it is time for the power of that man to be halted. It is the people's right and the people's duty to call that halt. The words of any man, be he national executive, state executive, or whatever he may be, are entitled to only so much consideration and weight as your reason will permit you to endow them with. And if, after we have listened to them and considered them, we find that they do not measure up, we are entitled to reject them just the same as if they were the words of any other citizen of our country." The governor is an insurgent republican.

CURIOUS ESKIMO LIVING.

The Pallet Rooms in Homes Entirely Devoid of Furniture. "Furniture is quite unknown in a common Eskimo home," writes the wife of the Danish governor of Greenland, Anna Blustup, in an article on "Eskimo Women in Greenland" in the Century.

The houses of the Eskimos are all built of stone and turf, with the windows opening toward the sun, the one entrance always being on the side that is least exposed to the wind. Along the back wall runs a platform, a pallet of boards, raised eighteen inches above the floor. It is from six to eight feet deep, and through its whole length it is divided into rooms or spaces of eight or ten feet. Each room is separated from the neighboring room by a partition of board or skin. An open passage runs the whole length of the house along the pallet rooms and serves for the traffic of all the inmates, but each pallet room claims for its own the bit of passageway adjoining. "Each pallet room is occupied by one family, and there they stay night and day. The best pallet room is the innermost and is always occupied by the owner of the house or the oldest of the house has more than one owner."

Gates' Wedding Wednesday.
Minneapolis, Sept. 25.—Charles Gates, son and heir of John W. Gates, who died recently in Paris, and Miss Florence Hopwood, daughter of Frank T. Hopwood of Minneapolis, will be married Wednesday in Uniontown, Pa., at the home of Miss Hopwood's uncle, Robert F. Hopwood. Miss Hopwood, her parents and a small party of friends last night were en route to Uniontown.

Worthy of the Highest.
The talk had turned to the orphan children of Henry Doane of Cherryville. The former resident asked the stage driver how they had prospered. "They've done first rate," was the hearty response. "Both of them have done first rate."

"Joe Eddie, he learned the carpenter's trade and has worked right along, and as for Emma Susan—well, I'll tell you what somebody from over the Center said to me only last week about her in conversation regarding her husband. "Emma Susan married Frank Baxter, one of the James Baxters. Well, that man from the Center, he said to me: 'I hear Frank Baxter's been chosen selectman. Well, I don't know but what he'll do all right for you,' he said; 'but, whether he's the man for the place or not, there's one thing certain—if ever a woman looked suitable to the position of selectman's wife and would do it credit Emma Susan Baxter's that woman?'
