Official Washington awaited last night the formal reply being drafted by the Huerta administration. Charge O'Shaughnessy reported he had conveyed both communications and had been assured with respect to the imprisoned deputies that no violence would be done them, but that they would be tried for sedition.

U. S. NOTE ENDS PARLEYS.

It is the second note of the American government, which is said to be only 150 words long, practically breaking off negotiations with Huerta, which is believed to have prompted Moheno's description "intemperate."
