WILLIAMSVILLE, Ill., Aug. 27, 1872. To the Editor of the State Register : I have received a circular signed by Joseph Ledlie, calling upon myself and all intransferable Democrats to meet at Springfield, on the 29th inst., to select delegates to attend the Blanton Duncan Louisville Convention. I wish to say, through your paper, to Mr. Ledlie and all my personal and political friends of Sangamon county, that the Democrats of Williamsville and vicinity are not transferable. We are not for sale. We are going to vote for the Baltimore nomi nees. We belong to the Democratic party. We do not belong to Blanton Bunean or Mr. Joseph Ledlie. There is not a Democrat in this township so ignorant but who knows that this Louisville movement is in the interests of, and the expenses are paid by Grant and his ring. One of my friends has told me positively that he was offered $200 to go to Louisville as a delegate, but would not accept it. I wish to inform my Democratic friends of Sangamon county tha Williams township is all right for Greeley and Brown. Yours, very respectfully, N. R. TAYLOR.
