SUSPENDER!

Patented Nov. 1st, 1870, by J. W. SMITH. This suspender is continuous from one buckle to the other. A peculiar turn i- made with the Webling, which obvisites the necessity of sewing, thus removing the possibility of its becoming disconnected by use. It is made of the best material and is much more serviceable than the usual style of suspender. Made by BAYE TATE SUSPENDER CO., Enceland St., Boston.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.-The President and Cabinet Ministers returned the visit of King Kalakaua to-day. Gen. Sherman, who arrived here this morning, accompanied the party and spent some time in conversation with the King. Card receptions and other official courtesies will be commenced to-morrow. The King will the flames to Gurley's billiard hall, which, visit congress on Friday.

The centennial tca party, in the rotunda of the capitol, attracted a crowded assem-bly. Among the guests were the Presi-dent and Cabinet, with King Kalakaua, the Judges of the Supreme Court, foreign ministers, officers of the army and navy and Gen. Sherman. Secretary Robeson delivered an address in the old hall of representatives.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 16 .- The Herald says frauds of great magnitude have been store, whose loss reaches $6,000; insured suspended, pending investigation at Wash-and forgery in the election returns before day, the spirit of turbulence prevails as also, and the fire left the inhabitants in vigorously as ever.

The White Leaguers are in general council to-night, and, although it is not easy to learn anything of their proceedings, it is well understood that they have met to discuss the emergency and to perfect their plans for determined action when the proper time arrives. There are now in the city 21 companies of United States infantry, and one company of artillery. About one half the force is stationed within five minutes' force is stationed within five minutes' Boston, Dec. 16.—The losses by the march of the state house. Gen Emory's Plympton and Warcham street fire aggreinstructions are to use his troops only in gate $590,000; insurance, as far as known, case of a riotous disturbance or a violent $141,000. The losses by the Charleston demonstration upon the state administra- fire aggregate $145,000; insurance $60, tion or state property, when he will act promptly and determinedly to repel the ofenders. Under no pretext, however, will he permit the use of the troops to protect state property while peace prevails.

Leaguers say that they will oppose any vio-lent demonstraton at present. They think that if it occurs at all it will be in January. when, if the legislature selected by the re turning board and containing a majority of Republicans, attempts to organize without admitting the Democrats now claimed to belong to that body, and whose election the board refused to concede, there may be made a forcible effort by the leaguers to seat the latter. WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The Attorney General reports the condition of affairs in the Southern States unchanged. New Orleans remains quiet, though there are con-stant apprehensions of trouble.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 16,-The Returning Board, after receiving another protest from the Conservatives, which they hoped would be the last, went into executive session to consider the protested parishes. The boys of the high school to-day refused to allow colored boys to enter school. The pupils having been told that the Superintendent could settle the question and prevent the admission of colored boys, they appointed a committee to call on the Superintendent. He stated that he was only an executive officer; that the whole matter was in the hands of the School Board, and he believed the Board was bound by the general school law, which made no Tetter, Itching of the Head, and all Eruptions of be none of the colored boys would be able W. LOUISVILLE, Dec. 16—A special to the Courier-Journal says Judge McManna, of the Frankfort circuit court, to-day decided in the case of Thomas C. Jones, acting circk of the Kentucky court of appeals, that the decision of the state contesting board vacating the office, was incompetent and void. It will be remembered that Jones was declared ineligible by the office and was a few days since presented before the circuit court for usurpation. His attorneys entered a demarrer to the jurisdiction of the contesting board and the demurrer was to-day sustained. The District-Attorney appealed it to the court of

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec, 15.-In argu ing a case in the supreme court, to-day, Ed. Cooper, whom A. Aultman, Superintendent of the Duquesne Coal Works, located in the Thirty-seventh ward of this city, while making his usual tour of learners in the characteristic of the coal and the coal a inspection in the mines, was fired on by a party unknown, and fatally wounded. The miners employed by the company have been on a strike for some time, and consequently the pit was unoccupied at the time the assault was made.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 16.—A schooner, supposed to be the Robert Peter, of Providence, capsized in a squall Monday night, and the crew of five men perished, all leaving families.

St. Louis, Dec. 16 .- An unknown man, was found in an empty huckster's wagon at the corner of Seventh street and Cass ayenue this morning. The man was sent to the hospital, but died on his way there. His name was Rosbury NcNamara, of Belleville. He had been on a spree and evidently died of apoplexy. He was not injured in any way.

Another unknown man was found dead on the sidewalk corner Main and Poplar streets to-day. Nothing was learned as to the cause of his death.
