JAMAICA GINGER.

BEWARE OF WORTHLESS IMITATIONS AND COUNTERFEITS.

BROWN'S

ESSENCE OF

JAMAICA GINGER

PREPARED ONLY BY

Frederick Brown

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS RELIABLE PREPARATION, one of the oldest of American Pharmaceutical Products, still maintains its enviable reputation, and finds a steadily increasing sale without advertising, and in spite of piracy.

Its high reputation has tempted the cupidity of parties, whose only excuse for their unfair simulations, exists in the great popularity of the original, and accidental similarity of their names.

BROWN'S ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER is protected by the private Proprietary Stamp of the manufacturer, which is incorporated with the steel plate engraving,

The attention of Druggists and the trade generally, is called to the Price List of

ENGLISH & FRENCH MEDICINES AND PHARMACEUTICAL PREPARATIONS,

Which will be mailed on application.

FREDERICK BROWN,

[Established 1822]

IMPORTING, MANUFACTURING AND DISPENSING CHEMIST,

North East Corner Fifth and Chestnut Streets PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Brown's GINGER will be found invaluable in all cases of Cramp or other disorders caused by change of water or bad water, and a few drops used regularly by travelers will usually act as a Preventive, and ward off such attacks. To the aged and those recovering from illness, a small quantity with a little sweetened water will be found to give strength and refreshment: the Ginger having no reaction, which is the great objection to the use of alcoholic stimulants. Producing all the good effects of a Mustard Plaster, (without the possibility of blistering the skin,) its application on flannel is most efficacious. And in the case of persons predisposed to Rheumatism and Gouty Affections, it is of great service, (used to rub with.)

The Roach.

How doth the little rooster roach
Around the sanctum roam;
He eats our paste and drinks our ink,
And makes himself at home
But editors should not resent
The pretty creature's whim;
Their able pens were never meant
To put a head on him.

The Sneeze.

What a moment! what a doubt!
All my nose is inside out;
All my thrilling, tickling caustic,
Pyramid rhinoscerostic,
Wants to sneeze, and cannot do it,
How it yearns me, stings me, thrills me!
Now says, "Sneeze, you goose, get through it."
Shee—shee—oh! 'tis most del—ishi—

NOTES HERE AND THERE.

—A Yankee grave digger, who buried a Mr. Button, put the following item in the bill which he sent to Mrs. Button: "To make one Button-hole, $5."

—Cleveland young women write comments on the margin of library novels they read. One emotional creature writes "the pangs of love is grate, i have ben there my self."

—A love-sick girl who had marrried against her father's wishes, came back after the first conjugal tiff. "Kill the prodigal," exclaimed the father, "the calf has returned."

—The Joliet Sun makes us all proud when it says: "There isn't a printer in the penitentiary, while almost every other trade and profession known is represented by one or more culprits."

—The fourth principal meridian line rues north from the mouth of the Illinois river to Lake Superior. Its base line crosses it at Beardstown. All of Wisconsin, Minnesota east of the Mississippi, and Illinois north of the Illinois river and west of the third principal meridian, are surveyed from this meridian, —Less tobacco than usual will be grown in the lower Connecticut valley this year. The light Connecticut seed-leaf has gone out of fashion somewhat, and prices for last season's crop have ruled low. The dark Pennsylvania weed commands the market, being in demand for the best "Havana" brands.

—Notes the Buffalo Express: "Tidies are going out of fashion, says an exchange, and if it be true—if we are to sink into a rocking-chair after this without tearing a lace dog from the back of it, or settle down on a sofa and not feel a yellow farmhouse humping up against the end of our spinal column, then an evening's tete-a-tete will seem as odd as a man with his mustache shaved off."

—It is told of Pope Pius IX., that he recently noticed a young man studying a painting in the Vatican gallery: "You are of the academy, my son?" he asked, "No, your holiness, I am too poor." "Go and put your name down, and I will pay the fees." "But, your holiness, I am a protestant," "The academy is for artists," quietly replied the Pope; "that is enough for me."

—"Was it a nice party?" asked Mrs. Whifet, when her daughter returned at 3 p. m, from Mrs. Struggles' "at home." "No, awful," said the Whifet girl, yawning and lifting up her skirts to examine the braid on the bottom: "awful ma; the chicken salad was made of veal; there was a lot of queer sticks there, nobody was dressed decent, there was no oysters, the champagne gave out, and some awkward idiot walked up the back breadth of my dress as far as the waist, and then only stopped because he was too stupid to climb."

Where's Beveridge?

From the Chicago Tribune.

It is a good while since anything has been heard from ex-Gov. Beveridge. His friends are getting a little anxious about him, fearing that the good man may have gone up like "prophet Elijah." If any one sees scraps of an old flag without an owner, or a fragment of bloody shirt, he had better report the fact.

From the N. Y. World.

The question, "O, shame, where is thy blush?" has been answered in part by Mr. George F. Hoar's declining a reception and dinner tendered him for his share of the work in counting in Hayes.
