ESCAPED FROM THE ASYLUM.

The Chicago Book Thief Writes a Letter to the Asylum Superintendent and Skips.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Otto Funk, alias J. A. Talbot, alias Otto Boehme, the notorious public library thief and university tunnel crank, who was adjudged insane and sent to the Elgin asylum, has made his escape from that institution. His apartment was located on the ground floor of the asylum. Not being regarded dangerous or violent, his window was not barred. He cautiously hoisted the lower sash and jumped out, leaving behind a letter to Dr. Kilbourne, the medical superintendent.

Funk announced his arrival in this city at the office of his former attorney, Mr. Frank D. Turner. To his lawyer he protested against returning to the asylum, and declared he was not insane and never had been. He boldly asserted he would prefer the jail to the asylum if so be that he must be incarcerated again. Then he sat down and inflicted a long epistle to Dr. Kilbourne expressing his opinion of the management of the Elgin institution, referring particularly to his own treatment there. He complained of having been bulldozed by the doctor, who detained him simply on the ground that there was "something mysterious" about him; and requests that his discharge and personal effects be forwarded to him.

In answer to inquiries, Funk said he had never been insane, but was a little peculiar perhaps. The plea of insanity, he said, was set up by his lawyer, in spite of his protests, as the surest method of securing immunity from punishment at his trial. The books from the public library, he says, he merely borrowed to satisfy his passion for learning, and intended to return every one of them. The tunneling at the Chicago university he explains by saying it was done to substantiate the plea of insanity set up by his lawyer. Funk indeed appears quite rational now.

ALARMING INCREASE OF SMALL-POX.

Superstitious People Who Believe in Saints but Not in Vaccination.

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—Some idea of the increase of small-pox may be gathered from the fact that this week there have been 159 deaths, or two more than during the whole of last week, with two days to run, which will probably bring up the total death rate to 150. There were twenty-nine deaths Thursday. Saturday morning the Roman Catholic bishop of Montreal had a conference with the superior of the Gray nuns and the Sisters of Providence and gave them his authority to allow their nuns to assist the board of health in their work by a house to house inspection. Some idea of the superstition of the lower class of French Canadians may be gathered from the fact that pictures of St. Roch, with a prayer on the back, are having a rapid sale as a protector from small pox. They wear them at their work, firmly believing in the efficacy of the protection, though they have no faith in vaccination. When they pass a placarded house the picture-card is held up and the prayer muttered. They catch the small-pox all the same. There are some hundred cases in St. Cunegonde and several in Griffintown. The Gray nuns have discovered over fifty cases during the last four or five days.

A Threatening Fire Subdued.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 21.—Fire broke out about 8 o'clock Saturday morning under the flooring of the pier of the Royal Netherland Steamship line, at the foot of York street. It reached the roof from the outside, and burned furiously for an hour, when it was got under control. The steamer Scholten, which was to leave at 2 p. m., was lying at the pier, but was hauled out in safety. Fourteen tugs, each throwing a stream of water, and several engines got the fire under control at 9 o'clock. The damage to freight is slight the contents of the pier having nearly all been loaded on the Scholten. The pier being largely of iron is not much damaged. During the fire 112 Western Union, 18 Pennsylvania railroad and 54 telephone wires were broken. The cable opposite the pier was also broken. The only telegraphic communication at present from New Jersey to New York is via Weehawken. The loss is stated to be $50,000.

Bacon is a Republican.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 21.—The Post says: Mr. Bacon, the president's brother-in-law, who was appointed superintendent of the Toledo, Ohio, public building Friday is a republican. He was one of several applicants for the place, and was strongly indorsed, but it is stated that all the other candidates agreed that he would be the best man for the position if he would accept it. Two years ago Representative Hurd recommended him on account of his capability for the position to which he has been appointed, despite the fact that he was of opposite politics. When his name was brought, some two or three months ago, to the attention of the president, the latter positively refused to appoint, and not until he was convinced that Mr. Bacon was the best man for the place did he consent to the appointment.

The New Election Law.

OTTAWA Ills., Sept. 21.—The supreme court is to sit on the questions raised in the test cases made up to determine the constitutionality of the new election law, and whether the coming election was a general election, and no decision can be rendered until Judge Dickey's successor is elected. Tuesday this fact became known when Judge Mulkey announced the continuance of the case, which is an agreed one which Judge Prendergast heard and decided at Chicago, and which was appealed by the Chicago association of that city.

Malcolm Hay in a Critical Condition.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 21.—Malcolm Hay, ex-first assistant postmaster general, is lying at his home in Allegheny City, in a prostrated condition. He arrived on a special train Friday night from Cresson springs, where he has been for several weeks. A car specially prepared for his accommodation brought him home. He was carried from the hotel to the car on a stretcher and placed in a bed. On arrival here he was again placed on a stretcher and tenderly cared for by his friends. His condition is regarded as critical.

Mill Hands Weakening.

NORWICH, Conn., Sept. 21.—The majority of the weavers of the Fall mill, now that the mills have shut down, have petitioned the company to take them back and have signed a paper to the effect that they will cause no more trouble. The company will therefore start up the weaver-room Monday morning, and if they find the weavers acting in good faith they will start all the mills on Tuesday.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Mrs. Dr. Keck will be in personal attendance at her Medical Infirmary Sept. 3d, and for the following ten days.

Second Letter from an Illinois Lady,

CONFIRMING A REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

SEYMOUR, Champaign Co., Ill., June, 1885.

I want the public to know how I have improved under the treatment and by the advice of Mrs. Dr. Keck. To the surprise of friends and neighbors I am up and doing a part of my house work, after so many years of inability to do anything and so much suffering. Can be up all day without lying down to rest even; those terrible bad feelings have nearly all left me; I am fleshier than ever in my life before, have a good appetite, and feel as though life is worth the living. I am not troubled any more with that cold clammy sweat and have no more long, sleepless nights, but can go to sleep as soon as I retire, and sleep well all night. I took the train at Seymour and went to Champaign to see Dr. Keck, a short time ago, returning home the same day, and walked from the depot an eighth of a mile to our house; this was a great thing for one who had for years been pronounced hopelessly incurable, Mrs. Keck being the only one who gave me hope. People whom I have not seen during the years that I was confined to my bed now stare at me as they would one from the dead. I earnestly advise the afflicted to go to Mrs Keck, and by following her advise implicitly, as I have done, they will, without doubt, be greatly benefitted.

Respectfully, MRS. WM. ANDERSON.

MRS. DR. KECK'S INFIRMARY,

The Doctor's Remarkable Success warrants the most skeptical in applying for information, which will be cheerfully given; in the treatment of nearly 2,000 patients in the past year, our record shows a greater per centage of benefits than the same number under any other system of medicine. Remember this fact.

The Permanency of Her Cures are Proved by the following Letters, and many Similar Letters could be Given, did Space Permit;

Read Two Letters From One Lady.

FIRST LETTER, 1882.

PESOTUM, Champaign County, Ill., August 17, 1882.

Dear Mrs. Dr. Keck: Having been four months under your treatment and being very much improved, I will tell the public about my case. I was very weak and thin in flesh. Was obliged to lie down through the day, and could scarcely walk about the house; my lungs were very weak, and pained me a good deal, and for a year and a half I had roughed and raised a good deal of matter. I had no appetite and a weak stomach with bloating and much pain in my back and derangement of bowels. I am now much stronger, have gained over thirteen pounds in flesh, can walk a mile and a half easily without fatigue, and feel well in every way; my cough has left me, and I have no pain at all in my lungs, back or anywhere; I have a good appetite and digestion, and consider my improvement very great under your treatment; my former doctor said I could live but a very few months, as my case was consumption, and so we all thought, but you have helped me very rapidly and in every way. Your friend,

ANNA ADAIR.

SECOND LETTER. 1885.

PESOTUM, Champaign County, Ill., August 4, 1885.

To the Public: I wish to state that in the summer of 1882, I was treated by Mrs. Dr. Keck for consumption and was cured sound and well. My treatment occupied about eight months. Since my recovery I have become very rugged and strong, and I now enjoy good health.

Respectfully, ANNA ADAIR.

Second Letter from an Iowa Lady.

Confirming a Remarkable Recovery.

To the Public: The benefits I received at the hands of Mrs. Dr. Keck last year still remain with me. And other permanent benefits have also been added to them by further following her advice. I now enjoy better health than I have known in many years. There is no return of the troubles from which Dr. Keck rescued me, and which were enumerated in my card of last October. Nor is there of the tumor she removed in March, 1884. I am doing all my housework, and on July 13th I took up my carpet, scrubbed two floors, churned, put three meals with all other household duties and felt no bad result. And most thankful to Him Providence who has made Mrs. Keck His powerful instrument for good. Respectfully,

MRS. C. E. BAER, wife of A. J. Barr.
Webster City, Ia., July 21, 1885.

A Late Witness.

I have been treated by Dr. Mrs. Keck and the benefits I have received from her advice and treatment are undeniable; I had suffered from catarrh for over twenty years; it had effected my whole system very badly. I had polypus in my nostrils so I could not breathe through my nose; these she removed by medicine not having performed any operation, I can now breathe freely through my nose. My sense of smell is now returning, which left me twenty years ago, she has done more toward removing my catarrh than all the physicians I ever had; my brain was diseased and I had been insane; was at Independence asylum for eight months, and I feel sure I would be there now if it were not for the benefits I received from her; I do not now have the asthma that I have suffered with for four years, neither do I suffer with the misery in my left side and spleen. My kidneys were badly diseased; I was bloated and my liver was affected; I coughed a great deal and now those symptoms have mostly disappeared; I can highly recommend this lady as a physician. WILLIAM W. PUNK.
Webster City, May 20 '85.

BLUE GRASS, Scott County, Iowa, November 28, 1885.

For the benefit of the public I am willing to make known an account of my long sickness. I suffered for many years from catarrh, also from the most severe headaches, dizziness and ear troubles and also daily chills, and catarrh fever and lasting cold sweats, and these same occurring every night so that I became so nervous I could not sleep. I suffered from chronic dyspepsia and stomach complaint; my liver and kidneys were disordered; my lungs so weak that my breath was short and painful, and my heart also greatly troubled me. I had no appetite and was constantly suffering from flatulency and from a bitter taste in the mouth, and all this time my hands and feet were covered with a cold sweat. When I placed myself in your care I had been for nine weeks bed-ridden and for six month unable to go to town; and for two years too weak to do any work. I had employed a number of the best physicians, but grew constantly weaker. My father-in-law (Mr. Schlichting) called on you on December 26, 1885, and you visited me at my home. You asserted that you could cure me if I followed your directions; I did so, and in eight weeks I was able to call on you in Davenport, and you have visited me only once.

All the above named symptoms have entirely disappeared, and with joy and gratitude I acknowledge the great good you have done me. I feel like a new man, strong and sound, am able to go out and work daily, even in the coldest weather, and for all this I am indebted to Mrs. Dr. Keck. Ever your friend. JOHN ROENNEKEMP.
