PARNELL'S MANIFESTO.

A SCATHING ADDRESS TO THE VOTERS OF ENGLAND AND IRELAND.

The Liberal Party Handled Without Gloves—The Latest from the Seat of War—The British in Burmah—Cable Flashes.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Mr. Parnell's manifesto to the Irish voters was published Saturday, and signed by the following Irish members of parliament: T. P. O'Connor, Justin McCarthy, Thomas Sexton, T. M. Healy, W. K. Redmond, J. O. Kelly, and J. G. Biggar. It charges the Liberals with appealing to the electors under false pretences, and asserts that they have flagrantly violated solemn pledges given to Ireland's representatives. The manifesto also denounces coercion practices as most brutal. Under the coercion law it charges that juries were packed to an unprecedented extent, and in a most shameless manner. Innocent men were hanged or sent to a living death in penal servitude. Twelve hundred men had been imprisoned without trial. Ladies were convicted under an obscure act directed against the degraded sex. The press and public meetings were temporarily suppressed as if Ireland was Poland, and the administration of England a Russian autocracy. Representatives of Liberalism in Ireland were men like Foster and Spencer who have left more memories in Ireland than any statesmen of the century.

If the long delayed triumph had not expelled the Liberals, Spencer would still be in Dublin castle and coercion triumphant in Ireland. The landlords instead of making reasonable abatements which the depression in agriculture demanded and which every landlord in England and Scotland conceded, would be evicting tenants wholesale, Earl Spencer constantly encouraging them; the police, the soldiery and the coercion magistracy filled jails assisting. Under the name of free schools the boards were making insidious attempts to crush religious education and establish a state of tyranny and intolerance wherewith to pester consciences. The reform procedure was a new gag in its application to all opponents of its radicalism in the house of commons, despotic in its methods and a mean machinery. The act of 1881 was a specious demand for a majority against the Irish party and means a power to crush the anti-Radicals in parliament first, and then propose to Ireland some scheme which is doomed to failure, because it will be unsuitable to the wants of the people, and finally force them down to a halting measure of self-government, by the same methods, a wholesale prison, by which durability was bought for the impracticable land act of 1881. Therefore we feel bound to advise no confidence in the Liberal or Radical party, and as far as possible prevent the government of the empire falling into the hands of a party so perfidious, treacherous and incompetent. The Irish Nationalists will not vote for Liberal or Radical except in some few cases in which a courageous fealty to the Irish cause in the last parliament has given guarantee that the candidate does not belong to the servile, cowardly and unprincipled herd who break every pledge and violate every principle in obedience to the call of a whip or the mandate of a caucus.

The executive committee have sent a number of those documents to each of the branches of the National league throughout Great Britain and Ireland in the names the committee.

Preparing for a Great Battle.

VIENNA, Nov. 23.—Dispatches from Shumla state that only a few shots were exchanged between the opposing forces at that point Friday. Prince Alexander has determined to attack the Servian positions. Both sides are hurrying reinforcements forward with all possible speed to the scene of conflict. The ground on which the recent engagements were fought is still strewn with the dead and dying, the latter being wholly unattended and in abadoned to their fate.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Advices from Constantinople are to the effect that the porte is continuing its war preparations with vigor. Turkish troops and batteries of artillery are continually arriving at Salonica, and the authorities are maintaining the greatest secrecy in regard to the numerical strength of the forces, the number of guns, and the eventual movements of the large army being massed in that vicinity.

It is reported that the Turkish privy council has decided to send Djevat Pasha to Philippopolis as temporary governor of Eastern Roumelia, thus virtually restoring the status quo ante. The Balkan conference will meet to consider this decision of the Turkish council. The Standard's Vienna correspondent says that some of the powers, including Austria, oppose Turkish mediation and insist that the conference itself decide the Balkan question.

A dispatch from Paris to The Times says: "Greece is expected to open hostilities by means of a naval exploit almost hourly."

A Steamship Ashore.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A cable dispatch to the Boston agents of the Leyland line Saturday announced that the steamship Ibernian, which sailed from this port Nov. 16 for Liverpool went ashore in a storm at Crook Haven, on the coast of Ireland. Nothing has yet been learned about the fate of the crew of fifty men, but it is stated that the vessel and cargo will probably be a total loss. No further details have yet been received.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Spanish steamer Guillermo is reported to have been sunk off New Brighton, below Birkenhead by collision with the British steamer Roma.

The Congo a Worthless Country.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—M. de Brazza admits that the French Congo country is worthless and is likely to remain so for years. The Ogowai, he says, is not navigable, and railways must be built before trade will be possible. De Brazza's appearance itself tells an eloquent tale about the climate of Congo. His health has been shattered by fever and the abuse of quinine. His cheeks are haggard and his eyes have a glaring and wolfish expression.

Criticising Cleveland's Silver Scheme.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Economist referring to the alleged plan of President Cleveland for coining new silver dollars as a metallic equivalent to the gold one, says: "The present condition of silver coinage in the states is bad enough, in all conscience, but President Cleveland's plan, instead of improving it, would only make it worse than ever."

The British in Burmah.

RANGOON, Nov. 23.—Latest advices state that the British Burmese expedition captured Magwe. Among the prisoners taken were three Italians. Gen. Prendergast has reached Mimbo. His will proceed thence to Lagaing, where the forces of King Thoebaw will make a determined resistance, and severe fighting is expected.

The big price of $2,700 was paid for a hunting dog at High Point, N. C., the other day.

VIGNAUX'S VICTORY.

The French Champion Defeats Slosson in a Wonderful Game.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The disappointment of the Chicagoans Friday night at the defeat of Slosson was more than made up to the vast audience by the game played by Vignaux, the most wonderful on record. The fact that Slosson was the favorite with the 2,000 people present at the outset of the game only added chagrin to the excitement which followed. Professionals, outside of New York and Chicago, claim that this balk-line tournament was arranged to lay the French champion on the shelf, but neither the game nor his years nor his surroundings seem to have any other than a good effect on the foreign gentleman whose appearance showed him to be a bundle of nerves, skill and politeness. He added wonder to wonder from beginning to end. His average was seventy-five points to the inning, closing out his score of 600 in eight innings. His highest runs were 174 and 135. There was almost breathless silence when he closed his game on a run of eighty-nine. He was congratulated by his adversary. Mr. Slosson, while his playing was not as good as usual, would have met with sure defeat even at his best by Vignaux Friday night, as Vignaux proved a prodigy in the art of billiards.

Following is the score: Vignaux—9, 2, 105, 32, 93, 0, 174, 89—630. Slosson—77, 24, 1, 0, 2, 7, 25—136. Average—Vignaux, 75; Slosson, 19.57. Best runs—Vignaux, 105, 174, 89, 89; Slosson, 77. Slosson has now won two and lost one; Schaefler has lost two and won one, and Vignaux has won two and lost one.

A TIE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The great billiard tournament ended in a tie Saturday night, when Schaefer won the final game from Slosson. It is thought that arrangements can be made to secure Battery D for Tuesday night, in order to play off the ties with one game each of 800 points. The score Saturday night by innings was as follows:

Schaefer, black—1, 2, 0, 4, 17, 1, 0, 2, 34, 74, 0, 26, 107, 0, 42, 1, 0, 114, 0, 37, 40, 2, 1, 42, 10, 4, 9. Average 22 6-27. High runs 107, 114.

Slosson, white—63, 17, 0, 1, 13, 0, 27, 44, 33, 23, 36, 36, 28, 1, 7, 0, 16, 27, 15, 27, 12, 30, 54, 20, 2, 4, 2. Total 492. Average 18 24-26. High run 63.

Mr. Mitchell Makes a Statement.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—Refering to the report that seven ex-Democrats had voted for him on his agreement to support Cleveland's administration, Senator-elect Mitchell made the following statement to the legislature Thursday:

If I supposed for one moment that any Democratic representative on this floor had cast his vote for me under the impression that it would have the effect of changing me from a Republican to a Democrat, of course I would not feel complimented, but I have every reason to know that no gentleman, no member of the Democratic party, cast his vote for me unless any such impression. It is due, however, that I should state that I recognize the fact, and I am now about to proclaimed from the house-top that which I have ever proclaimed in the senate-chamber, I recognize the fact that at the late national election the Democratic party prevailed and elected its president, and what I have to say is this, that I shall not conceive it to be a part of my duty as a senator to go to Washington and make factious opposition to the administration now in power. The nominations of the president of the United States, if they are worthy men, shall receive my vote for confirmation unless there is an attempt on the part of the president of the United States to make appointments that will impinge upon any tenure of office, and should he do so, then I would oppose the president of the United States.

Preparing for Congressional Work.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 23.—The indications now are that if ex-Speaker Carlisle entirely recovers from his late indisposition by that time, he will begin work upon the new house committee list next week. It is conceded on all sides that Mr. Carlisle will receive the entire Democratic vote for speaker of the Forty-ninth congress. Should the preparation of the committee list be concluded—or even partially concluded—prior to the assembling of congress, the chances for the beginning of active work before the holiday recess, are good. The question of annulling the rules is still an important factor in the matter, however, and if, when the members all arrive, the indications point to a desire on the part of a majority to distribute the regular appropriation bills, the speaker will doubtless defer his announcement of the committees until the question of modification of the rules is fully disposed of.

Killed by a Boiler Explosion.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 23.—The boiler of a steam grist-mill, owned by J. F. McLaughlin, exploded at Richland City, Ind., Friday afternoon, scalding four men, named Hilebrall, Jones, Bennett, and Fortune, the first of whom will probably die. The force of the explosion hurled the boiler through the walls of the mill and through a store owned by McLaughlin, where it killed Mrs. McLaughlin in its flight, thence through a blacksmith-shop, where Charles Fisher was struck and killed, and thence through a large barn sixty feet away. The boiler was finally stopped by a tree 300 feet from where it started. Another man was slightly hurt by a brick. The blacksmith-shop was demolished.

The Silver Question.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 23.—A special to the Cincinnati Enquirer says: It looks now as if the silver question will be the paramount feature of the session. The Protectionists know they have the senate, and for this reason feel they can check hostile legislation. The protectionists in congress will be glad to have the silver question protracted, for it keeps the tariff in the background. The influence of the east will be exerted with method to get the Bland silver law repealed. The New York and New England banks have had prepared already bulky petitions, which will come to both houses as soon as the bodies convene.

A stable of fifty Clydesdale pedigree horses have just arrived at New York from England.

If it were possible to get the testimony of the multitude who have used HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA for debility, languor, lassitude, and that general feeling of stupidity, weariness and exhaustion which every one feels during this season, we should be able to present to our readers such an overwhelming mass of commendatory messages, that the few who have not tried it would do so at once. It is a positive fact, and has been so effectually demonstrated that no one to-day denies it, that Hood's Sarsaparilla contains more real medicinal value than any article before the people.

What a Man Did with Kidney Complaint

DRACUT, MASS.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.:

Dear Sirs—I have suffered from kidney complaint and biliousness for fifteen years. Have tried everything and never got any good. Last January, before I commenced taking HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, everything I ate bloated me all up, pain in my chest and arms, headache and dizzy. I could not get up without feeling weary and all tagged out. Many mornings I was obliged to lie down on the lounge. To do any work seemed almost impossible. Have taken two bottles. The backache, dizziness, pain in my chest and arms, and that feeling of intense weariness are all gone. I can eat anything and it does not press me at all. Feel just like work; in fact, like a new man. Can heartily recommend HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and hope all who desire to know anything about it will come to me and ask what I think of it. Very truly yours,

JONATHAN J. COBURN.
