THE ARIZONA KICKER.
A Few Trenchant Remarks Clipped by The Detroit Free Press.

It DIDN'T FAIL.—Last Saturday the Granite Hill Savings bank, of this town, failed to open its doors, and a notice was posted up to the effect that it would open in about a week and pay at least fifty cents on the dollar. The boys got together about 10 o'clock, and Mr. Duggan, the president, was invited to explain matters. He said he hadn't time just then, but after a rope had been passed over his neck he explained that the failure had been caused by overconfidence in silver mine investments. The boys in doubt, then, and Mr. Duggan was taken to the bank and compelled to show his books and his cash. After figuring for about two hours a committee found that there was money enough to pay every depositor $1.47 on the dollar, and the bank would in a few days be in a position to do so, but simply going out of business. Mr. Duggan had calculated on a little scoop, but the boys got ahead of him. He left town on foot, carrying a spare paper collar in his hand pocket, and he will probably look for some hayseed town to which to beg for a new one. We have a failure here in trade now and then, but we permit no bank to fail unless all depositors are first paid in full.

FOR OTHER FIELDS.—Ex-Judge Jim Harrison, who has been a familiar figure on our streets for the last year, and who was supposed to be a retired flour merchant from Minnesota, out here to cure his asthma, is with us no more. He departed yesterday in charge of a detective, and will bring up at Joliet at the end of his journey.

Judge Jim objected to the course of the Kicker. He didn't like, as one friend, when he saw us walking to the front he felt it a personal hit at himself. He threw out his hints that we were trying to run the town, but that he would make us chew cactus before he was done with us. One day two weeks ago he tried to force us into a personal quarrel, and we learned afterward that he had a Derringer in his pants pocket and snapped at us, but it failed to go off. Believing that we could run the town better than the judge, we began hunting up his pedigree, and in the course of a week we discovered that he was an "escaped gentleman" from the state prison. In any way saying that he owed us one, but he has seven years yet to serve we shan't begin to worry for some time yet.

STILL HARPING.—Our jealous minded competitor is still giving himself away every time he writes a scolding sheet, and such subscribers as he has laid out for the sole object of seeing what he says about us. The hair that broke the camell's back was our private graveyard. When we went to an expense of $60 to remove the seven bodies to a nice little plot of ground, and to identify each grave, he went to town to his old quarry. He had no private graveyard. He went out to shoot somebody, but was knocked into the sand and his gun confiscated. He hasn't the nerve to even throw mud at an Indian.

Poor old man! Poor old contemporary! Your sense went down kerchuck when The Kicker was established, and you have been crawling in the moonlight ever since. Blow away if it does your soul good. It doesn't hurt us any, and but for this escape valve you might take rat poison or roll into the river.—Detroit Free Press.

Who Does Mean? "100 does one dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations taken according to directions are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.
