SPRING OPENING

OF THE

LONDON CLOTHING CO.,

WILL TAKE PLACE.

This being our first Spring Opening, we will offer a new and novel inducement and will have a great surprise for all to commemorate the occasion. Call and learn particulars. Remember the date, SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1891.

Respectfully,

LONDON CLOTHING COMPANY.

BAYARD'S DAUGHTER A COUNTESS.

Miss Ellen Married to the Swedish Count Lewenhaupt.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 3.—R. A. Lewenhaupt, a young draughtsmans in the employ of the Harlan & Hollingsworth company, of this city, and who is a count when at home, married at noon yesterday Ellen, daughter of the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard. The ceremony took place at Delamore Place, the Bayard homestead, in the western suburbs of the city. Every effort had been made to make the affair as private as possible, although there were many guests.

The Bride's Costume.

The Right Rev. Bishop Leighton Coleman officiated. The bride wore a princess gown of heavy ivory white bengaline, with a very long round train, trimmed with embroidered mouslin de soie. She wore orange blossoms and a long tulle veil. Her jewels were diamonds and pearls. The groom was in full Swedish court costume. After the wedding an informal reception followed, and the couple then started on their wedding trip. They will immediately go into their own home when they return. The wedding gifts were many and costly.
