CHARLEVOIX RESORT.

Rock Island's Tourist at Michigan's Lovely Summer Place.

A Piersant and Successful Fishing Expedition-Enjoyable Experieaces

CHARLEVOIX. Mich., July 20 - [Special correspondence]-While at Old Mission your correspondent accepted an invitation to join the Saint Alban's school summer camp on a fishing excursion of three days. There were in the party the master, Mr. Noves, eight boys and myself. We went by steamer to Elk Rapids, sev-en miles across the bay, taking two boats and tent and necessary provisions. At Elk Rapids we secured a guide with another boat, and after a hard row of eight miles across Eik lake egainst head wind and high sea, we landed at Squacateeck Point just at nightfall, tired, wet and hungry, pitched the tent, cooked supper, and took a swim and attempted to sleep, with millions of mosquitoes all about us. A head mask partially protected your correspondent, but the rest of the party, including the guide, gave it up, took to the boats and passed the night as best they could, on the water, getting out to fish at 4 o'clock with excellent success, bringing in plenty of pickerel and bass for breakfast During the day we rowed s x miles over Round lake and up Torch and Rapid rivers for brook trout, Rapid river being probably the only place in the world where one can fish for brook trout from a boat. Returning at dark, supper was cooked and eaten with hearty relish, and after a refreshing swim 10 weary people were stretched on the ground under the tent, wooing sleep. The mosquitoes did not trouble us, and we kept perfectly dry even during the beavy rain-out at 4 o'clock for fish of which there seemed to be no limit—and the party took home as trophics about 75 pounds of fine bass and pickerel, having cooked probably as many more. All were sorr; to go home, but the time was up as the boys were obliged to get back for regular study.

Elk Rapids is a place of 1,500 people, a great resort for fishermen, and has a large flouring mill, lumber mills, wood alcohol, and iron smelting works. The firm running all these has an immense store where every thing is sold that can be called for, from fish hooks to laces, the annual sales amounting to $200,000. A chain of lakes extends miles. Wild raspberries and huckleberries are found by the acre in any quantity.
On Sunday at Old Mission we had divine service and a sermon by Dr. Leffing well under the trees near his cottage, about 60 being present, including some choir boys from the parish in Ann Arbor. At organ and full musical service made the day seem very Sunday like. On Friday, the 17th, we left Old Mission at 80'clock with fair wind. arriving at Charlevoix at 1 o'clock. This place is quite a summer resort for people from all over the country. It has a harbor com-pletely land locked—called Sound Lake very deep and capacious, and the town is built around the lake; leading out of Round lake is Pine lake, very deep and of great extent. Just in the suburbs of the town, on Pine lake, are the two resorts for summer visitors, known as the Chicago resort and the Charlevoix resort each having a fine hotel and many cottages. Sail steamboats are piving in all direc-tions, at all bours, and everything is gay with life. We find many old friends here, and make many new ones, and the yacht is visited and inspected by many people. We are laid up for several days for some necessary repairs, and in the meantime are enjoying the pleasures of the place and the climate, though it is cool for the Illinois season. Last night at 9 o'clock the murcury indicated 54 degrees, and at S this morning 57 degrees. Green peas are in their prime: also roses and other flowers. Wild raspberries are everywhere delicious, while fish and lake trout just from the nets, and everybody is pleasant and glad to see you. Yesterday we attended and assisted in divine worship, Bishop Gillespy, of Western Michigan having his summer cottage on the Charlevoix resort. I find one lady with seven children here whom I had the pleasure of marrying some 20 years ago, in Idinois. The yacht lies high and dry on the ways, but we eat and sleep in her as though she were still resting on the bosom of the lake. The good doctor is an "awfully" good bost, and one can never weary of his hospitality. We expect to get off for Mackinac by Wednesday.

Davenport's Ball Club Disbands. It seems to be rather up hill sledding to make a ball club pay in Davenport. The Davenports suffered defeat at the hands of Ottumwa yesterday by a score of 4 to 3, then passed out of existence. At a meeting of representatives of the Iowa and Illinois league, at the Kimbail house last night it was decided to drop Davenport and to form a 6 club league with a schedule. This decision had practically been made when the 12:50 train arrived with J. D. Matteer of Cedar Rapids, who made no objection to the arrangement on the part of the club of that city. So the Quincy club scheduled in Davenport for the next three days, which arrived on the same train as Mr. Matteer, was sent back to Joliet and plays there today. By the time that the league has played out the series of games that begin today the schedule will have been made out. The six clubs, it is understood, have all put up a cash guarantee to play the season out. The Davenport club was practically out of the league before last night's meeting. Part of the players had been paid off and left the city, and some are mourned by landlords and others.

Sage, Rock Island's player, will probably not sign for the remainder of the season, but next year will take an important part in the formation of a club in which Rock Island and Moline shall be jointly interested-and which will pay.

STREET RAILWAY MATTERS.

The Talk About the Sell Out-Disposing of the Stock-The Unpopular Action of the South Rock Island Commission rs.

The Davenport Tribune after copying what THE ABGUS said last night relative to the possibility of the street railway syndicate disposing of its interests in the three cities, adds:

Mr. Louderback was seen last night by Tribune reporter and in reference to the above stated that there was such a deal being considered and that for his part he hoped it would succeed. Dr. Allen, when asked about it, would say nothing, but laughed in a pleased sort of a way. The syndicate has done a great deal for Davenport since it bought the old street car lines.

The sale of the horses owned by the Tri-city railway company, and thrown out of a job by the introduction of electricity on the lines of the company in the tri cities, was opened vesterday at Lorton Bros', stables on East Third street. A crowd of several hundred men, some of them fine judges of horseflesh and competent critics of tine points, attended the sale. The animals shown were in general good condition, and most of them were really excellent horses for common purposes, and they were well broken, and, in the main, free from unpleasant habits of biting, striking, kicking, shying at newspapers and the like. Still the bidding was rather moderate, and most of the sales were made at very moderate figures. It is safe to say that the company sold almost every animal for less money than it paid for the same one a year or so ago. A number of gentles men from other cities attended the sale, and several purchases were made by

The highway commissioners of South Rock Island are receiving no end of unfavorable comment as a result of their arbitrary attitude toward the Rock Island & Milan road regarding the changing of the tower road, and the Dayenport Democrat for instance, says: "The increase in the value of the taxable property of the township would soon overbalance the sum expended on that highway. It is such littleness as this that drives capital away from the three cities, and gives them an unpleasant reputation with the money centers." Rock Island however, has enjoyed a reputation not characteristic of either Motine or Davenport for fairness and liberality with the syndicate, and this city is in no way to blame for the niggardly policy of the commissioners of South Rock Island township.
