Called to Chicago.
 Rev. C. L. Morgan, pastor of the First Congregational church of Moline, who recently declined a call to Dubuque, has received a call to the Church of the Redeemer in Chicago. The call was extended some time ago, but has been kept quiet until it leaked out through one of the church papers. Mr. Morgan has not yet decided whether or not he will accept the call, though he has been strongly urged to do so by some of the pastors of other Chicago churches. The Church of the Redeemer is located about a half mile north of Lincoln park and is a comparatively new church, having been organized only about five years. It numbers about 160 members and has a very large Sunday school. It is thought to afford a field of great promise, though to accept the call would, Mr. Morgan says, be at a present personal sacrifice. Mr. Morgan preached there Sunday.
