ALL READY

FOR THEIR

GRAND FALL OPENING!

The London Clothing Co. are now ready after four weeks' unceasing labor of unpacking, marking and arranging their stupendous line of

Fall and Winter Clothing,

Gents' Furnishing Goods,

Hats and Caps.

Saturday, Sept. 5th they will inaugurate the grandest Fall opening Rock Island, Davenport or Moline has ever witnessed. They will continue it each day and evening the following week. Music will be furnished, the establishment will be handsomely decorated and everything arranged for the convenience and enjoyment of their guests. The many inquiries

THE LONDON

Has had as to when they would be ready to display their Fall and Winter stock has influenced them in having their opening at this time.

This being the first fall opening since the advent of the London Clothing Co. in Rock Island, they are determined to outdo all former attempts.

They are prepared to show a large and more complete line of clothing and gents' furnishings than all the other establishments combined. If you are desirous of knowing the latest styles of men's and boys' clothing, and gents' furnishings attend this grand opening.

Stolen Jewels Recovered.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 5.—A year ago the residence of E. B. Phillips, president of the First National bank at Newcastle, was robbed of two very fine diamonds, some jewelry and money. Mac Meredith was given a four-year sentence in the southern prison for the job, but would not reveal the whereabouts of the valuables. Recently he became penitent and wrote a letter to Mr. Phillips telling him the diamonds, valued at $140, were in possession of Kate Phinney, a notorious character in Muncie. The letter was sent to Marshal Miller, who found the stones and returned them. Meredith implicated two other Newcastle men named Doolan and Sullivan, who are at large.

Is Cheeky as Well as Tough.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 5.—Bud Gosset, at one time a pretty tough citizen, has entered suit in the circuit court against his father-in-law, Judge Dobbs of the county court, claiming damages of $20,000. Some time since Dobbs defended his daughter from the abuse of Gosset, who, uttering threats, started for the old man. Dobbs fired a double-barreled gun at Gosset, putting out his eyes, hence the suit.
