SUNOL AND NANCY HANKS.

How They Got Their Names—Hart Boswell's Obstinacy.

The wonderful performance of Sunol recently in beating the record of Maud S. demonstrated the wisdom of her breeder in selecting a name for the phenomenal mare.

Her supreme performance, however, bids fair to be short lived, as that other famous mare, Nancy Hanks, will soon be sent against the record, with good prospects of success.

"Who knows?" he said to his wife at the time. "By so doing I may perpetuate the name of a great and noble woman."

He has certainly done so, for Nancy Hanks will go down in history as one of the equine wonders of the day.

Several years ago he had a quarrel with a prominent man of Lexington and told him that he would never speak to him again.

Mr. Boswell's admiration for Lincoln dates from the time of his first canvass for the presidency.

"I shall issue my paper tomorrow as usual," was the reply, "and, moreover, will head it abolition."

The wonderful spectacular comedy drama, "777," will be presented at Harper's theatre Thursday evening.

Heroism and crime are the leading elements in A. W. Fremont's "comedy melodrama" "777," now running at Haylin's theatre.

The "Pearl of Pekin" with its rollicking fun, pleasing music, gorgeous costumes and pretty girls, will make merry at the Burtis opera house, Davenport, tomorrow night.

Valentine Nold has filed through his attorney, John Looney, a suit for $5,000 damages against Henry Meyer.

DAVENPORT WANTS IT.

The Famous Williams Race Course Likely to Come to This Locality.

It is rumored that C. W. Williams, the great Independence horseman, has become disgusted with the treatment he has received at the Independence at the hands of the cranks.

Davenport horsemen are after him, and it is understood that if they will offer him an inducement in the shape of $50,000, he will put $50,000 with it, and make Davenport a great racing center.

Mr. Williams is said to favor this locality and it would certainly be advantageous to him to come here.

Church Entertainments

The banquet given by the bachelors of the M. E. church at the church parlors last evening was largely attended and proved a very unique event.

St. Joseph's fair and festival had a large attendance last evening. A number of new displays have been added, and as an unusual amount of interest is being manifested, it will no doubt prove one of the most successful fairs ever held.

To Dispel Cold. Headaches and fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when colic or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Many people suffer from inactivity of the kidneys, and they feel out of sorts; they do not know why. A slight attention to this matter will restore them to perfect health, whereas if they neglect it and then attempt a long course of treatment they are apt to provoke serious trouble.

For this reason Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is the very thing that they need. It stimulates the kidneys to action, carries off the morbid matter, and relieves the system from the poison that would otherwise go into the blood.

For trouble of this sort it is without an equal, and is highly recommended by the best medical authority. It is composed of pure material without opiates and no ill effects can follow from its use.
