COAL VALLEY.

COAL VALLEY, March 8.—Samuel B. Gobut, of Chicago, visited his relatives last week.

G. W. Tomlinson, of Orion, was on our streets Saturday

Paul Starofski and family, of Moline, were here last week.

John H. Jones, of Rock Island, made a call here last Thursday

Hugh McMeekin has filled his engagement at Keller station and is back again.

A large number of our folks attended the sale at Bollman Bros. today.

Miss Tillie Martin is home from Geneseo and commenced her spring term of school on Monday.

Miss Lizzie Wilson has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia, but at last accounts was much better

T. J. Murphy, of Milan, is here to see his father who was taken very ill on Sunday, but at present is slightly better.

Charley Rees, our barber, has moved from his old place to the old drug store building in the Coal Valley hotel building

Edward Mulligan did not remain at the eye and ear hospital on account of his hearing having been of too long standing to be successfully treated.

Mrs. Park, widow of the late John Park at Rock river, is very ill, and is considered fatally so. It is thought she can only survive but a short time.

Mrs. Bessie Caughey, of Brooklyn, Iowa, but for 15 years a resident of this place and Rural, died recently at the residence of her grand daughter after a short illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jenks were here from Brooklyn, Iowa. They came on the 7th and returned on the 8th. Mrs. Jenks was formerly Miss Scott who resided here a number of years.

The remains of Samuel Fergy arrived here on Monday from Brooklyn, Iowa. He lived many years in Rural. His death was very sudden. He was standing on the platform of a well which gave way and he fell 52 feet, but was not killed. A rope was let down to him, and he put his foot in the loop and some of his body on the rope and was drawn up, but did not seem to be seriously hurt, but grew suddenly ill and died in 12 hours afterwards. His remains were buried at Homestean cemetery

On the evening of the 2d at 7 o'clock at the residence of the bride's uncle John Krakas and Miss Amelia Moeller, both of Coal Valley, were united in marriage by John Barton, Esq. The groom is a native of West Prussia and has been in this country about eight years. He is a steady, industrious young man, is a farmer, and during the slack season on the farm has been mining—in fact he can do almost any kind of mechanical labor. The bride was born and raised in this place. She is a daughter of Charles Moeller and is an interesting and industrious young lady, and will make a very suitable companion for the one with whom she is allied. The young couple will make their home for the present in this village. The bridesmaid was Miss Anne Stasenofski, and groomsman John Krapp. The entertainment was superb. The house is spacious, joining it a commodious hall. Mr. and Mrs. Stasenofski welcomed the guests in fine style. As soon as the ceremonies were over music commenced and the watchword was "on with the dance." At 9:30 o'clock a very elegant supper was served. The wedding cake contained a gold ring, and there was a great deal of fun about who would be the lucky one. The lot fell to Willism Pomparine. After the tables had been cleared the dance was resumed and continued until early dawn.
