The Bird of Wisdom.

An owl sat up in a hickory tree,
And said in an impudent manner to me,
"Ter-hoot! ter-hoot! ter-hoot!"

I asked her, politely, "You lovely old bird,
"Have you of the 'Golden Discovery' heard?"
She ruffled her feathers and spoke but a word—
That dreary, monotonous "Who?"

Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery is a warranted lung, liver and blood remedy, a powerful tonic and alterative, and a reliable vitalizer for weak persons; a panacea for scrofula, hip-joint diseases, fever sores, swelling and tumors; contains no alcohol and is a medicine without a peer. There is no risk in buying a guaranteed article. Your money back if it doesn't benefit or cure.

AUGUSTANA NOTES.

Recent Events Concerning the College and Those Attending It.

Rev. N. Nordgren was a caller last Monday.

Examinations are the order of the day. No one will be sorry when they are over.

William Grau is very sick with the typhoid fever. His father arrived Friday morning, having been summoned by a telegram. We wish Mr. Grau a speedy recovery.

Last Thursday evening marked another epoch in the social development at Augustana college.

The Students' Union tendered a reception to the members of the faculty their families and a few selected friends. At 7:30 o'clock all assembled in the commodious chapel to listen to a literary programme. First there was a musical selection by the Augustana Silver Cornet band followed by an invocation by J. A. Anderson. Next we were permitted to hear an address by J. A. Edlund, which was followed by a song from the choir.

Then Prof. C. W. Foss was called upon to respond to the first address, which he did in his usual pleasant way, paying not a few compliments to the students. A double quartette then rendered a song. Prof. C. E. Lindburg, of the theological faculty, then gave a short address on the subject, "Augustana College and Theological Seminary." He treated this subject in a way which brought forth rounds of applause from the audience. Next came a solo by Prof. Griffin. The applause that followed the rendition of this solo showed how it was appreciated.

G. K. Stark, the master of ceremonies, invited all to withdraw to the two seminary rooms, which had been fitted up for dining rooms, where each one was served with refreshments. During the meal the halls were resounding with music from the band, and two or three pianos, which were presided over by the ladies. At its conclusion the toastmaster then announced the following toasts, viz: "The City of Rock Island," Mayor McConochie, "Rock Island and Augustana College," Hon. William H. G. St. "The Sunshine of College Life," Rev. Dr. Macquis. These were promptly responded to by the gentlemen named. The male quartette then concluded the evening exercises with a song, and all departed feeling well pleased with the pleasure they had.

The fall term closes next Wednesday afternoon.
