ABSOLUTELY PURE

DENVER RELIEVED

That There Are But Few Banks Left to Suspend,

AND THEY ARE ABOVE SUSPICION.

Four or Five More Close Their Doors, but Insist That They Can Pay Every Dollar If Not Subjected to Absurd Runs—Some More Tradesmen Collide With Empty Exchequers—A Sort of Cyclone of Liquidation Raging Out West.

DENVER, July 20.—The timorous feeling among depositors in the Denver banks, which has resulted in the closing of a number of these institutions this week, seems at last to have reached its limit and the people are now stopping to think, with the result that more money is being deposited than is being withdrawn. During the day talk on the streets was much more conservative and rational. During the afternoon the five national banks that are still open for business showed no signs of any unusual excitement among their patrons. Indeed, their banking houses were quieter than on many days during ordinary times, and everybody seems to feel that the end of the wholly unjustifiable excitement has been reached.

Three More Bank Suspensions.

The German, People's and State National banks suspended payment and closed their doors in the morning. The German and State banks did not open at all, posting notices just before 10 o'clock announcing the suspension. The People's bank was open for half an hour, but when the closing of the two other institutions became known the directors thought it best to close without further delay. Depositors in the German bank gathered in line early in the morning and the crowd grew so formidable before 10 o'clock that the officials saw that it would be useless to attempt to meet all demands. A smaller crowd gathered at the State with the same result. The bank posted a notice declaring that it was perfectly solvent, but unable to provide funds to meet the extraordinary run.

Working People Were Waiting.

Those who were waiting to withdraw their money from the German National were the smaller depositors, mostly workmen and women who had deposited their entire savings. In the bank and were naturally excited. The absence of business men from the line was a noticeable feature. Some of those who were there had arrived as early as 6 o'clock, and from that hour on to the time of opening the line continued to lengthen. When the notice was posted announcing the suspension there was a general stampede for the doors, all being anxious to read the announcement, but there was no show of hostile demonstration on the part of the assembled depositors, and the police officers who had been posted there to keep order had little trouble in disposing of the crowd. Despite the naturally trying condition of things the people were remarkably cool, and aside from one or two women who broke into tears when they learned that the bank would not open there was little display of feeling.

Seems to Be Pretty Well Healed.

The People's bank posted a notice to the effect that it was closed, but had net assets of $1,100,000 and liabilities of $310,000. At 11 a. m. a run which was started on the First National bank was completely broken and quiet was restored. The run was caused principally by those who were near at hand when notices declaring the suspension of the German and State National were posted. These people at once became panic-stricken, though the remarkably strong condition of the First National is a matter of common knowledge. Around the Denver National, Colorado National, American National and City National banks all was quiet. There were very few calls for money and a few of those who had withdrawn from the suspended banks doubtless repenting their hasty and wholly unjustifiable actions in closing the suspended concerns, were depositing in the banks that yet remained open.

BANK OFFICERS WERE HOPEFUL.

All the Closed Concerns Confident of Paying Their Debts.

Among the officers of the banks which were open for business the expression was unanimous that the flurry was an end and that the people would now see the folly of their actions in forcing a suspension of the banking institutions by all withdrawing their deposits at once and taking from circulation all the money that would ordinarily flow through the regular channels and help in sustaining the business public and the banks. The suspended banks all had much more than enough money to be considered a perfectly safe guaranty in ordinary circumstances, and with business at its normal condition would have laughed at the idea of a run. Cashier Charles M. Clinton, of the German National, stated that during the past three months over $1,000,000 in deposits had been withdrawn and the continual drain together with the run Tuesday had placed the bank in such a condition that a temporary suspension was an absolute necessity, and that Frank Adams, bank examiner for the district, had taken charge. Every dollar in deposits would be paid in time. Bank Examiner Adams said he believed that the banks would resume in a short time, and every officer of these banks is confident of reopening. They all claim—and the claim seems correct—abundant good assets.

A tour of the banks just before their closing hour showed that all excitement had died away, and there was not the least semblance of a "run." The officers of all the banks stated that they were taking in more money than they were paying out. The morning train from Omaha brought in $50,000 in cash for the Denver National. Another bank received two iron safes full of money from the east by express.

Fred H. Hanchett, the Capital bank, and Stephens, Hanchett & Co., of Curtis street, have assigned. The bank was owned by Stephens, Hanchett & Co., and had about 300 depositors, who have small claims.

THE EPIDEMIC NOT OVER.

A Lot of Mercantile Concerns Find the Pressure Too Heavy.

The North Denver bank has closed its doors. There was no great run, but the bank had been unable to realize upon its securities and was short of funds. The depositors have been assured that they will be paid 10 cents on the dollar.

The Tucker Shirt and Furnishing company, doing business on Sixteenth street, has assigned. The assets are placed at $85,000 and the liabilities at about $13,000. The Flaniers dry goods house, one of the largest in the city, has made an assignment. No schedule of assets and liabilities has been made.

The Pallack-Sayre-Newton Lumber company has assigned. No schedule given. F. H. Sayre, the assignee, said the assignment was the direct result of the closing of the State National bank and was necessary simply to gain time during the present excitement. The Blake Lumber company assigned to Emmet B. Ames, No schedule filed.

The Palace drug store, corner Sixteenth and Curtis streets, made an assignment. J. H. Naylor, a furniture dealer, also assigned. An assignment was also made by the People's Coal company to John Q. O'Neill. No schedule.

Other assignments with no schedules were: Goldhammer & Weiss, saloon and restaurant keepers; August Wehrle, jeweler; the Harrison Hannans millinery store; DeMange & Co., dealers in gentlemen's furnishing goods; Silas B. Jacobs, gentlemen's furnishing goods.

IN COLOFADO AND KANSAS.

State and National Banks Forced to Suspend Business.

GREELEY, Colo., July 20.—The Union bank closed its doors, and a half hour later the Greeley National pulled down its blinds. The Union statement is to the effect that owing to the suspension of certain Denver national banks which had on deposit several thousand dollars of its money, and the fact of a steady withdrawal of deposits—about $80,000 the past twenty days—they were compelled to suspend business. They say their liabilities are about $100,000, with assets and paid-up capital at $300,000. As soon as the fact of the suspension of these banks became known a steady run was made on the First National, but it continued to honor all checks and drafts, and even after the closing hour cashed two checks presented.

Comfort for Kansas City Banks.

KANSAS CITY, July 20.—Kansas City depositors have dropped the role of bank wreckers and assumed that of benefactors. Petitions are in circulation asking officers of suspended banks to reopen their doors and pledging support. Expressions of confidence and a wish that they reopen have been tendered the National Bank of Kansas and the Missouri National, the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings bank and the Bank of Grand Avenue.

Excitement at Aspen.

ASPEN, Colo., July 20.—The Wheeler Banking company, the pioneer bank of the city, has closed its doors. A statement of its affairs cannot be learned at present. A notice on the door reads: "This bank has closed and is in the hands of Benjamin Ferris." A run was started on the First National and the greatest excitement prevailed. One thousand people were in line drawing their deposits.

Owing to the Denver Trouble.

LOVELAND, Colo., July 20.—The following notices were posted upon the door of the Bank of Loveland: "Owing to the closing of our Denver correspondents we have decided to close our doors temporarily. Our assets are largely in excess of our liabilities. Every depositor will be paid in full."

Bank Closed in Hutchinson.

HUTCHINSON, Kas., July 20.—The Hutchinson National bank did not open its doors, but posted a notice of suspension. Its assets are $231,000 and liabilities $211,000. The bank is in good condition and under ordinary pressure would not have experienced any difficulty.

Two State Banks Shut Up.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 20.—Information has been received at the office of the state bank commissioner of the failure of the State Bank of Parker, Lincoln county, and of the Woodson State bank of Yates Center, Woodson county. Both are small concerns.

Outrages by the Unemployed.

HELENA, Mont., July 20.—Reports of outrages by unemployed miners at Phillipsburg and Butte are still continuing to be received. Joseph Slay, an employee of the Electric Light company, while on his way home in broad daylight was stopped by three men, beaten until he was insensible and $225 taken from him. At Butte Mrs. John Orrington was called on by three ruffians about 3 o'clock. They forced their way into the house, threw her to the floor and one of the men held her and kept stabbing her in the face with a knife whenever she cried. The other men looted the house, obtaining $615.

A Columbian Half Dollar Comes Back.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Since their issue last year not one of the Columbian half dollars had found its way back to the treasury department until Monday, when one was received in a package of money sent for redemption by an Atlanta bank.

Fund for the Victoria Sufferers.

LONDON, July 20.—The lord mayor's fund for the relief of the families who lost members in the Victoria disaster has been closed to contributors, a total of £50,000 having been reached.

Never leave the light burning during the evening when the room is unoccupied. This is not only a waste but the air becomes vitiated and is considered unhealthful.

COLD WAVE ON TAP

"Old Probs" May Go Out of Business Now.

WEATHER SUPPLIED TO A DEGREE.

A South Dakota Company Which Has a Contract With the Blizzard—Boreas to Come From His Lair and Waft Cool Zephyrs Over the Fields Parched by Torrid Winds—County Rights for Sale.

ABERDEEN, S. D., July 20.—The International Cold Wave company with a capital of $5,000,000 and a surplus one-third that sum has been organized by local capitalists and enthusiasts who expect to make untold wealth in the next few years to come. The company has discovered a secret the potency of which if applied at the right time and under favorable conditions will vitiate and destroy the hot winds which arise in Kansas and at times have been known to sweep this country, burning and killing the growing crops.

Will Coax Boreas from His Lair. This secret will be placed on sale and revealed to residents of townships, counties, and other political divisions who put up the money. When the wind is blowing hot and strong from the south the company will undertake to bring a counter wind from the ice fields of the frozen north. Just what process has been evolved or to whom the marvelous discovery is to be attributed are not matters for publicity.

AN ILL-FATED EXCURSION.

Six Sunday School Children and a Woman Seriously Injured.

BUFFALO, July 20.—The wreck of a Sunday School excursion train reported in these dispatches was a serious as well as remarkable one—remarkable not only for the fact that the train was piled into a turn table pit, but that the disaster was not a great deal more serious for the children were all mixed up with the splintered cars and two locomotives and only seven seriously injured, the others hurt—fifteen or twenty in number—suffering such hurts as sprained ankles and other slight injuries.

All honor is due to Bob Hanson, flagman of the excursion train. With a broken arm and a bruised side he remembered that another train was behind, and went back and flagged it. He then fainted. Jack Norris, fireman, has a fractured skull, and the children badly hurt are Harry Sauer, both legs broken; Arthur Sauer, leg broken and serious bruises and cuts; Fannie Whitmer, cut about feet and legs and bruised; Willie Whitmer, her 10-year-old brother, legs badly crushed and severe cuts about head; George Ferguson, cut on face and seriously bruised internally; Nellie Stessel, leg cut and head crushed; Mrs. Robert Hood, legs badly injured and cut about face.

HE DIDN'T WANT GOLD.

NEW YORK, July 20.—A. J. Weil sold on the floor of the exchange $50,000 United States bonds to Harvey Fisk & Sons, payable in currency, but refused at first to deliver them because gold was tendered. Regarding the transaction Harvey Fisk & Sons said: "After the close of the government bond call A. J. Weil offered $50,000 government 4's at 110½, or ½ per cent. below the bid price, payable in currency. I came to the conclusion that this offer was for the effect on the market and I purchased the bonds and tendered in payment $5 and $10 gold pieces."

"Weil refused to accept the gold coin, and said it was not currency. I informed Weil that it was the best currency in circulation in the United States and that if he refused to deliver the bonds before 2:15 p. m. today I would buy him in under the rule. A short while ago Weil called at my office in a cab, delivered the bonds and departed with the gold."

A White Man This Time.

RICHMOND, Va., July 20.—A Times special from Coeburn, Wise county, Va., says that A. M. Rogers, a drummer representing Messrs. Henderson & Co., boot and shoe merchants of Chicago, was beaten unmercifully by a mob of twenty-five citizens a few days ago for an alleged assault upon the 11-year-old daughter of Depot Agent Utter at that place. Several of the mob have been arrested and jailed. The father of the girl applied the lash, while the others looked on.

Prof. Briggs' Book Condemned.

CINCINNATI, July 20.—Advance copies of Professor Charles A. Briggs' new book entitled, "The Defense of Professor Briggs Before the General Assembly," have just been received in Cincinnati and are creating a sensation. Said Rev. P. C. Montford, of The Herald and Presbyter: "This new book by Briggs is a deliberate insult to the general assembly and the Presbyterian church. The book condemns itself."

Wharton Backed For Silver.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The bimetallic league is in possession of a letter written by Wharton Barker, a Philadelphia banker, under date of July 12 to President Cleveland, in which he gives his reasons for believing that the present is the time to adopt a bimetallic standard in this country if the United States would attain the commercial supremacy of the world.

Dropped and Suspended Pensioners.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Inquiry at the pension office elicits the information that the total number of pensioners dropped from the rolls since March 4, 1893, is 247, and that the total number of pensioners suspended from the rolls since March 4, pending a further investigation of their cases, was 5,493.

The Daily Lynching Item.

MEMPHIS, July 20.—Two or three mobs are hunting a negro who attempted to outrage a white woman near here. When he is found he will be lynched. One of the mobs ordered a negro to halt, and he, naturally apprehensive, started to run. He was fired on and mortally wounded.

The North and South Railway.

ST. PAUL, July 20.—A government surveying party will leave Jamestown, N. D., soon on a preliminary survey of a railroad route to the Gulf of Mexico. United States Engineer George Hawkins will have charge of the party, which will consist of five persons.

Illinois Central Dividend.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The directors of the Illinois Central have declared a dividend of 2½ per cent. from the net earnings for the six months ended June 30, 1893, payable Sept. 1.

ON THE OUTSIDE—

that is the best place to keep the huge, old-fashioned pill. Just as soon as you get it inside, it begins to trouble you. What's the use of suffering with it, when you can get more help from Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets? These tiny, sugar-coated granules do you good. They act mildly and naturally, and there's no reaction afterward. Constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are prevented, relieved, and permanently cured.

They're the smallest, the easiest to take, and the cheapest—for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money is returned.

You pay only for the good you get. Nothing else urged by the dealer, though they may be better for him to sell, can be "just as good" for you to buy.

A WALK OVER.

Our Shoes have a Walk-over. For downright positive cheapness you will find it not difficult, but impossible to match our fine shoes.

Our artist's private opinion is that he has a walk-over. Well, he might be much further from the truth. Don't take our word for it; investigate the matter for yourself. A small margin on a continuous customer knocks out a big margin on a single sale every time.

That is why we are selling this shoe at a figure which no other dealer has ever dared to quote and that is why prudent purchasers are prompt purchasers.
