Red cotton has been raised at Alpharetta, Ga., where a planter had a quantity of cotton, every stock of which is a deep red color.

THE VISION OF BIRDS.

It Is Often Microscopic and More Acute Than Man's.

Birds have very acute vision, perhaps the most acute of any creature, and the sense is also more widely diffused over the retina than is the case with man.

Young chickens are also able to find their own food—knowing its position and how distinct it is—as soon as they are hatched.

Like Father Like Son.

A young man returned home a few days ago from a trip to South Africa for his health and in narrating his adventures to his father, he told him he had bought a silver mine for $5,000.

More Gate Than Village.

A tourist had visited a small historic town. He was shown the massive wall that surrounded it and the immense town gates.
