

National and Local— WEEKLY NEWS IN PICTURES

SEEKING $10 MILLION—An assistant to New York's Mayor Wagner, Mrs. Anna Hedgeman has been named chairman of the municipal employee group of the Greater New York Fund, now seeking $10,000,000 for 425 affiliated hospitals and health and welfare agencies. In addition to other posts, Mrs. Hedgeman has held high office in the Federal Security agency, and is a widely-known lecturer.

WORLD BEATER—Lou Jones of Army breaks the tape in the 400 meter finals for a new world record of 45.2. in the recent Olympic trials at Los Angeles. He clipped two-tenths of a second from his old mark, set in 1955. Jim Lea of the USAF (hidden by Jones) was second. J. W. Mashburn, right, was fourth, and Charlie Jenkins of Villanova, third.

'STEELY SILENCE'—At United Steelworkers headquarters in Chicago, union officials stoically pose with picket signs, prepared in advance for the nationwide steel strike which began at midnight on June 30.

FACTS ON TRIBUNE MOST POPULAR

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Superintendent Contest

— AWARDS —

SAVING BONDS - TROPHIES - CASH

Attention Ministers, Sunday school teachers, and pupils:

The Detroit Tribune Publishing Co., Inc. is sponsoring a POPULARITY CONTEST for Sunday School Superintendents in Michigan.

The Contest officially begins with the April 21 issue, and closes ten weeks later on June 30.

Awards to the first three superintendents, receiving the highest number of votes will be given.

First prize will be a $50 U.S. Savings Bond, and trophy for the Sunday school; Second, $25 Savings Bond, and trophy for the Sunday school, and Third, $12.50 cash and trophy for the Sunday school.

How to enter?

Any superintendent, or church member may clip out the NOMINATION blank, in the current issue of the TRIBUNE, and mail to the Church Contest Editor, 970 Gratiot.

The NOMINATION BLANK is worth 100 votes.

A COUPON, will run in the TRIBUNE each week, and worth ten (10) votes, when clipped out, and mailed in to the Church Editor.

Award winners will be determined by the largest number of votes received by a Sunday School Superintendent.

A three month subscription to the TRIBUNE is worth 260 votes; six (6) months, worth 600 votes and one year, 1500 votes.

Subscriptions are $1.00 for 3 months, $2.00 for 6 months and $4.00 for one year.

Churches will receive five cents (5c) for every newspaper sold. All churches or their representatives will receive forty percent (40%) of each subscription sold.

The superintendent's picture will appear at least once in the paper during the contest, and free stories, and photographic work, will be awarded the church of the superintendent, polling the largest number of votes.

For delivery of TRIBUNE newspapers, or additional information, call WO. 2-4937, or WO. 2-1022, or write to the contest editor at 970 Gratiot.

Miss Ruby McKenzie, contest editor

Mrs. B. Elizabeth Ellington, Editor, Manager
(Detroit Tribune)

SPORTING BLOOD—American tennis champion Althea Gibson, who recently went down to defeat at Wimbledon, is pictured with Mrs. Winthrop Aldrich, wife of the U. S. ambassador, on the courts at the ambassador's residence in London.

O! MY ACHING HEAD—Yama Bahama, right, the pride of the Caribbean, delivers a smashing right to the head of Philadelphia middleweight Gil Turner, in the eighth round of their recent bout at the garden. Yama, from the island of Bimini, took the 10-round main event by a unanimous decision.